

Baha'is Host 11 Japanese At Lunch

WILMETTE—In their quest for world peace through religion, eleven Japanese leaders spent Sunday afternoon as guests of the United States Baha'is at a luncheon in the national headquarters building on Sheridan rd. and at the public services which followed in the nearby Baha'i House of Worship. They were chosen by the international Inter-Faith Fellowship of Tokyo to represent a cross-section of the religious life of Japan.

Each of the leaders was presented with a copy of the Baha'i Peace Program which sets forth the spiritual basis on which, Baha'is are confident, world peace can be built.

Hugh Chance, secretary of the National Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of the United States, reviewed the efforts being made by Baha'is all over the world in a ten-year crusade to lay a spiritual foundation and to establish an administrative order to implement it.

Also a guest of the Baha'is, and one of the readers at the Sunday afternoon service, was Dr. Marcus Bach. Dr. Bach is tour host for the delegation, sponsored by the school of religion, State University of Iowa.
