

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. Lewis and Daughter Entertained

Mrs. Elizabeth Barnett, Vincennes hotel, entertained with a five-course dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Richard T. Lewis and daughter, Miss Blossom Lewis, New York. Others called to meet the honored guests were Clarence Lewis, their son and brother, Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Harner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Speedy and Bernard Brewer. Miss Lewis is a teacher in the public schools of New York.

Battle in Street
A duel with knives was fought by John Taylor, 45, 2225 Dearborn street, and Edward Taylor, 45, 2225 Dearborn street. The men battled until arrested by Sergeants Kilgore and O'Hara and Officer George Cook. An old grudge was said to be responsible for the trouble.

Mrs. Thornton Entertains
Mrs. George A. Thornton, 435 Fore-reville avenue, entertained with a five-course dinner at the Appomattox club Sunday in honor of Mesdames Birdie High, St. Paul, Minn.; Lottie Turner, Dayton, Ohio; May Barksdale and Florence Middleton, New York, and Emma Boone, Chicago.

Fred Gray Assaulted
Officer W. H. Williams arrested Charles Brooks, 102 West 37th street, and charged him with assault with a deadly weapon. Brooks cut Frank L. Gray, 3642 Vernon avenue, on the neck with a knife during a quarrel.

Quarrels With Uncle
A family came near ending disastrously when a knife was brought into play. Leonard Mitchell, 22, quarreled with his uncle William in their home at 227 Indiana avenue. The uncle obtained a knife. He stabbed Leonard with it.

Stabbed by White Man
While quarreling with three white men at 37th street and Cottage Grove avenue, Walter Jordan, 23, 3011 State street, was painfully stabbed in the breast by one of the three men. The men escaped through an alley after the assault.

Partners Fight
An argument over the money made for carrying passengers in an automobile during the recent street car strike caused Oscar Alexander, 30, 3110 Wabash avenue, and John Nelson, 3102 Wabash avenue, to fall out. Nelson assaulted Alexander with a knife.

Wife Trifles Suicide
Because of trouble she had had with her husband, Mrs. Jessie Cowan, 28, 211 East 32nd street, attempted to commit suicide by swallowing bichloride of mercury tablets. She is at the County hospital fighting for her life.

St. Mark Lyceum
St. Mark Lyceum, 50th street and Wabash avenue, will hold its second summer program on Sunday, August 20, at 6 p. m. The Rev. Dr. P. R. McBerry, prominent minister, scholar and race leader, will deliver a sermon and address. In addition a splendid musical program has been arranged.

Returns to Georgia
Mrs. H. B. Sweet, sister of Mrs. L. W. Newland, 514 Aldine square, was here to attend the funeral of the late Rev. Lawson W. Newland left for Americus, Ga., to attend the Eastern Star convention of the state of Georgia, of which she is an officer, thence to her home in Augusta, Ga. Mrs. Sweet regrets to leave her sister and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Newland, the former the only son of Rev. Newland.

Mrs. Blackwell Ill
Mrs. W. A. Blackwell, wife of Rev. W. A. Blackwell, pastor of Walters A. M. E. Zion church, 3800 Dearborn street, is at the noted Mayo hospital in Minnesota, where it is hoped she is improving.

Leave for the West
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Molisy, 6109 Wabash avenue, left the city a few days ago for San Francisco, Cal. to spend five weeks on their vacation. They will also visit Buxton and Des Moines, Ia., and Kansas City, Mo.

Samuel Foster Dies
Samuel Foster, the husband of Mrs. Mary Foster, 4044 Prairie avenue, died a few days ago in Blue Island, Ill., after an illness of more than thirteen months. He was buried from Williamson's chapel Tuesday, August 8, under the auspices of Star of East council, A. U. K. & D. of A.

Going to Danville
J. R. Street, worthy master of North Star lodge No. 1, F. V. E. P., past state deputy, is preparing to leave the city Sunday evening, August 13, to attend the state grand lodge, which will convene at Danville, Ill., August 14 to 15.

