

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Gives Husband Surprise
Mrs. Viola Hutcherson, 4031 Indiana avenue, entertained in honor of her husband on last Monday evening. The occasion was his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lawrence, Mrs. E. E. Clayton and W. Channels.

Mrs. McCarty Honored
The officers of Council 1500, Builders of America, presented Mrs. F. McCarty, local inspector, with a silver gravy ladle at their meetings last Tuesday evening for her faithful service and also as a birthday gift. The presentation was by Mrs. E. E. Clayton, recording secretary.

Stork Visits
Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Young are the proud parents of a 5-pound baby boy, born Jan. 2. Mr. Young is connected with the firm of Jackson & Young 5200 Wabash avenue.

Called to Kansas City
Mrs. C. W. Field, 3337 Vernon avenue, was called to Kansas City, Mo., on account of the death of a brother, Henry Wilson.

500 Club Entertains
The 500 club held their annual party Friday night in honor of their husbands at the residence of Mrs. Frank Brown, 4530 Champlain avenue. A delightful luncheon was served and the guests enjoyed the evening at whist and music. Members of the club are, as follows: Mesdames Alberta Moore Covington, Alfred Hampton, Joseph Showcraft, Walter Z. Martin, Frank Brown, Hattie Connor, R. R. Jackson, Hattie Ayles, William Faves, Dallas Harper, Blanche Wright Page, Harry Horsey, Rufus Sampson and John Banks.

Attends Funeral
Russell H. Payne, 739 East 38th street, was called to Washington, Pa., to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Mary Payne, who died there Saturday. Mrs. Payne leaves five sons, one daughter and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Simpson Entertained
Mrs. Beatrice Barker and Mrs. Jessie White entertained Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Maude Simpson of Champlain, Ill., at the residence of Mrs. Marie Barker, 4562 Wabash avenue. The evening was spent in whist and music, after which a delightful luncheon was served. Miss Viola Miller of the American Conservatory of Music and Fannie Moore rendered vocal numbers. Miss Estella Bonds was accompanist.

Mrs. Blewitt Sick
Mrs. Mary J. Tyler, Evansville, Ind., is in the city at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Blewitt, 537 East 25th street.

Burial Father
Mrs. Ida Chandler has returned to her home, 4731 St. Lawrence avenue, after attending the funeral of her father, Burrell Barrett, at Waterliet, N. Y. Mr. Barrett was a Civil war veteran and was well known through the East.

Called to Georgia
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Coleman, 4930 St. Lawrence avenue, left Saturday evening for Savannah, Ga., due to the death of Mr. Coleman's mother.

Mrs. Mason Visits
Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Mason of Gary, Ind., with their sister, Mrs. Sophia Gibson Anderson of Peoria, Ill., were holiday guests of their uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, 3710 Indiana avenue. Mrs. Mason has been an efficient clerk in the forestry department at Washington, D. C., for a number of years and is a graduate of the law department of Howard university. She is now located in Gary, Ind., with her husband, as law partner.

Entertained Visitors
Over 50 guests were present at a party honoring Lacey Manier of Detroit, Mich., and John Thompson of this city at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Simonton, 3744 Rhodes avenue. W. H. Crawford was host.

Graduates
Mrs. Marie Barker, 4025 Calumet avenue, graduated Tuesday evening from the Chicago Training school for home and public health nursing.

Causes Jeweler's Arrest
Because she was dissatisfied with the work that had been done on her watch which she had carried to be repaired, Joseph Lane, a jeweler with a shop at 76 East 31st street, his wife and daughter, Sarah and Minnie, locked the door and assaulted Mrs. Emma Whorton, 125 East 48th street, according to her story. The three were arrested by Officers Farrell and McGlinchey and will be tried Jan. 24.

Jealous of Other Fellow
The piercing screams of a woman as she jumped out of a cab attracted the attentions of Officers Wetter and Haynes of the Cottage Grove avenue station. They overtook Miss Muriel Allen, 3344 State street, who told them that Earl Edwards, 6441 Oglesby avenue, had choked her when she told him that she was engaged to another fellow.

Did You Ever Play It?
"No, indeed, your honor, that is a mistake. My wife and I were not fighting. We were only playing a little game of pinching when Officers Adlan and Trilling arrested us," declared William Williams, 2923 Federal street, when he and his wife, Alice, were arraigned before Judge Joseph Schulman. "What kind of a game is that?" asked the court. "I do not think that I have ever heard of it."

"Well, you see, I pinches her and she pinches me back and whoever pinches the hardest wins the game," easily explained William.

"I guess that you have won," answered the court when William's story was corroborated by the wife.

