New Home for Boys
Realizing that so many boys go astray in our larger cities because of the environments and lack of education and proper supervision, Father Stephen of Milwaukee, Wis., has recently purchased a beautiful piece of property just outside of Milwaukee close to the Milwaukee river and Lake Michigan where he will establish a summer school where boys of this class can have wholesome food, healthful exercise and innocent amusement, in addition to improving their brains. There will be no restrictions as regards religion, although the school is conducted by the Catholic church. Boys are required only to live up to the establishment rules and regulations. Mothers and fathers who are unable to give their boys an outing through lack of funds should avail themselves of this splendid opportunity offered by Father Stephen.