Pass Through City
Rev. G. W. Jones, pastor of St. John A. M. E. church, 43rd and Wabash, and his daughter Edith and friend, Miss Mable Iyer, passed through the city during the past week and spent several days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kinney and their sister, Mrs. Louise Killian, 3142 Calumet avenue.

Mrs. Ida Simmons Proud
Mrs. Ida Simmons, head of the juvenile department of A. U. K. & D. of A. in the city of Chicago and state of Illinois, was made proud Monday evening, July 31, at Odd Fellows hall when more than 700 boys and girls gathered with their parents to attend the installation of that department. Mrs. Eliza Jackson, state grand queen; Col. J. W. Hall of the military department and others were present and witnessed the exercises.

Mrs. Young Re-elected
Mrs. Lou Ella Young, 4114 Calumet avenue, and Mrs. Ella G. Berry, 3322 State street, have returned from Springfield, Ill., where they attended the annual session of District Grand Household of Ruth, held at Springfield August 1 to 3. Mrs. Young was unanimously re-elected D. G. M. G. of Eden Grand District Household of Ruth No. 15 of Illinois, Wisconsin and jurisdiction. Mrs. Berry was also re-elected D. G. M. W. R. of the same district.

Visiting City
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Congdon of Coles, Ill., are in the city visiting relatives and friends and are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Young, 4114 Calumet avenue.

Mrs. R. A. Lewis Visits
Mrs. R. A. Lewis and daughters, Wilhelmina and Hazel, have returned to their home, 4322 Vincennes avenue, after a delightful visit to their parents and grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jefferson, Vicksburg, Miss., and a host of friends, while away they were highly entertained. Mrs. Lewis was accompanied by Mrs. Lewis were Mesdames Ed Humphrey, Williams, White, Mr. Alister, Booker and Lewis and the Misses Wiley, Buck, Cozetta and Alberta Jefferson. She also visited several social and literary clubs of the city. The Misses Lewis were entertained at a party by Mrs. May Stewart and a birthday party was given in honor of Wilhelmina by Mrs. Anna Moore Smith. She was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Parlor Military Opening
Beginning August 12, Miss Overton will feature the new smart hats. Prices reasonable. Your inspection is solicited. Quality Shop, 35 East 43d street. Mable Overton-Young, proprietor. Oakland 6115.—Advertisement.

Oakland Business Man Leaves
Arthur Hyton, well known haberdasher of Oakland, Cal., left for Omaha, Neb.; Salt Lake City, Utah, and home Saturday, after visiting in the city for some time as the guest of Miss M. A. Jones, 3335 Maryland avenue. While here he visited Mrs. Wellington apart from Mrs. Hyton's home. Mrs. Hyton is in Oakland at 1731 Seventh street is rated among the first in the city, and Mr. Hyton enjoys a gratifying position in local business circles of both races.

Shelbys Entertain Guest
Thursday evening, August 2, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shelby, 1621 Walnut street, had a number of friends in to meet Mrs. Alec Scott of Nashville, Tenn., who has been visiting in Chicago for the past month. Miss Laura Allen of Nashville and Mrs. Josephine Mason of Louisville were among the out-of-town guests. Mrs. Scott has since returned to her home, accompanied by her sister, Miss Willie Duvald.

Bahai movement meets every Sunday at 3:30 in Masonic temple, corner Randolph and State streets. All welcome.

New Directory
"Simms' Blue Book" is the name of a new business and professional directory, published by James N. Simms, 3532 State street, Chicago. It has a national scope and carries business addresses and comments covering many of the cities. The booklet is well illustrated and presents a handsome appearance. It will no doubt fill a long-felt want among those who have an interest in the progress of the Race in a business way.

Finish Summer Course
Miss Juanita Taylor, Wilmington, N. C., and Mrs. Louise Woods, Cairo, Ill., both public school teachers, have completed the first term's work in theory and practice of physical education at the Chicago University of Music, 3672 Michigan avenue. They did their practice work at the Hope Vacation school, 61st street and Loomis boulevard, which includes games, folk dances, nursery rhymes and graded gymnastics for elementary schools. Mrs. Carriebell C. Plummer is in charge of the physical training. The university is the first member of her Race to be admitted in the course at Columbia university, New York City.

