

Mrs. L. C. Fleming To Fly To Meeting

CLEVELAND, Ohio., July 23—Mrs. Lefia C. Fleming, wife of the former councilman Thomas W. Fleming, candidate for vice grand daughter ruler of the Grand Temple of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, and chairman of the executive board of the National Association of Colored Women's clubs is expected to board a ship at the Cleveland Air port and fly to Fort Worth Texas Friday, to attend the convention of the National Association of Colored Women's clubs.

Others from Ohio who will attend the National Association of Colored Women's convention at Fort Worth, Texas include Mrs. Margaret E. Barnes of Oberlin, Ohio, state president of Women's club, and Mrs. Al Roberts, 2168 East 79th street, chairman of printing of the Elks committee who had charge of the printing of the program for the nineteenth Biennial convention of the association here in 1935, who will travel by train.