

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER, 3032 WABASH AVE.

Celia Parker Woolley

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Apr 29, 1911;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 1

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER, 3032 WABASH AVE.

Members and friends are earnestly urged to be present Sunday afternoon, April 30th at 4 p. m., to meet some of the members of the Bahai National Conference, now in session in the city. The Bahai movement was organized over 50 years ago to establish a universal religion. Come and hear the wonderful story of the Persian prophet, Bahai Allah, who was imprisoned 40 years for his faith and dies in exile. This movement includes converts from every race and creed. One speaker will tell of the work in Washington which numbers many Negroes.

Please come and invite others.

Celia Parker Woolley.