Noted Club Woman Here
Mrs. Laura Hill, Denver, Colo., spent Sunday and Monday in Chicago the guest of Mrs. Eva Grant, 4810 Prairie avenue. Mrs. Hill left Tuesday for Richmond, Va., to attend the National Federation of Women's Clubs, and after spending a few days in Washington she will return to the Windy City again for a few days.

Guest for Summer
Mrs. Bettie Barksdale of Philadelphia is spending the summer in Chicago, the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Jackson, 4403 Prairie avenue. Miss Barksdale has been the recipient of exceptional favors while here.

Service Workers Stay Over
Miss Martha Hypps of Philadelphia, graduate of the department of physical culture at Temple college, and Miss Lillian Earle, also of that city, are spending some weeks in the city at the home of Mrs. Sadie Woodard, 4629 St. Lawrence avenue. Miss Hypps and Miss Earle were members of the Community Service class that studied here this summer, Miss Hypps being the secretary and Miss Earle having a part on the graduation program.

Friendship Home
Friendship Home, 3015-17 Prairie avenue, founded and is maintained by Rock River Conference Women's Home Missionary society of M. E. church, an ideal Christian home for girls and women. It has spacious reception and reading rooms, library, airy bedrooms with an abundance of sunlight, lawn dotted with plants and benches, the use of a large gymnasium next door and the joyous atmosphere of a real cultured home. Moderate rates.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Bowles in City
Mrs. Eva D. Bowles, administrator of Race work in field division, member of the National Board of W. C. A. and head of all the work in the United States in this division, is en route to Geneva, Wis., to the Y. W. C. A. conference. While in the city she was guest of Mrs. Julius Avendorph at a luncheon. Mrs. Julia Jackson of the Chicago Y. W. C. A. was also guest.

Gives Luncheon at Auditorium
Mrs. George H. Garner Jr., 441 East 42d street, entertained with a luncheon Wednesday, August 2, at the Auditorium hotel. Her guests were Mrs. Robert S. Abbott and her sisters, Mmes. Johnson and McGill, who are visiting her for the summer. The luncheon was followed by a theater party at the Cort.

J. W. Anderson on Vacation
John W. Anderson, 3251 Vernon avenue, will leave August 15 for Newark, N. J., where he will attend the Elks No. 1 returned during his stay in New Jersey he will visit Mrs. Bert Williams at Ashbury Park and Mrs. Lottie Cooper at East Orange, N. J., after which he will be the guest of his brother in New York city for a few days, returning home the first week in September.

Leaves for Denver
A. L. McBride, our popular bachelor, will leave Friday morning for Denver, Colo., where he will spend a month as the guest of his two brothers, whom he has not seen since 1878.

Miss Crum Coming
Miss Katharine Bell Crum of St. Louis, Mo., the charming daughter of Joseph B. Crum, 3728 Dearborn street, will reach the city the latter part of the week to be the guest of her father for an indefinite stay.

Avendorph Has Birthday
Frederick William Avendorph celebrated his fourteenth birthday anniversary on Monday, July 31, with a dinner party. Urrin and Renika Taylor of Des Plaines, Ill., and Samuel Evans, Jr., were his guests.

Ministers Meet
The Chicago Interdenominational Ministers' alliance met at Carter's temple Monday afternoon. An interesting session was held. Many problems concerning the special interests of our people and the general interests of the community were discussed. At the close of the meeting a repast was served by the senior and junior stewardess boards of the church.

Goes to Kentucky
Mrs. Minnie Hatchett, 4234 Wabash avenue, left the city Monday of last week after receiving a telegram notifying her of the death of her sister, Mrs. Cecelia Williams of Henderson, Ky. Mrs. Hatchett will stay in Kentucky indefinitely.

Guests of Stokes
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stokes, 5441 Dearborn street, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Samuels and Mesdames Samuels of Everett, Wash. They are en route to Richmond, Va., where Mrs. Samuels will attend the National Federation of Colored Women's clubs. Mrs. Samuels is the president of the state federation of Washington. En route home they will stop in Washington, D. C., New York, Chicago and Denver, Colo.

