unity between the sons of men should be strengthened. These fruitless strifes, ruinous wars and religious prejudice and racial indifference should cease and when we have done with these evils we will have solved the problem that is vexing the sages of the world." Mrs. Goodel is connected with the Bahai movement of America and is a great Christian worker. We regret that there are not more members of the Anglo-Saxon race like this grand lady.

RACINE HAPPENINGS

[Special to The Chicago Defender.]

Racine, Wis., November 21.—At Wayman's Chapel A. M. E. Saturday evening the Christian Endeavor gave an entertainment which netted them $57. Miss Jessie Fite, Mrs. C. Hayes and Mrs. L. Davis are to be commended for their splendid work.

There were services Sunday morning and evening and Sunday school at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. Emma Goodel of Kenosha appeared on the program of the Christian Endeavor Sunday evening and among other important things she said: "We desire but the good of the world and the happiness of all nations. That all nations should become one faith and all men as brothers. That the bonds of affection and
