

Taylor, Alexander O

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Jan 10, 1925;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. A8

THE BUCKEYE STATE

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
Cleveland Office, 2398 E. 55th St.
Phone Randolph 969

Cleveland Briefs

Hon. W. E. Dubois, editor of the Crisis, was guest of Hon. and Mrs. Harry E. Davis, Fenrose Ave., during his recent stay. He spoke at the Jewish Center forum, 105th St. and Grantwood Ave., on "The Dark Races."

The many friends of Mrs. Cassie Gregory, 2419 E. 38th St., were pained to learn of her death. The funeral took place at St. John A. M. E. church. She leaves a husband, Edward Gregory; son, Herman, and daughter, Miss Juanita Gregory, a city nurse, to mourn her demise.

James Officer, chairman of the sick committee of Camp 10 reports on the sick list this week: Claud Garrett, 2369 E. 55th St.; Gertrude Black, 2407 E. 49th St., and Ollie Mildred, 2105 E. 25th St.

The Rev. Saul A. Lucas was called to Windsor, Ont., by the death of his aunt, who has been ill several years. Mrs. Lucas was at the bedside when the end came.

Alfred G. James, 485 E. 114th St., left Jan. 3 for California, where he will spend six months for the benefit of his health.

Norman L. McGhee, 3227 E. 130th St., passed the Ohio state bar examination, according to the report published in the local papers Saturday. Mr. McGhee came from Washington, D. C., recently to cast his lot.

Councilman Thomas W. Fleming is all smiles these days. He was granted a raise of $100 per month for each member of the police and fire department, the grand total being in the neighborhood of 2,400 members. Mr. Fleming has been fighting for the raise for some months. He feels certain of getting the proper legislation through the city council for the longed-for swimming pool and gymnasium in the Central Ave. bathhouse. Mr. Fleming is chairman of the important police and fire committee in the city council.

The Rev. A. F. Elmers, Wilmington, N. C., was the speaker for the forum at Mt. Zion temple Sunday evening.

Attorney Harry E. Davis left Sunday for Columbus to serve his third term as state representative. He was credited with being the only 100 per cent man at the last session of the state legislature. Every bill he introduced was passed.

Mrs. Youngblood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedges, 3034 Central Ave., was buried last week.

Dr. A. C. Williams, Philadelphia, Pa., has accepted the call from East Mt. Zion Baptist church, 103d and Cedar Ave. He will take charge some time in February. The Rev. B. K. Smith is retiring on account of ill health, to the regret of his many followers.

St. John's Sunday school had an attendance of 1,084 pupils last Sunday. A week ago they headed the city list with 884 in spite of the zero weather.

W. C. Bishop, E. 45th St., Chicago, Ill., was a pleasing caller at the Cleveland office of the Defender last week. Mr. Bishop has resumed his position in the New York Central dining department after three weeks' absence on account of his eyes.

Miss Frances Kiner has been very ill at the family home, 9704 Cedar Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Auther of the Woodland Park Resort company report an enjoyable and profitable trip to Toledo and Chicago.

A son of the Rev. P. W. Martin, pastor of the Christian church, worshipping in the P. W. A. annex temporarily, was reported to have died in Washington from an operation.

Mrs. McCoy, mother of Mrs. Charles S. Smith, E. 86th St., died in Chicago while visiting a son.

Clarence B. Shaw, 5309 Quincy Ave., has been appointed a deputy by Sheriff Fred Kohler. The appointment was made upon the recommendation of Councilman Fleming. Mr. Shaw is a live wire. Recently he was elected exalted ruler of Cuyahoga lodge of Elks.

Fred R. Roseboro returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended the annual meeting of the Omega Psi Phi as delegate from Omega Zeta chapter of Cleveland.

The many friends of Mrs. Hattie Hall King, for many years a teacher in the Columbus public schools, and former wife of Attorney Wilbur King, will be pained to learn of her death in Columbus, Ohio, after many months of illness. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Lula Hall Alexander, field organizer of the Mme. Walker Manufacturing company, who was in the city recently.

A. O. Taylor