Returns Home
Mrs. Erma J. H. Nelson, president of the Carter Charity and Benevolent club, returned to her home, 453 Bowen avenue, Sunday evening, after attending the annual convention of the Carter Charity and Benevolent clubs, which was held at Fitzgerald, Ga. While away she spent several weeks visiting relatives and friends in Mississippi.

Visitors
Mrs. F. O. Blount and daughter, Miss Marguerite Dore, of St. Louis, Mo., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Blount's son, George P. Dore, 4606 Indiana avenue.

Miss Herndon Visiting
Miss Thelma Herndon, 3741 Indiana avenue, who has been ill several weeks, is now visiting relatives and friends in St. Louis. She will return the first part of September to enter school.

Motors to City
Charles W. Green, Louisville, Ky., formerly of Chicago, motored here in his Packard twin-six. After spending two weeks in the city he will tour Michigan and from there go to Niagara Falls. Returning to Louisville, he will stop in Chicago and visit friends. While in the city Mr. Green purchased an eight-hat building.

Banker Leaves for East
Banker Jesse Binga and Harry Scott of the Binga State bank left the city on the Broadway limited Tuesday for Washington, D. C. They will spend a few days in New York city and will be present at the National Business league meeting at Norfolk, Va.

Assault Escapes
Some unknown man, Howard Crutchfield, 25, 3146 Wabash avenue, on the head with a knife when he met him at 21st and Federal streets. He escaped after the assault.

Baby Eats Poison
A box of bichloride of mercury tablets was discovered in a trunk in their home at 2136 Federal street by the little brother of 13-month-old Dorothy Knight. She played with the tablets, then ate some of them. She was rushed to the County hospital, where she is lingering between life and death.

Has Chip on Shoulder
The trouble that he had three months ago with Leroy Ewing, 24, 3608 Federal street, weighed on the mind of Otis Brown, 3711 La Salle street. When he met Ewing on the street in front of 60 West 37th street, Brown pulled a gun from his pocket. He ordered Ewing to "beat it." When Ewing started to run Brown shot him in the leg.

Cuts Woman in Back
Judge Laurence B. Jacobs of the South Clark street police court fined John Morris, 550 Aldine square, $1 and costs and sentenced him to thirty days in the house of correction. Morris cut Lucille Grant, 21, 3414 State street, in the back with a pocket knife when they engaged in a quarrel at 34th and State streets.

Turns Her Ankle
While attempting to alight from a car at 36th street and Cottage Grove avenue, Mrs. Lillian Duncan, 32, 615 East 36th street, turned her ankle and was painfully injured.

Boy Injured Internally
Richard Lewis, 9, 5511 Prairie avenue, is confined at the County hospital suffering with internal injuries he received when he fell off of a wagon. The owner or driver of the wagon has not been located.

Injured by Bicycle
As she was attempting to cross the street at 35th street and Wabash avenue, Mrs. Bertha Gray, 22, 3415 Vermont avenue, was injured when she was struck by a bicycle ridden by Edward Lewis, 6640 Robey street. Mrs. Bradley was carried to Provident hospital.

Bullet Glances off Head
While standing at the corner of 35th street and Indiana avenue, Gus Saunders, 38, 3604 Indiana avenue, told the police that he was attacked by Hugh Humphrey, 3522 Calumet avenue. He stated that Hugh hit him over the head with a revolver, then fired one shot at him. He stated that the bullet glanced off his skull.

Overcome by Gas
The pulmonist was brought into use to revive Miss Anna May Buckner, 18, 423 Calumet avenue, who had been overcome by illuminating gas in her room in her home. Nothing could be learned as to the cause of the gas being turned on and the police concluded that it was accidental.

Fight Over Wife
Frank Burns, 30, 1200 May street, and Clayton Walton, 4324 Wabash avenue, both confined in the Bridge-well hospital. The men staged a knife and gun duel at 41th and State streets. Burns was cut many times by Walton, who in turn was shot in the arm by Burns. The trouble is alleged to have occurred over Walton's wife.