Tries to Choke Teacher
Mrs. Anna Julius, 51 West 31st street, who was arrested by Sergeant Raymond Green and Officer William Holmes, on complaint of Mrs. Cecil Jones, a school teacher, 3767 Grand boulevard, was fined $10 and costs by Judge Joseph Schulman. Mrs. Jones testified that Mrs. Julius had tried to choke her. She was corroborated by Arsel Teasley and Aaron Brown, two of her pupils.

Fractures Shoulder
As she was attempting to cross the street at 43d street and Cottage Grove avenue, Mrs. Lillie Posey, 23, 4102 St. Lawrence avenue, sustained a fractured shoulder when she was struck by an automobile.

Dislocates Knee
Mrs. Ida Bell, 19, 3909 Federal street, was carried to the South Side hospital suffering with a dislocated knee. She fell to the pavement from a street car when she missed her footing.

Injured Emptying Coal
While pulling a lever to dump a truck load of coal at 4733 St. Lawrence avenue, the cross-bar broke and struck John Jones, 35, 6228 Ada street, over the eye, causing a deep cut.

William Saunders Dies
A coroner's jury was impaneled to determine the cause of the sudden death of William Saunders, 45, 4635 Vincennes avenue, it was determined that he had died of walking pneumonia.

Husband Kicks Wife
A physician's services were required to dress the wounds of Mrs. William, 25, 5312 Indiana avenue, who claimed that she had been beaten and kicked by her husband, Otto.

Falls Through Stairway
While moving furniture up a stairway in the rear of 215 East 39th street, the stairway broke, causing Charles Muse, 40, 3809 Indiana avenue, to fall through the stairway from the second floor to the ground below. He sustained an injured back.

Finds Baby Dead
It was the pitiful experience of Mrs. Delilah Logwood, 2792 Dearborn street, to wake up in the morning and find her three-months-old son, Earl, lying dead beside her. The child had died of natural causes.

BAHAL SERVICES
Next Sunday at the Bahai assembly meeting in St. John hall, Masonic temple, Randolph and State streets, at 3:30 p. m. Albert Vail will lecture on "America's Part in World Peace." All races are welcome to these services. The next national Bahai convention, in April or May, will be held in the basement of the temple in Wilmette. Word has been received that Jenabi Fazel, the noted Persian university professor, and his family have taken passage at Haifa, Palestine, and are en route to the United States. He will tour the country and deliver lectures explanatory of the Bahai revelation. Chicago may be his home.

Falls Down Stairs
While coming down the stairs of her home, 3800 Eden avenue, Mrs. Florence Costello, 38, lost her footing and fell down the stairway. She sustained a broken leg.

Little Girl Injured
Little 6-year-old Vivian Wright, 3515 Prairie avenue, was carried to Provident hospital suffering with a abrasion on the top of her head. She was struck by an automobile at 36th place and Michigan avenue.

Assaulted with Knife
During a quarrel with Johnnie Nance, 3219 Rhodes avenue, Frank Goldsby, 23, 3117 Giles avenue, was cut on the shoulder with a knife. Nance was arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Alice Cuts Walter
Armed with a knife, Mrs. Alice Jackson sought to protect herself from her husband, Walter, while they were quarreling in their home at 107 West 38th street. Walter is nursing a deep cut on the arm.

Sustains a Five-Inch Cut
Mrs. Kizzie Smith, 35, 3145 Rhodes avenue, was carried to the hospital suffering with a five-inch cut in the back. She stated that while she was quarreling with Nelson Neil in her home he assaulted her with a razor.

Struck by Auto
As she was attempting to cross the street at 35th street and Grand boulevard, Mrs. Emma Smith, 35, 525 East 37th place, was painfully injured when she was struck by an automobile in charge of Joe Leggins, 3519 State street.

Injured While Working
An automobile traveling at a terrific pace failed to stop after it had struck Frank Fields, 33, Lincoln hotel, while he was shoveling coal into a wheelbarrow in front of 3725 Lake Park avenue. It required 12 stitches to sew up the wound in his scalp.

Injured Internally
While driving a horse and wagon across Grand boulevard at 37th street, Rufus Simps, 14, 3006 Federal street, was struck by an automobile driven by Dr. J. M. Allison, 435 East 35th street. He suffered internal injuries.

Punctures Lung
Suffering with a puncture in the lung caused by a knife wound inflicted by Charles Watkins during a quarrel, Tom Foster, 35, 2523 LaSalle street, was carried to the hospital. Watkins escaped after the assault.

