FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday afternoon, March 9, at 4 o'clock, there will be a musical recital in charge of Miss Jennie F. W. Johnson of the American Conservatory of Music, Mr. Hilbert Stewart and Mr. Hugh Buchanan. Mrs. C. P. Woolley spent Sunday in Washington, D. C., remaining until after the 4th. From there she will visit Hampton, returning home the first of next week. Mrs. G. L. Cone will entertain her Mothers' Club Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with a well-prepared program of practical talks, followed by general discussion.

The Center Woman's Club met Tuesday afternoon, reporting the bazaar of last week with good success. Our president, Mrs. Eva Jenifer, was re-elected chairman of the Executive Board in the City Federation of Clubs Monday. Miss Ellen Snyder, teacher of sewing class, is preparing for an exhibit of the year's work for the annual meeting in May. So beautiful is the work some of the club women are giving special lessons for their own home interest.
