

Alexander O. Taylor burg, Pa., motored over for the week- 515 Avondale, avenue

WILLIAM J.
HORN
RECEIVED
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

comprised many members of the congregation at Mt. Zion church in the issue. Rev. H. M. Kingfish preached eloquently at Mt. Zion Sunday. Rev. W. H. Jones, assistant pastor, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday. Mrs. G. Brown, 3412 Woodland avenue, Sunday night for Los Angeles, Calif., for an indefinite sojourn in search of health. Mrs. W. L. Petty of Collwood returned after a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Tennessee. Wesley Jackson, well-known New York Central private car man, has returned to Chicago, his car being put into service again. His wife and four children will join him later. The Willifore Club will have charge of a special program at St. John's church next Sunday evening. President Green of Willifore University will speak. The Cleveland Association of Colored Men will also have an interest in the program. Accounts of the Emancipation celebration at Purple Springs will appear in next week's issue. The main admixture, Nathaniel D. Brascher, editor-in-chief of the "Associated Negro Press," whose headquarters are last week en route Chicago from Washington, where had been engaged in sending out his news ever since the inauguration of President Harding.

ing the picnic grounds at Wallrid Park. A few Toledo people were there also. Every one had a very pleasant time. They spent the day playing tennis and other games. Mrs. Anna Krohn of 370 Wabash avenue is slowly improving. The Pinewood Stars baseball club defeated the Stoney Ridge baseball club Sunday, July 24th, score 10 to 4. The Pinewood Stars played the North Baltimore club at North Baltimore, Ohio, Sunday, July 31.

No. 1000. July
Johnson of Hill
Heights.

proving. L. E. Moore of Johnstown, Pa., was a weekend visitor of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rofford, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ford and Miss Helen Ford met at Mrs. Besse Peterson's motorcar to Cinton, Ohio, to attend the K. of P. picnic last week. Mrs. Alice Davis and thirteen-year-old brother were weekend guests of Mrs. Alice Exard. Mr. Valentine of this city has bought Mr. Gerardo's grocery store. Carl Exard visited Non-Benton, Ohio, Sunday.

among members of both races. It is understood that if this practice is discontinued at once, that drastic action will be invoked. S. Clarence Brown is making his last appeal to the voters of the Third ward, reminding them of their duty towards him, at the polls next Tuesday.

Her mother's beau tiful motorcar
and Mrs. Dunc

with Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Barber to make arrangements for the big county meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to be held Sunday, August 11th, at Lincoln Community Center. Miss Marjorie Collins of Lima, Ohio, was the guest of Mrs. Edith Clayton during the past week. Weber Fish, the executive-secretary master of Troy, gave a lecture at Lincoln Community Center Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. William Everett, on Jefferson street, are the proud parents over the arrival of an eight-pound baby girl, whose name is Mary Ethnie Everett. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Denmark and daughter, Lucille of Sidney, Ohio, Mrs. Gunney and daughter, Phoenix Gunney of Dayton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Lewis Thursday, also Miss George Peppers of Dayton, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Judd of Lima, Ohio, motored to Troy Sunday and spent the day visiting relatives and friends. William Brown of Indianapolis, Ind., motored through Sunday and spent the day with his mother, Mrs. Samuel Gentry, Berlin Clay, who has been stationed with the 20th U. S. Infantry at Coopers, N. M., has been discharged on the reserves list and is at home.

Ruth met Lydia again here, and they spent a day together.

Bryant have returned from their vacation at Lake Geneva, Wis. A cafeteria lunch was given at the U. C. church Friday night. Henry Gordon is very ill at his home on Jefferson street. Mrs. Fannie Rankin, of Cleveland, spent Thanksgiving at the Lilly home on Skene Avenue.

1921 Cherry Avenue, S. E., had for his guest B. J. Woodford of 306 Clay Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, and John Lomas of 730 Thiburon Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio. They were in Canton delegates of the K. of C. and left their homes Friday, July 15, in thanksgiving of God and the Saints of Christ. Lancaster Avenue, S. E., meet on the Sabbath at 10 o'clock a.m. in Morgan's lesson, 1605-23. Sabbath school 2:30 p.m. Lesson was taught from lessons of baptism and regeneration Sunday evening, 7:30, a sermon from "The Abounding Offer." Text, 1 Cor. 1:31-32. Pastor in charge Elder J. F. Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G.
and "Cincinnati"
and "The New York Times".

Zion Baptist church was quite a success. Lawn fete given at Mrs. R. C. Pinchbeck's was quite a success. Lamp posts were realized from it. Mr. William Williams, 5519 North 11th street, drowned July 23rd at Hammels Island near Pleasant Park. In an effort save a girl that he thought was drowning, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fox are continuing their sister, Mrs. Gordon M. Vernon, and Mrs. Fox's mother, Mrs. Anna Tanner. Mrs. H. F. Williams has returned from a vacation spent in Cincinnati and Kentucky. H. V. Patterson has returned from the B. Y. P. U. convention which was held at Youngstown, Ohio. While there visited his sister, Mrs. Rebecca Davis at McDonald's. Miss Hazel McCoy reports a pleasant visit with Rev. Mr. Anderson of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Carter and daughter, Miss Ruth Pennington are still well during their week at Niagara Falls. N.Y. Mrs. Drusilla V. Lemmons, Mrs. Alberta Taylor of Cleveland, Mrs. L. Price, Miss Ruth Carter and Mrs. Amanda Mason of Liberia, Africa formed a singing party at Buffalo.