How Was He Injured?
The police are confronted with a mystery as to who injured Humphrey Hall, 50, 1447 State street. Hall was found in the rear of 2524 Wabash avenue with a possible skull fracture and a deep cut over the eye. He was also suffering with alcoholism.

Accidentally Scalds Self
Mrs. Florence Johnson, 47, 2707 Federal street, was carried to the County hospital suffering with a scalded leg, which she sustained when she overturned a boiler of scalding water on her.

In California
Mrs. Lillian Holland, daughter of Mrs. Dora Cannon, 19 East 31st street, has gone to Los Angeles, Cal., in search of better health. Mrs. Holland is a member of the White Rose council, A. U. W. E. of A., and several other organizations in the city.

In Morgan Park
Among the many visitors in Morgan Park during the past Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sawyer, guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Johnson, 1148 South Elizabeth street, and Miss Wilena Ellison as the guest of Mrs. J. D. Edwards, 1305 West 109th place.

Returns to Canada
Thornton Cherry, cousin of Archie E. Pinkney, 4114 Calumet avenue, who spent several days with him as his guest at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Ella Young, has returned to Chatham, Canada, after a pleasant stay in the United States.

Back from the West
Eugene Fields, 3608 South State street, who spent several weeks, including the Christmas and New Year holidays with parents, relatives and friends at Leavenworth, Kan., after a long absence and who visited several other cities in Kansas, has returned to the city much pleased with his Western trip.

Goes to Iowa
Wm. Washington, 15 West 36th street, is now on a visit to Albion, Iowa, in interest of the soldiers' bonus and to visit relatives after a long absence.

Returns to Home
Rev. H. W. Jameson, national grand master of the world of U. R. F. & S. M. T., has returned to southern Illinois after attending the public installation of U. R. F. & S. M. T. and looking after other matters in the city pertaining to the organization.

Visits Aurora
Mrs. Lou Ella Young, 4114 Calumet avenue, made a flying trip to Aurora on Friday, Jan. 12, to install the officers of the Household of Ruth in the public installation.

Bible Lecture
"Millions Now Living Will Never Die," Bible lecture, auspices International Bible Students' association, Sabbath, "The Hereafter," by S. Jacobs, Sunday, Jan. 21, 3 o'clock p. m., at the Peoples' Movement club, 3110 Indiana avenue. All are invited. Seats free; no collection.

Mrs. Tate Convalescent
Mrs. Cora Tate, wife of James Tate of the Vendome theater orchestra, who has been ill with scarlet fever since Dec. 21, is convalescing and after Jan. 26 will be able to receive her friends at 1751 Church street, Morgan Park.

Gives Luncheon at Vincennes
Mrs. Clifford Johnson, 3311 State street, well-known undertaker, was hostess at a luncheon Thursday afternoon, Jan. 4, to a number of professional and business women. The object of the gathering was to promote a greater interest in charity and to form an organization among the business women who will look after the interest of our poor children all during the year.

Evangelistic Meetings
If you have not attended the meetings at Grant Memorial A. M. E. church, 46th and Evans avenue, you have missed a blessing. Miss Martha J. Keys of Kentucky, evangelistic, will deliver a special sermon to girls and women on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 21, at 3 o'clock. The choir, under direction of Mrs. Adah Scott, will render a musical program.

Grand Rally
Sunday, Jan. 21, at 3 o'clock, at Old Fellows' hall, 3315 South State street, a grand rally will be held under the auspices of the United A. M. E. church for the benefit of the Mary French Home of Redeeming Love, for old folks and children, 145 West-43 street. The meeting will be conducted by the following pastors: the Rev. C. H. Clark of Ebenezer Baptist church, master of ceremonies; the Rev. Edward Williams of Hope Presbyterian church, line hymn; the Rev. Anderson Martin, Zion Hill Baptist church, invocation; the Rev. N. L. Smith, St. Paul's C. M. E. church, sermon. St. Paul's C. M. E. choir has been invited to furnish the music. The Rev. F. F. Jones, Springfield Baptist church, and the Rev. Foster of Little Zion Baptist church, and other clergymen will assist in rendering the program. The Hon. T. Arnold Hill and the Hon. Warren B. Douglas will also take part.

Mrs. Violet Jones-Jackson Dies
Mrs. Violet Jones-Jackson, who had been confined at Provident hospital for the past year, died Jan. 14.

Red Caps Meet
The Red Cap Benevolent association of the Chicago Northwestern station held their installation of officers and 10th annual banquet at the Appomatox club Tuesday, Jan. 9. Andrew Henderson was toastmaster for the evening. Officers re-elected for the year are: Otis Robinson, president; James Walden, vice-president; Wm. Holliday, treasurer; W. F. Hall, secretary; Burrell Brown, sergeant-at-arms.

