

BRIEF NEWS FROM THE BUCKEYE STATE

Events in the Social World— Bright, Crisp Items from Cleve- land—No News of Interest Is Overlooked by Our Regular Correspondent.

By Alexander O. Taylor.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 3.—Mrs. Sarah Bailey of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the guest of her daughters, Mrs. George Clark and Mrs. Dr. F. H. Weaver. * * Dr. Turner of Philadelphia, Pa., passed through the city Monday en route from Chicago to his home. * * Mrs. Peter Hill, 2200 East 36th street, gave a very pretty reception Tuesday afternoon in honor of her son, Rev. Harry Bowles of New Haven. * * Mr. C. L. Lyons and Mr. Alonzo Jones, 3335 Central avenue, are seriously ill. * * Miss Teresa Gordon visited her uncle, Mr. William Smallwood of Canton last week. * * Mr. Grant Vanderpool, 2335 East 29th street, sustained a painful injury to his right limb while on duty on a lake boat last Monday. * * Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wicks, 2164 East 74th street, accompanied by their nieces, Miss Frances and Esther Kiner, returned from Beacon and Oskaloosa, Ia., Sunday after a very pleasant visit with relatives. * * Miss Bessie Cook, organist of St. John's A. M. E. church, returned last Saturday from a month's visit with relatives in Anderson and Indianapolis, Ind. * * Visitors at St. John's Sunday School last Sunday were Mr. Robert Alexander, Bridgeport, Ohio; Miss Magdalene Taylor, Warsaw, N. Y. * * Miss Irene Kersey, Detroit; Mr. Samuel Green, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. W. M. Benyear, Newark, N. J.; Mrs. White, Windsor, Canada; Mrs. Mayell, Chicago; Mrs. F. M. and Miss E. Brown, Liverpool, N. Y.; Mrs. S. Thompson and daughter, Miss Mary, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Lillian Moton, Briskton, Tenn. Mr. Reece of Cincinnati sang a beautiful solo and Dr. E. E. Underwood of Frankfort, Ky., a resident of Cleveland over 20 years ago, addressed the school in an interesting manner. Miss Lucille Flemming accompanied Mr. Reece on the piano. * * The last quarterly meeting of this conference year was held at St. John's A. M. E. church last Sunday morning, Rev. Maxwell, the presiding elder, preaching a soul-inspiring sermon. In the evening quarterly meeting services were held at St. James church in the east end. The North Ohio annual conference will be held in St. John's church about Sept. 22. The Mite Missionary Society will have charge of services next Sunday evening. Rev. Chas. Bundy, the able pastor, will preach in the morning. * * Rev. H. C. Bailey, pastor of Antioch Baptist church, has returned from a pleasant visit in Kentucky and will occupy his pulpit Sunday. * * Mrs. John Champ of Monessen, Pa., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Catherine Leftwich, 4816 Woodland avenue. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Warren J. Cossey, 2250 East 46th street, and Miss Irene Hardy, East 25th street, are visiting Mrs. Georgie Cole Owsley of Chicago. * * A pleasant reception was given at Mr. Lawrence Rodger's beautiful residence, 2191 East 46th street, last Monday evening in honor of Mr. Thomas Reynolds. * * Dr. Cannon of Jersey City, N. J., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willis, 2249 East 40th street the first of the week, en route from the Medical Association meeting in Chicago. * * Messrs. Thomas W. Fleming and Mr. J. H. Starkey left Saturday for Chicago to attend the Elks' convention as delegates from local lodge, No. 95, B. P. O. E. * * Mrs. Mollie Green and others are in Chicago, the guests of Mrs. Armintha Black, formerly of this city. * * Mrs. Raymer and daughter, Miss Frieda, are also in the Windy City. * * * The remains of Mr. James Tilley were interred in Pasadena, Cal., not here, as was erroneously stated last week. * * The stewardesses of St. John's church gave a lawn fete Tuesday evening at Miss Anna Hackett's, 2184 East 36th street. The Tuskegee Singers will be at the church Monday evening under the auspices of the junior stewardesses. * * Mrs. John Biggs has as her guest her mother, Mrs. Ella V. Clark of Xenia. * * The