

regular monthly business meeting Monday evening, March 6, at the home of Mrs. Pearl Fall, 234 Williams street. Much business for the general good was transacted. President Hunt and Dr. J. A. Martin of the Georgia Educational Association visited Columbus recently in the interest of the annual meeting of the Georgia Association for the Advancement of Education among the Race to be held in that city. President Hunt of the association had the information in a long-distance conversation with Tuskegee that Mr. Moton, who is to deliver the principal address at the meeting, is planning to bring a large company of visitors from Tuskegee Institute to Columbus. Miss Lucile McClendon was quietly married to Randolph Taylor, an energetic young man of Atlanta, and also leader of Atlanta Pythians, March 4. Rev. Williams officiated. Only a few friends present. Miss Ophelia Echols wishes to thank her many friends for their kindness during her illness at Grady hospital. She is improving rapidly at her home. Mrs. William Gomillion of Edgeland, S. C., mother of John Gomillion of Sunset avenue, this city, died Feb. 28. She leaves to mourn her loss, a devoted husband and eight sons. The Little Star Embroidery Club held its regular meeting Friday, March 3, at the home of Mrs. Elina Hicks, 104 Lena street. Music was the principal feature of the evening. Three members who have been on the sick list lately are able to be up again, Mrs. Rosa Pew, Mrs. Annie M. Evans and Mrs. Rosa Williams. Miss Hart, who is teaching in the public school at Dacula, Ga., visited her sister last Sunday. Mrs. Mimms, 23 Howell street. She returned to school last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Acey, 155 Sunset avenue, are happy over the arrival of a baby boy born March 4. Mother and baby are doing fine. He has been named Henry Acey, Jr. Mrs. Julia Craig, 154 Piedmont avenue, has returned from Florida, where she spent a delightful visit with friends and relatives. Mail all social affairs for the following week not later than Thursday of each week for publication in the Chicago Defender to Jesse T. Ward, 4 Central avenue, city.

GEORGIA

Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Alice Russell Wright, who has been visiting relatives and friends in the city, has returned to her home in Cleveland, Ohio. While here many social affairs were given in her honor. The Japanese Embroidery Club met at the home of C. A. Clark, 23 Bailey street. The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Miss Leslie McGirt. The club was delighted to have Mrs. Watson back after an absence of some time. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hayes, 117 Connally street, have had some improvements made on their beautiful home. They also have had their electric lights connected. Mrs. Hayes is one of the leading modistes in the city. The many friends of M. Johnson, 275 Fraser street, will be pleased to see him on the job again after an illness of several weeks. The Progressive Bible class of the Beulah Baptist Sunday school held its