The large crowd that filled the beautiful auditorium was enthusiastic and appreciative. The hearty applause which followed each number on the program thoroughly demonstrated that the audience was of an extremely intelligent and appreciative character. It was indeed an affair long to be remembered. Excellent addresses were made by Rev. B. W. Paxton and Rev. Elam A. White, who was master of ceremonies. Mr. Ormond A. Forte, the editor, won the admiration of his hearers by the masterly and earnest manner in which he placed the Advocate's mission before them, promising them a clean, unbiased, honest, fair, equare and intelligent race journal in the future as in the past. Hon. John P. Green followed in a very pleasing address in which he enumerated the many creditable and praiseworthy characteristics of the Advocate and its efficient editor. Both were most heartily applauded. The musical numbers by the ladies' trio, Misses Olive and Gladys Wells, and St. John's male quartet, Messrs. Crowler, Carroll Scott, T. J. Hicks and John Perry, deserve special mention. The trio was encored three times. Dr. F. H. Weaver rendered a beautiful mandolin solo. Miss Bessie Cook was accompanist. In the Advocate's popularity contest the votes reported to the credit of the four highest competitors were: Mrs. Lethia Fleming, 9,440; Miss Frances Sims, 9,160; Miss Estella Huston, 8,475; Mrs. Elizabeth Gordon, 5,500. Prizes were awarded by Dr. E. M. Grant, after which each recipient responded in beautifully chosen words. Miss Sims was presented with two beautiful floral tributes from admirers in the audience. Among Cleveland's most progressive business and professional men in the vast audience were: Mr. George A. Myers, Mr. Garrett A. Morgan, the inventor; Mr. Walter Wills, Mr. Geo. W. Johnson, the broker; Attorney Theodore B. Green, Dr. E. A. Dale, Mr. Thomas W. Fleming and Mr. S. E. Woods. The ushers were Misses Amy Rogers, Laura Harris, Esther Kiner, Mary Arnett, Belle Harris and Mr. Harold Taylor. * * * The Caterers' Association gave a very successful dance at Luna Park last week Thursday evening. The committee of arrangements were Messrs. J. D. Hackley, Geo. B. Alexander, Linwood Hogan, John McKnabb, John Washington, John De Moyne and Sam Anderson. * * * The Federation of Women's Missionary Societies held a splendid meeting at St. James' A. M. E. church last Sunday afternoon. "What Are the Essentials in Missionary Work?" was discussed. * * * President William S. Scarborough of Wilberforce university was a prominent and active delegate to the World's Peace Congress held in Cleveland last week. Rev. H. C. Bailey, Mrs. William Thurston, Mrs. J. H. Gantt, Miss Ruth Brown and Miss Ethel Gregory were appointees from Antioch Baptist church to sit in council at the peace conference. Mrs. T. W. Fleming and Mrs. J. Beckwith were diners at the Hollenden last Monday week with the peace conference delegates. * * * Miss Lovie Elzie, 2316 East 36th street, entertained the Pleasant Company Club last week Thursday.