Caterers Club have moved into elaborate permanent quarters at 2216 East 40th street. * * Messrs. Arthur Hodges, brother of Mr. Robert Hodges, and William Jenkins of Memphis, Tenn., arrived here last week to accept positions as foremen for the Cleveland Hardware Co. * * Miss Willis of Indianapolis is visiting Mrs. Dr. Nickens of East 86th street. * * Mrs. Emma Green has accepted a position as cashier and bookkeeper for a local dental firm. Mrs. Green was a clerk in the county recorder's office several years. * * Miss Sophia West, 511 Conklin avenue, left Sunday night for Springfield to visit her mother. * * Miss Ina Leach spent last week in Buffalo. * * Miss Eugenia Ballard, 2250 East 46th street, has as her pleasing guest Mrs. Ethel Moss of Chicago, sister of Mr. J. S. Thomas. * * One of the most beautiful weddings ever solemnized in our community was that of the Blue-Reynolds affairs Wednesday noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blue, 2250 East 90th street. The contracting parties were Miss Mabelle Cunningham Blue, one of our most efficient and popular school teachers, and Mr. Thomas H. Reynolds, professor of music and grammar in the Kansas City, Kan., high school. Rev. Charles Bundy performed the ceremony in his usual impressive manner. As was announced to be in our last letter, Miss Hazel Lucas of Cadiz and Mrs. Cora Johnson Jackson of Richmond, Ind., were bridesmaids; Mrs. Inez Fairfax, matron of honor; Miss Bertha J. Blue, maid of honor; Mr. Sterling McElwaine of Indianapolis, Ind., best man; Messrs. George Hinton, Elmer Cheeks and Oscar Johnson, ushers, and little Marie Fields, flower girl. The house was most tastefully and beautifully decorated and the presents were certainly numerous as well as expensive and useful. Receptions were held afternoon and evening to accommodate the large number of friends of the couple. The bride has friends and acquaintances innumerable because of her active interest in St. John's Sunday school and several women's clubs, being a member of the Minerva Reading and Alpha Mu Clubs. She will be greatly missed. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will be at home, 835 Nebraska avenue, Kansas City, Kans., after Sept. 15. * * Messrs. L. L. Richardson, F. A. Baldwin, Pete Baker, M. J. Robinson, C. Marshall, B. B. Johnson, C. Tyler, W. E. Ashkins and W. A. Ricko, among Superintendent J. Hill's most faithful men of his district, left Monday in charge of the bankers' special on a 30 days' trip through the west. * * Mr. Thomas W. Fleming has announced himself as a candidate for councilman from the Eleventh ward. Messrs. J. Walter Willis, chairman; Daniel D. Fowler, secretary; Dr. Ellis A. Dale, Welcome T. Blue and Charles F. Weaver compose a committee formed to support and push his candidacy. * * Miss Elnora Rodney of Duluth, Minn., is the charming little guest of her schoolmate, Miss Reba Doctor, 2204 East 33rd street. * * Mr. J. E. Reed, the prosperous fish dealer (and family), have moved from East 36th street to 2575 East 130th street. * * On Sunday evening the 12th Mr. Allen T. Burns of the Cleveland Foundation will speak at St. John's A. M. E. church, under the auspices of the junior stewardesses. As the provisions of the foundations are to be executed regardless of race, color or creed it is quite essential that each one of us should attend and hear this excellent movement discussed. * * The Misses Edith and Ruth Wright, the amiable daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Wright, returned last Sunday after an extensive and most pleasant visit with friends in California and other states. * * The Alpha Mu Club gave a farewell reception Monday afternoon at Miss Edith Wright's in honor of Mrs. Thomas H. Reynolds, who was the founder of the progressive club of young ladies. * * Miss Pauline Foster of Massillon, a contralto of promising note, will appear in a recital at Cory M. E. church next Wednesday evening. * * Mrs. T. H. Samuels of Chicago is expected in the city next week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bolden of East 39th street and Mrs. Alexander O. Taylor.