

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Feb 13, 1915;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 3

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday, February 14, at 4 p. m., Miss Amelia Sears will speak on her work as superintendent of the Cook County Welfare Bureau. Mr. Walter O'Grady, winner of gold medal in music school, will give several numbers. The Frederick Douglass Center will celebrate its 10th birthday with two evening entertainments, the first, Tuesday, March 2, at Unity church on the north side; Rev. F. V. Hawley, pastor. The second is Friday, March 5, at Abraham Lincoln Center. The program consists of plantation songs by the Aeolian Quartette, recitations and short addresses.

Tuesday, February 16, at 2:30, the Center Woman's Club meets for a Douglass program. Mrs. Fannie Barrin Williams will give personal reminiscences of Douglass. Mrs. Fattie Todd to give patriotic readings and Mr. J. I. Banton will give Dunbar's poem of Douglass.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.