

Birmingham

MRS. KATHERINE KENT LAMBERT
1720-A, N. Fourth Avenue

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 1—Dr. Noah Turner of Fairfield was killed when his auto was hit by a Chicago bound Seminole Limited early Saturday afternoon. Wilbur Ector, driver of the car, was seriously injured and is at St. Vincent hospital. He is not expected to live.

* * *

Members of the Semper Fidelis club enjoyed their meeting last Tuesday afternoon when Mesdames P. D. Jackson, and W. R. Reed were joint hostesses. Mrs. Reed gave a musical number; Mrs. H. A. Doss presided over a lengthy business meeting. Mrs. Bessie Johnson read an interesting paper on the life of George Carver of Tuskegee. Mrs. Charles McGregor conducted this program. Mrs. C. L. Thrayer of California, Mrs. R. B. Barnes of Jackson, Tenn., and Mrs. Carrie Huggins of this city were special guests.

* * *

A local group of graduates and former students of Atlanta university met with Miss Alyce Diffay at her home this week and formed an Atlanta University club. The purpose is to keep alive the spirit of the university. The Alumni Association has on foot a drive which is hoped will net $30,000. The local group has pledged $600. Mrs. Eugenia Belcher is expected to be hostess to the club at its next meeting, and former students and graduates and friends are invited to these meetings.

* * *

Mrs. Alice Padgett of Cincinnati, Ohio, is enjoying many social courtesies while she is with her cousin, Mrs. J. Mae Bolden of Omeg street.

* * *

Local Alpha Eta, of Iota Phi Lambda sorority, is planning big things. During the next two weeks, April 10 to 12, will be Negro Business on Parade. Each business is asked to enter some young woman in a contest to try to win a scholarship.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Williams, formerly of this city, have decided to remain in Chicago indefinitely, making it their home. They are now at 4934 Prairie avenue.

* * *

The Chesterfield club made its initial bow to society Friday evening at the Elk's Rest when they entertained three hundred of society's elite. The members of this group, some who were members of the Ajax club until recently, are: Clarence Wilborn, president; John Burrell, vice president; Elmer Harris, secretary; Rovelto Arnold, treasurer; Eugene R. Lawton, reporter; J. Santonia Simmons Jr., business manager. Their colors are navy blue and white; flower is a carnation; and motto, "confidence." All enjoyed this delightful courtesy.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Warner Bradley of Kalamazoo, Mich., stopped over en route from New Orleans, where they spent two weeks. They were motor-ing and were the guests of the New Home hotel.

* * *

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Royal Ragland entertained the members of the Sinovadad club at her home, 605 North Ninth court. Valentine motifs were carried out in decorations which made the home lovely. A program was featured at this meeting with Alvin Harrison as guest speaker, using for his subject, "Employment Among Negroes." Mrs. Lillian Stone Moore was guest soloist; she was accompanied by Mrs. Dan Kennon. Other guests were Mesdames W. P. Williams, and H. L. Lomon. The hostess served a tasty menu, assisted by her sister, Mrs. ... V. Lewis and daughter, Edith. The next meeting will be with Miss Florence Johnson.

* * *

Miss Onie Williams of Eufaula, Ala., stopped over several days en route from New Orleans, La., where she was the guest of her niece, who is a student of Xavier. She enjoyed the Mardi Gras carnival with friends.

* * *

H. D. Coke and Mrs. Coke and Mr. and Mrs. A. Strong motored to Washington, D. C., where they attended the Youth conference. They returned Saturday.

* * *

The Periclean club's forum Friday night brought out many to the Sixteenth Street Baptist church. Rev. D. F. Thompson is pastor. Atty. Elsie Austin was guest speaker. She is from Washington, D. C. This forum was a feature of Negro History Week. Attorney Austin was entertained with a formal dance by members of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority Saturday evening at the Elks' Rest.

* * *

Lovely Rita (Ellaratus) Haywood will wed on March 27 Herbert Melbourne at the home of Mrs. Ann Harper. Both are natives of our city, but they have made their home in New York City for the past six years. Both are in business now. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haywood, expect to attend the wedding which will be of interest to many friends here. Rita is one of the prettiest of the young Haywood sisters. They are at 158 West 131st street, New York City.

* * *

Week end visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Conley and two lovely young sub-deb daughters, and Mrs. Yates, sister of the late Dr. Parker, all of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. R. Barnes of Jackson, Tenn.; Mrs. Thayer of California, Mrs. Conley, and Mrs. Yates were breakfast guests Monday when Mrs. Carol Hayes and Mrs. Herman Clayborne entertained jointly a large number of friends.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James Tenille arrived from Portland, Oregon, where they visited their sister, Mrs. Katie Pugh, for several weeks.

* * *

Mrs. Mary Green arrived from Piper, Ala., where she was the guest of her mother for several weeks.

* * *

The Postal employees celebrated their tenth anniversary Wednesday evening at the Elk's Rest, with a grand dance. Decorations were beautiful, music peppy, guests happy, and the members were oh, so cordial to their guests. This was one of the most enjoyable of the mid-winter dances. These members seldom give the personnel of their club; they are so modest in making it known who are really responsible for the lovely courtesies extended their many friends.