ing her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Van Kleeck. Harold Tible is improving after a series of illnesses. Mrs. Louis and Mrs. Sister Nelsonville, Ohio spent a day with Mr. Harding, who is a sister of Mrs. Louis. They were returning home from a grand lodge which convened in Kenton, Ohio. Mrs. Charles Hunter, "as Circleville to attend a picnic given by Circleville A. M. E. church. Mrs. George Anderson and Miss Helen Brown, home from a two weeks' visit with the parents in Buckhill, Ohio.

casts of Mr. and Mrs. Rockwood were venue of Mr. and Mrs. Turner of Indianapolis, who are visiting Mr. Turner's mother at Shreveport, La., John Hitler of Hope Street, 112, 1/2, has come home to North Carolina. His father is visiting friends in R. F. C. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sampson have turned from an extended trip through the South with a company of 20. They visited Memphis, Louisville and New Orleans, and other points of interest. The former Lazarus department store and Mrs. Peleg attended the funeral of Mrs. Newton E. of Fremont, who died May 16. Mrs. E. had returned from a long vacation in the Rockies of Colorado and church in impressive after a few days illness. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Jones, St. Louis, Mo., celebrated Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Berlin, the mayor of Indianapolis, at the Hotel Jackson. Miss Dora and Mrs. Sumner left their home at the local airport from Indianapolis, July 14, for the Drama Festival of Cincinnati, due to open Aug. 1. A daughter, Mrs. Robert K. Kinney, 30, Dearborn, Mich., Mrs. Harry Holmes of Chicago, Ill., is the guest of Fred Whiteman and John Harris at their home, 12 Woodland avenue. Dr. Jackson was at Whitehouse last week following the former meeting. Miss Edna Jane Dent has returned from Philadelphia. Mrs. Murphy has purchased a home of Mrs. Howard Green. Mr. Womack has returned from a trip Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. De Cahoon, 616, Broadhead Avenue, the famous pitcher for the Brooklyn Stars baseball club, will be unable to play for some time on account of getting a nail stuck in his right foot, July 26th, at Belmont Island. Mrs. H. Murphy of Indiana, even has gone to Miami, Fla., for the removal of the嵌入物. Mrs. Clara Jones, Woodlawn avenue, 1105, 30th St., 1/2, Belmont Avenue, left for Atlanta, N. C., important business. Robert Kowar left for Los Angeles, Calif., where with open business. W. B. Ring, Jones the lumber man was painfully injured, July 26th, from falling from ladder. He was taken to St. Vincent hospital. Mrs. G. L. Golden gave birth to a baby of the small children Walling Park, July 27, 1936, and their parents were well pleased. Golden furnished refreshments for a reception to all friends. Mrs. Jessie Martin of 100 Indiana avenue is spending few weeks in children visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. A. Blackwell, 20 Wentworth avenue, Claude Jackson Grove at Lorain and State at Cleveland home. John Thomas Mitchell is spending his vacation Mr. and Mrs. Clegg on May 1. Thomas Green visited Geneva and Madison. C. Mitchell, Sr., is spending some time with the Black Swan records and Mrs. Fred Williams of Middlefield in Geneva during the past week. Salvatore Pagan, Lockwood street, is a visitor to Cleveland during the past week. Mr. Peter of Cleveland is spending ten days with his sister, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Edward Puritz has been on the sick list but is now well. The Woman's Missions Society held their meeting at the Second Baptist church last Sunday. Mrs. Gerrity Smith and Mrs. Rebecca Kirkman of Cleveland met Mrs. Alice Gordon, 11 Chestnut street, Raymond, Franklin, who Cleveland visited her grandfather, Mrs. Eliza Gordon, Mrs. Alice Faris, Rehoboth, 11 Lockwood street. Mr. and Mrs. Butler, 19 Gladys and Carl, were married in Cleveland and back to C. Mitchell, Jr., upon a visit in the city of war veterans given by the Union Sunday school picnic at Garfield Park. Mr. James Watson, 11 Lakewood, visited his daughter, Mrs. Irene Parks, Cleveland.

Last Saturday evening the family of Charles E. Fiske, of the Community Center, Foster, H. C. Gilbert, the painter, and Cousins Brothers, manufacturers of polishing tools, left Monday for Idlewild, Mich., to spend two weeks' vacation. They will camp and rough it all the way, they say. Miss Viola J. Robinson, former Sun school teacher, who has been taking the special Western Flyer express here the past six weeks, left the last of the week for New York and Boston. She was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Leon Clark of East 11th street. Floyd Tolman, clubman, 50th, is the guest of his uncle, Charles A. Tolman, 222 East 10th street. Miss Doss Clements, a recent graduate of the Western Reserve University in pharmacy, will specialize in chemistry at the University of Michigan this fall. She was granted a certificate as assistant pharmacist by the Ohio State Board, having passed the recent examination with credit. She is next at her former position, others at the Peacock Pharmacy, 2nd and Central, Toledo. Miss Priscilla Hartman, 222 East 10th street, has gone to Columbus for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Luis Harris. Thomas L. Powers, well-known real estate dealer of Pitts-