Red Caps Purchase Property
The Red Caps club has purchased the property at 3441 Wabash avenue, formerly owned by the Railroad Men's International Benevolent association. The interior is now being remodeled and a grand opening will be held Friday evening, Jan. 26, at 9 o'clock, to which the public is invited. The parlors of this club will be open for regular for parties, whist clubs, civic meetings, etc. The club will not only be a local issue, but universal, and will compare favorably with the Red Cap headquarters for Race men in New York City.

Gaudeamus Club Entertains
Last week Chicago was honored by the presence of a number of the officials of the National Federation of Colored Women's clubs, Miss Hallie Q. Brown, president, among them. On Thursday, Jan. 11, the Gaudeamus club gave a travel luncheon at the home of Mrs. Jeanette Smith, 4740 Prairie avenue. As each course was served Mrs. Grace Outlaw told in blank verse and rhyme something typical of the various sections and countries which gave the vivands their origin. Vocal numbers were contributed by Miss Edith Spencer and Josephine Baker. Miss Brown rendered several selections from Dunbar.

Concert Company Scores
Hardy B. Woodfolk, tenor, and his concert company entertained Monday evening, Jan. 15, for the South Side Master Barbers' association, in the Citizens Bank building, 55th and State streets. Mme. Edmonson and Miss Alpha Bradford were splendidly received. Mr. Woodfolk lived up to his reputation as one of our most popular tenor singers. The program was closed by Miss E. Davis and her trio of syncopators.

Struck by Truck
Suffering with a fractured leg, Aaron Walker, age 39, 51 East 44th street, was carried to the County hospital. He was hit by an automobile truck as he was attempting to cross the street at 44th and State streets.

May Lose Leg
A joke played upon Jatt Nettles, 17, who had recently come here from Memphis, Tenn., may cause him to lose his right leg. While in a bowling alley at 23d and State streets, someone, in a spirit of fun, poured some alcohol on him and set him on fire. He is confined at the County hospital, where he was carried from 3027 State street.

Mrs. Riley Injured
As she was attempting to board a car at 47th and State streets, Mrs. Flossie Riley, 24, 2939 Wentworth avenue, missed her footing and fell to the pavement. She sustained a severely injured leg.

Injured in Collision
While a passenger on a Cottage Grove avenue car, Harry F. Gill, 31, 4419 Evans avenue, suffered various injuries when the car was struck by an automobile truck at 44th street and Cottage Grove avenue.

Accidentally Shoots Self
As he and Oscar Mallory, 3525 Prairie avenue, were examining a revolver, Sam McGuire, 41, 3419 Prairie avenue, was accidentally shot in the abdomen when the pistol exploded. McGuire is in a serious condition.

Child Falls Three Stories
While playing on the roof of a three-story building at 1927 Archer avenue, where she lives with her parents, Arabella White, 11 years old, fell down the shaft to the basement when the skylight, on which she was sliding, broke under her weight. The child sustained a fractured skull and leg.

Struck by Street Car
Edward Graves, 50, 925 State street, was carried to the County hospital suffering with injuries which he sustained when he was struck by an Archer avenue car at Taylor and State streets.

Sign Her Up, Rube
Mrs. Helena Jackson knocked a home run when she welded a wicked baseball bat over the head of her husband, John, with whom she was quarreling in their home at 2716 Dearborn street. John was carried to the County hospital, while Mrs. Jackson was arrested by Officer Hummer. The court ordered her discharged to prepare for spring training.

Mind Unbalanced
The peculiar actions of Mrs. Ethel Vaughn, 25, 4521 Indiana avenue, caused her to be sent to the Psychopathic hospital to be kept under observation pending an investigation into her sanity.

Falls from Car
As he was attempting to alight from a 39th street car at Michigan avenue, Alphonso Hamilton, 23 years old, 17 West 94th street, slipped from the car to the pavement. He was carried to the South Side hospital suffering with pains in the head.