Strikes Hole in Street
A wagon, which was being driven by Oscar Wilson, 24, 3334 Rhodes avenue, struck a hole in the street when in front of 3448 Vernon avenue and turned over. Wilson was caught under the wagon. His leg was painfully bruised.

Brother Against Brother
A quarrel which had started at home between two brothers was renewed when the brothers met at 40th and State streets. As a result W. J. Johnson, 50, 3750 La Salle street, has a deep knife cut in his side which was inflicted by his brother Richard.

Knocked Through Window
While standing looking through a plate glass window at 206 East 43rd street, the attention of Walter Faris, 11 years old, 16 East 42nd street, was attracted by a fight which was being staged by two men directly behind him. One of the men fell against the boy, knocking him through the window. The child has various cuts and bruises.

Toes Torn From Foot
In attempting to get on an automobile truck at 47th and State streets, Ernest Still, 13 years old, 51 East 42nd street, met with a peculiar accident. Two of his toes were torn from his foot when the truck slipped and the rear wheel of it passed over his foot.

Stabbed in Neck
As he was walking along the street John Mussey, 24, 4664 State street, was stabbed in the neck by Henry McCormick, 4550 Federal street. It is alleged that the trouble occurred over Mrs. Lizzie McCormick, 125 West 45th street.

Dr. Richardson Here
Dr. L. F. Richardson, Kansas City, Mo., is in the city spending a week as the guest of Dr. Chester Brewer, 4845 Calumet avenue. Dr. Richardson was seen touring the boulevards in the Heaton motor car Tuesday, the guest of L. M. Heaton.

Chicagoans Return
Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, 3531 La Salle street, Mrs. Art Codogno, 4829 Wabash avenue, returned to the city Sunday after a month's stay in the East. They were the recipients of many social affairs given in their honor while in Buffalo. The party also motored to Rochester and through the lake region and enjoyed the wonderful scenery at Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Riley Ill
Mrs. M. L. Riley, 651 Indiana avenue, who has been quite ill, is improving and expects to leave for Michigan in the near future.

Visits Wife Here
Dr. R. L. Johnson, Jackson, Miss., was in the city a few days last week visiting his wife, who is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Helen Washington, 4509 Champlain avenue. Dr. Johnson has been admitted to practice in the state of Illinois. Mrs. Johnson has just received an honor certificate from the Chicago Musical college.

James Gentry Injured
While motoring to Milwaukee, Wis., James Gentry, Jr., was slightly injured Wednesday when a horse struck his machine. The accident occurred on Yellowstone trail just outside of Racine. The driver of the truck sped away and has not been apprehended.

Receives Degree
Dr. Wilhelmina Bowler, 3725 Indiana avenue, has returned to the city after completing the four-year medical course at Meharry Medical college. The doctor has also taken the Tennessee state board examination and passed, making a very high average. She is now preparing to take the Illinois state board examination. Much credit is due this young woman.

Fight Duel to Death
A duel with knives ended in death for one of the combatants, while the other is suffering with many wounds, one having struck the lung. Charles Pine, 25, 3549 Eden avenue, flat C, engaged in a fight with Robert Potter, 3416 Calumet avenue. They both drew knives. Pine died from his wounds. A short while after he was rushed to the South Side hospital. A stab in the abdomen had severed a gastric artery, which caused death. Potter was arrested by Sergeant Dillon and Officers McDermott and Weldon and charged with murder. He has a serious cut in the back. The inquest was continued.

Fractures Ribs
Alvin Harris, 35, 3723 Shields avenue, was carried to the County hospital suffering with a possible fracture of his ribs. While driving a horse and wagon he collided with another team at 18th and State streets. The name of the other driver could not be learned, as he escaped after the accident.

Child Fractures Skull
As he was stepping from a wagon in an attempt to cross the street at 9th street and Cottage Grove avenue, 9-year-old Spencer Odum, 3131 Ellis avenue, was struck by a passing automobile. He sustained a broken leg and a possible skull fracture.

