FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday, July 25th, at 4 p. m., there will be a piano recital in charge of Miss Adelaïne Towson, graduate of the musical department of Fisk University, and now teacher at Tuskegee. She will be assisted by Miss Johnson, teacher of violin in the State school, Kansas City, Mo. Others appearing are Mrs. Myrtle Harris Winfrey, soprano, and Mrs. Gertrude Towson, contralto. An octette, under the leadership of Prof. J. A. Mundy, will conclude the most excellent musical program the Center has heard in many days. Dr. and Mrs. J. H.