Sent to County Hospital
The following named persons were sent to the County hospital this week: William Aaron, 47, 2724 Dearborn street; Fred Jordan, 49, 3735 Giles avenue; Henry Owens, 29, 3720 State street; Charles Williams, 26, 515 East 25th street; William Hanson, 21, 3232 Wabash avenue; Johnnie Russell, 22, 3157 Giles avenue; Mrs. Minnie R. Hill, 36, 3352 Giles avenue; Eliza Hill, 7, 3352 Giles avenue; Mrs. Esther Abrams and baby, 3831 Wentworth avenue; Mrs. Ethel Chambliss, 27, 3131 Cottage Grove avenue; Norah Denn, 22, 3409 Federal street; Mrs. Marjorie Jones, 32, 4530 Evans avenue; Shade Brooker, 19, 4723 State street; Mrs. Elizabeth Flower, 25, 4064 Dearborn street; Mrs. Carrie Peters, 48, 3966 Vernon avenue; Charles Rounds, 28, 3966 Vernon avenue; Walter Ingram, 38, 3921 Federal street; Barney Martin, 25, 3724 Elmwood avenue; Tom Perkins, 36, 26 East 37th place; William Lideins, 63, 1464 Indiana avenue; Dolan Melvin, 43, 710 State street; Mrs. Fannie Porch, 59, 915 State street; William Moore, 39, 11 West 21st street; Charles Moore, 38, 921 State street; Anthony Tustin, 30, 321 State street; John Russell, 27, 3157 Giles avenue, and Mrs. Helen Walk, 24, 55 East 30th street.

Mrs. Thomas Moves
Mrs. Jessie Thomas, juvenile prolation officer and her family, have moved from 4522 Indiana avenue to 3641 Grand boulevard, first apartment.

Mrs. Jones Entertains
Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Jones, 618 East 46th street, entertained with a seven-course dinner Thursday evening in honor of Fusa Mohammed Ali. All present voted Mrs. Jones a delightful hostess.

The Chapmans Entertained
Mrs. Minnie Robinson, 4545 Evans avenue, entertained with a dinner and theater party to see "Shuffle Along" in honor of Mrs. Janie Chapman and her daughter, Lillian, Kansas City, Mo., who are here visiting their daughter and sister, respectively, Mrs. A. J. Offord.

"Village Group" at "Y"
The Wabash Village, an organization of men living at the Y. M. C. A., is filling up the dormitory rooms with a group of young men who are developing a program of such interests that the spirit of good fellowship and service is becoming known and having its effect far beyond the confines of the association building. Group clubs have been formed on each floor, and the cold winter nights are passed around the cheery log fire in the lobby and in the comfortable bedrooms of the dormitory. As one fellow put it, "There is no time of day or night when hot water cannot be found by turning on the valve." A shorthand class, just started, keeps a lot of the fellows in at night, and when the gymnasium period is over and the swim and showers are taken, the fellows tumble into bed with a sure knowledge that the room will be warm and comfortable when they get up in the morning.

Child Dies
Elizabeth Leatha Harrison, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Harrison, 1726 Nelson street, died Sunday afternoon at her home after a short illness. Her funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the Harrison residence. Interment was made in the family lot at Montrose cemetery.

Buys Unity Hall
It is reported that Oscar DePriest, president of the South Side Property Owners' association, has purchased the building at 3140 Indiana avenue, home of the Peoples Movement club. Purchase was made through Robert White.

Visitors Entertained
Miss Hallie Quinn Brown, Wilberforce, Ohio, president of the National Federation of Colored Women's clubs, attended the Mississippi Valley conference of industrial relations which convened in the city last week. The fervor and eloquence with which she discussed the industrial problems of Race women won for her the highest commendation and applause of the conference. Other prominent women in the city for the conference were: Mrs. Daisy Lampkin, national organizer; Mrs. Sallie Stewart, national executive chairman; Mrs. M. Foster Cook, editor of National Notes; Mrs. Gertrude Davis, Ohio State federation; Mrs. E. Tiffin Stewart, Illinois federation. Among the many social affairs given in honor of the visitors were a reception at the Friendship home Sunday, Mrs. Adah M. Waters acting as hostess. Oscar DePriest was host at a reception on Tuesday at the Unity club house. The Independent Woman's Republican club entertained with a political tea at the University of Music Tuesday evening, and on Thursday the visitors were entertained by the Gaudeamus club.

J. W. Lenox Dead
John W. Lenox, who for several years conducted the delicatessen known as "The Dunbar," on 35th street at Rhodes avenue, and later at 3913 Indiana avenue, at which address he also made his home, died after a brief illness at Provident hospital on Thursday, Jan. 11. Deceased had been a resident of Chicago for the past eight years and was originally from Detroit, Mich., where his two sisters, Mrs. Louisa Monroe and Mrs. Mary Johnson, reside at 3924 Beaubien street. Both of the latter mentioned arrived a few hours preceding the death and completed arrangements to take the remains to the Michigan metropolis for burial, the undertaking firm of Jones & Crook serving. Relatives living in Chicago were present at the services held over the remains in the chapel of the above mentioned firm on Sunday.