Knoxville Club Entertains
The Chicago Knoxville College club entertained with a musicale Wednesday evening, August 2, at the Y. M. C. A., 3763 Wabash avenue, in honor of the Knoxville College Male quartet. The auditorium was artistically decorated with the club's colors, purple and blue. Tiny streamers of ribbons, representing the club's colors, were pinned to the bosom of each of the former Knoxville students. The quartet was represented by Andrew Paul, Beude Mann, Newell Fitzpatrick and Edward Chensault, students of Knoxville college in charge of Dr. Olin, the president. Great credit is due James W. Fisher, president of the Chicago Knoxville College club, for the success of the affair. A solo was rendered by W. D. S. Bradley, Oberlin conservatory. Many out-of-town visitors were present, who included Mrs. Sadie R. Dix and daughter, Rita Dix, Philadelphia; Miss Marion Thomas, Philadelphia; Miss H. Christine Hicks, Huntington, W. Va.; Miss Hattie Ellis, Knoxville; Mrs. Rebecca T. Rhame, Sumpter, N. C.; W. D. S. Bradley, Knoxville; Prof. D. M. Jarnagin, Clinton, Tenn., and Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Tardiff, Stanford, Ky.

Fractures Spine
George Marshall, 26, 2908 Federal street, was injured internally and sustained a fractured spine when he ran into a wagon at Wabash avenue and Harrison street. The wagon was driven by H. Bush, 2217 Federal street.

Cut on Shoulder
While quarreling at 29th and Federal streets with Bish Pitts, address unknown, Will Walls, 29, 2338 Federal street, was cut on the shoulder by Pitts. The latter escaped after the assault.

Visiting in the East
Mrs. Julius Glenn, Morgan Park, left Friday for a month's vacation. She will visit friends in Washington, New York and Atlantic City and relatives in North Carolina before returning home. Mrs. Glenn is the wife of Detective Sergt. Julius Glenn.

Injured in Ball Game
His love for baseball will probably cause serious injury to Martin Borman, 16, 544 East 43d street. While playing baseball with other boys in the yard at 4110 Dearborn street, a club accidentally flew from the hands of Arthur Clemons, 117 Dearborn street, and knocked Martin down. His head hit the curbstone, causing a probable skull fracture.

Sent to County Hospital
The following persons were sent to the County hospital this week: Zan Floyd, 21, 2011 State street; John Grimes, 53, 3402 Giles avenue; Frank Simpson, 9, 3846 Elmwood avenue; Mrs. Lella Robinson, 24, 3505 Vincennes avenue; Mrs. Mary Strong, 25, 3015 Prairie avenue; and Mrs. Stella Crowder, 35, 3607 Wabash avenue.

Children Bitten by Dogs
While playing with a dog owned by Charles Moore, 23 East 41st street, Odell Young, 13, 1014 State street, was bitten in the side and leg. Arthur Hall, 14, 3516 Dearborn street, and William Walker, 9, 3514 Indiana avenue, were also victims of dog bites this week.

Child Fractures Foot
As he was playing in a vacant lot near his home, Ernest Thompson, 12, 3221 Indiana avenue, fell to the ground. He sustained a fractured foot.

Sent to Psychopathic Hospital
Exhibiting signs of insanity caused the following persons to be sent to the Psychopathic hospital to be kept under observation by the nurses: Samuel H. Webb, 56, 3247 Wabash avenue, and Lizzie Adams, 27, 1117 Prairie avenue.

Stabbed by Unknown Man
While backing away from an automobile in front of 2662 State street to protect himself from being injured, William Dyer, 42, 3012 Prairie avenue, accidentally stepped on the foot of an unknown man. A quarrel ensued. Dyer was stabbed in the back by the man. He was able to give a description to Officers Joyce and Johnston, who are looking for the assailant.

Assaulted With Hammer
They met at 31st street and Calumet avenue and resumed an old quarrel. Witnesses claim that Mrs. Carey, who lives at 3705 Calumet avenue, knows how to use a hammer for other purposes than driving nails. She struck Mrs. Mary Simpson, 28, 3222 Graves court, over the head with one. Neither of the women would tell about what they had been fighting.

