The Thimble Club was reorganized at the pastor's residence Tuesday night.—Mrs. L. E. Stewart, president.

WALTERS A. M. E. CHURCH.

The two sermons delivered by our pastor, Dr. Callis, last Sunday were of unusual interest. In the morning he preached on "Character Building," in the evening on "Reigion in the Home." His discourse in the evening emphasized the responsibility of parents and especially that of fathers.

The annual banquet of the Men's Club, which is to take place next Thursday night, the 29th, is creating much excitement. The program will include some of the best talent in the city. The music is in charge of Mrs. Ida Stovall. Among the speakers will be Prof. Richard T. Greener, Hon. Frederick Lundeen, Dr. A. J. Carey, Hon. William Hale Thompson, Hon. E. H. Wright and others. Many of the ladies are preparing special costumes for this event. The program in the auditorium will be free to the public.

Our third quarterly conference will be held on the 7th of March. Sunday services will be as follows: Early morning prayer meeting, 6:30; preaching at 11 a. m., by the pastor; Sunday school at 1 p. m. A special preaching service at 3 p. m. by Mrs. Mary E. Idell. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. The pastor will preach at the regular evening service. Easter rally pledge day will be continued.

VOLUNTEER WORKERS' CLUB.

The Volunteer Workers' Club celebrated Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglas' birthday Wednesday, February 14, at the home of Mrs. Mary Webster, chairman of the executive board, 6430 Vincennes avenue.

The program was in charge of the executive board. The speakers for they afternoon were:

Mrs. Lang Williams, who spoke on "Douglas."

Mrs. Tillie H. White, "The Man Lincoln."

Mrs. Celia Parker Woolly, "Douglas."

Mrs. Harry A. Duncan, paper on Lincoln.

Mrs. Hattie Patten gave avocal selection.

Mrs. Sula May Williams recited Lincoln's favorite poem, "Why Should the Spirit of Mortals Be Proud?"

One of the most interesting features of the afternoon was a chorus of fourteen little girls, who sang two patriotic songs, "Our Flag" and "Marching Through Georgia." The hostess then invited the guest to luncheon in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue. Each person was presented with a Lincoln souvenir. Proceeds of the silver offering amounted to $8.16.

The guests were Mesdames J. W. Cross, C. Roberts, M. Collins, L. Turnley, A. Harrison, B. Payne, A. Sprague, F. Hall Clint, C. Davis, A. L. Jackson, Ira Stewart, Sublet, Coppage, McComa, Gordon and Johnson.
