

JUDGE EDWARD O. BROWN.

THE TIME TO SHOW FRIENDSHIP is when it is needed. In other words "a friend in need is a friend indeed." There has been no class of people who needed friends, and still needs them more than we. Friends who not only have our interests at heart and are willing to help us, but friends who are in a position of trust and influence, who mold opinion and sway public policies. Such a friend have we in Judge Edward O. Brown, Chief Justice of the Appellate Court, a member of the Frederick Douglass Center, president of the branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and an active worker in every movement that has for its end the uplift of the race.

not only consistent but he is insistent that right and justice go out to his fellow man. And it is this man, our friend, who is the answer to our question. Is there a man in the race regardless of his political affiliation who will not fail to vote for Judge Edward O. Brown? We are sure of many things but never let it be our fault if we are not getting strength and courage from the polls means we should show in a measure our respect for the man we love us by Judge Edward O. Brown.