Cut by Son-in-Law
During a quarrel with his son-in-law, their home, 2915 South Park avenue, William Justice, 51 years old, was cut five or six times with a knife by his daughter's husband, John Nance. His injuries are not considered serious.

Witness to Fight Stabbed
As he was witnessing a fight between two unknown men at 30th street and Prairie avenue, Joseph Coleman, 35, 3235 Giles avenue, was stabbed in the abdomen by one of the men.

Falls Down Stairs
Little 4-year-old Elizabeth Johnson, who resides with her parents at 2723 Federal street, received a fractured skull when she fell down the stairs at her home. She was removed to the County hospital.

"Bonsey" Escapes After Assault
Asserting that the only thing he knew about the man that assaulted him was that he was called "Bonsey" by his friends, Curtis Perry, 28, 2403 Wabash avenue, was carried to the County hospital suffering with a possible skull fracture. Perry and "Bonsey" engaged in a quarrel. Curtis was struck over the head with an iron bar by "Bonsey," who escaped after the assault.

Howell Holmes and Wife East
Mr. and Mrs. Howell Holmes, 6131 Wabash avenue, are in Washington, D. C., attending the convention of the Shriners. They will stop over in Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Boston and New York en route home. In the latter city they will be the guests of Mrs. Holmes' daughter, Mrs. Carry Payne, 174 West 144th street. A stop will be made at Niagara Falls.

Society Meets
The great missionary meeting of the executive board of the Women's Parent Body Mite Missionary society of the A. M. E. church will be held at Bethel church, 301st and Dearborn streets, August 13-14-15. Mrs. Mary C. Hays of Baltimore is president. This body of distinguished women represents nearly 100,000 mite workers throughout the continent. They will meet to plan the work of the society in the home and foreign field for the next four years, and arrange for the annual annual convention, which will meet at 1325 at Brooklyn, N. Y. There will be a public mass meeting Sunday at 3 p. m. Mrs. K. Bertha Hurst and Mrs. M. S. C. Berket will be the principal speakers. Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. there will be a big mass meeting of the young people's department. Mrs. Charles C. Smith and Mrs. Emma Johnson will speak.

Mrs. Ecton Entertains
Mrs. Daisy Ecton, 4113 Calumet avenue, entertained with a farewell party Friday night in honor of Mrs. Addie Landin, 229 West 1st street, who is leaving for Oceans, La. Saturday. The guests all voted Mrs. Ecton a charming hostess.

Called to Washington
Edward R. Martin, government employee, was called to Washington, D. C., by the illness and death of his sister. He will stay in the city a month before returning to Chicago.

Lowell Henri Christened
Lowell Henri, infant son of Joseph T. and Irene Hudlin Jordan and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hudlin, was christened Sunday at the First Reformed church by Rev. Moses Jackson. Godparents were Mrs. Virginia Warren Williams and Anderson Thomas Stokes. Master Lowell, though but 2 months old, seemed impressed with the solemnity of the occasion and acted accordingly. His christening robe was worn by his mother and maternal grandmother and great-grandmother. He received greetings from his father, who is still in New York city, held to his post as director of a Broadway show.

Leonard Thomas Cut
Leonard Thomas, 1319 West 61st street, was taken to the county hospital, after having his face cut in an argument with Mrs. Carrie Banks of the same address. Thomas, it is said, became abusive around the house and started an argument with Mrs. Banks. She drew a knife and slashed his nose. Mrs. Banks is being held.

Boy Is Injured
James Thompson, 19, 5127 Federal street, while attempting to board a Pennsylvania train at 65th street, slipped from the step and was severely injured. He was taken to the hospital by police of the Stockyards station.

Dr. Gregg to Preach
Dr. J. A. Gregg, president of Wilberforce university, will preach at St. Mary's A. M. E. church, 6251 Dearborn street, Sunday, August 13, at 10:30 a. m. and 3 p. m., at which time the pecuniary rally of classes will take place. Every member of St. Mary's is asked to be present and give his name, address and phone number to one of the secretaries at the door. These names will be printed in St. Mary's membership directory. At the 3 o'clock service the membership picture will be taken. Every member must be in this picture. On Monday night, August 14, President Gregg will speak in behalf of rebuilding Shorter hall, Wilberforce, which burned down last December. All Wilberforceans are asked to help make the Monday night meeting a great success.

Lane Dining Room
After reading the following menu and noting the price, 75c, there will be no question about it—you and your friends will eat Sunday dinner at the Lane Dining Room, 4018 Vincennes avenue, Phone Oakland 4211. Cream of tomato soup, breast of milk fed chicken with giblet sauce, prime roast of beef au jus with brown gravy, mashed new potatoes, green corn, fresh fruit salad, Parker House rolls, tea, coffee, milk, delicious home-made apple pie, caramel ice cream. Meet your friends at this popular priced dining room, where the food is well cooked and wholesome and the dining rooms are cool and restful. 1 to 8:30 p. m.—Advertisement.

The Wilkins Arrive
Baron and Mrs. Caroline Sparrow Wilkins of New York are in the city the guests of Dr. and Mrs. George C. Hall, 3638 Grand boulevard. They motored here in their new McFarland "Special," accompanied by Mrs. Harriet Cooper, wife of Dr. Cooper, New York dentist. A number of social functions will be given in honor of the easterners by the many friends of both Baron and Mrs. Wilkins and also those of Dr. and Mrs. Hall. A special box has been reserved at the American Giants' park, where the Bacharach Giants are playing the American Giants. Mr. Wilkins is part owner of the Bacharachs.

Virginians Entertained
Mrs. L. Lasley and daughter, Mrs. Geraldine Hale of Dante, Va., are visiting Mrs. Addie Ector and sister at 4745 Wabash avenue. They were given a reception Monday. Among those present were Mrs. Viola Moss, Lizzie Mayo, Susie Hunt, Stella Redding, Blanche Huxton, Anna Johnson, Florence Sewell, Iona Giles, Miss Carr of Memphis, Tenn., and the Rev. W. Henderson of St. Mathews' A. M. E. Zion church.

Attending Chiropractors' Convention
The following chiropractors are in the city attending the national chiropractors' convention at the Drake hotel: Dr. Joseph C. Daniel, guest of his brother, Prof. William Emanuel, 6352 Rhodes avenue; Dr. J. J. McKinney of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Dr. Donald St. John of Marion Ind., guest of Sam J. Smallwood, 4849 Wabash avenue, and Dr. T. B. Reddick of St. Louis, who is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Marie Smith, 4238 Indiana avenue.

Visitors at Defender Plant
Miss G. Slaughter, Cleveland, O., who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Addie Simpson, 3623 Wabash avenue; Mrs. W. S. Baldwin, who is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Bennett, 538 East 37th street; Miss Hollena B. Moiley, St. Louis, Mo., who is visiting Mrs. John Pitman, 413 Calumet avenue; John Rice, Greenville, Miss., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hightower, 4608 Indiana avenue; John L. Neal, Minneapolis, Minn., who is visiting C. Franklin Neal, 3522 Michigan avenue; A. W. Leonard, Memphis, Tenn., who is the guest of C. Leonard, 4026 Dearborn street; the Misses Lella and Lucille Randall, St. Louis, Mo., who are guests of Mrs. Lella Hubbard, 3340 South Park avenue; Mrs. T. J. Nott, Clinton, Ia., who is the guest of her son, T. G. Nott, Jr., 3505 Prairie avenue; Mrs. Betty Barksdale, Philadelphia, Pa., who is the guest of Mrs. Mattie Jackson, 4403 Prairie avenue; Mrs. John M. May, San Jose, Cal., who is the guest of her son, John May Jr., 3545 Indiana avenue; Joseph H. B. Evans, St. Louis, Mo., teacher in the department of commerce at Sumner high school, who is visiting Raymond T. Middleton, 6405 St. Lawrence avenue.