

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Accused of Forgery.

According to the testimony offered by the officials of the Greenbaum Sons Bank and Trust company, it was Arthur McDonald, 2713 Lake street, who forged the name of Harry Gable and drew $29.95 from the bank. McDonald was arrested by Sergeants Newman and Pratt of the detective bureau.

Menace to Neighborhood.

Three boys, William Toney, 3552 West 61st street; Ellis Hood, 524 Aldine square, and Joseph Brooks, 346 East 24th street, were each fined $100 and costs by Judge McKinley of the Boys' court. They were arrested by Officers Broderick, Foley and Dwyer, on complaint of neighbors who claimed that they were a menace to the neighborhood.

Take $500 From Store.

After positive identification by Mrs. Lonnie Norman, 601 Bowen avenue, as the men who had held her up in her store and robbed her and her husband of $500, Judge John P. Haas held Dorsey Porter, 22, 5099 Grove avenue, and Alvin Huff, 22, 2250 LaSalle street, to the grand jury under $5,000 bonds each. The men were arrested by Officer J. Ervin.

Tries to Kick in Door.

In response to an appeal for help, Officer Vaughn went to the home of Henry Bolden, 3615 Vernon avenue, where he found the son, Edward, trying to kick in his father's door. Edward tried to trip the officer up when he arrived. He was fined $5 and costs by Judge John F. Haas.

Speed Queen Returns.

Mrs. Leona Gordon, 3932 Prairie avenue, has returned from her motor trip which carried her throughout the West. Mrs. Gordon won honors by driving a Dodge car from Los Angeles, Calif., to Baraboo, Wis., in 11 days.

Returns from Funeral.

Mrs. Josephine Tient, 3606 Wabash avenue, has returned home from Wichita, Kan., where she was called on account of the death of her mother, Mrs. Nannie Howard.

Delegates to Conference.

Mrs. Irene Johns and Mrs. M. Ogletown Gainer left Sunday for Nashville, Tenn., where they will attend the interdenominational Law Enforcement league as delegates from the Illinois State Federation of Colored Women's clubs.

Musicians Convocation.

The Chicago Music association of the National Association of Musicians are planning for the great convocation of musicians to be held in this city at the Metropolitan Community center, Wendell Phillips high school and Orchestra hall during the month of July, 1923. There will be a monster musical given for the benefit of the Chicago local fund Sunday, Nov. 8, Wendell Phillips school. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Has Birthday Party.

Mrs. Nettie Lillard, 4606 Michigan avenue, was pleasantly surprised on her birthday when her husband invited some of her friends in honor of the occasion. The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being yellow. Mrs. Lillard was the recipient of many handsome and beautiful gifts.

Entertains Prof. Minott.

Prof. Adena G. Minott was the guest of honor Wednesday evening at a dinner at the residence of Mrs. Bertha Montgomery, 4810 Indiana avenue. The house was beautifully decorated with American beauty roses. Other guests were: Mesdames Clifford Johnson, Ada S. McKinley, Emma Smith, Irene Goina, Grace Nolan, Maude Lawrence, A. T. Bowers, A. Anderson, S. McDowell, R. E. Gross and M. O. Gainer.

Fight Over Other Woman.

The "other woman" was the cause of a fight between Eugene Johns and his wife, Estelle. Mrs. Johns resorted to her knife and stabbed her husband. The Johns live at 2570 Federal street.

Sent to County Hospital.

The following persons were sent to the county hospital this week: Mrs. Esther Holliday, 24, 2342 State street; Mrs. Ina McGee, 20, 553 East 24th street; Miss Violet Grant, 18, 4414 Evans avenue; Marvin Avery, 34, 4216 Champlain avenue; Robert Wicks, 64, 4262 State street; Frank Hart, 25, 4302 Langley avenue; Mrs. Rosie Manuel, 26, 2110 Dearborn street; Verma Jones, 24, 2027 Archer avenue; John Harris, 24, 2027 Dearborn street; John Scott, 39, 3351 Giles avenue; Ole Washington, 35, 3100 Ellis avenue; Benjamin Sunrise, 42, 3501 Wabash avenue; and Charles Grier, 29, 3104 LaSalle street.

Stabs Wife Under Heart.

Domestic troubles caused an argument between Audrey Berry and his wife, Willie May, as they were walking at 32d and Federal streets. Berry stabbed his wife under the heart and in the back. He was arrested later at his home, 3618 Michigan avenue, by Officers Ewing and Johnson.

Little Children Injured.

Several children were the victims of automobile accidents this week. Some of the cases reported are: Annie Lee Parker, 5, 3601 Dearborn street; Clifford Lynch, 7, 545 Aldine square; Edward A. Christie, 9, 518 Aldine square; Gwendolyn McKee, 3, 4338 Evans avenue; Mattie Pikes, 6, 2306 Dearborn street; and Hilow Blanchard, 6, 2352 South Park avenue.

Insane Victims.

George Slaughter, 42, 126 West 29th street; Harry Harrell, 39, 2053 Indiana avenue; Mrs. Inez Nelson, 36, 2505 Cottage Grove avenue; and Walter Armstrong, 43, 4555 State street, were carried to the Psychopathic hospital this week the victims of insanity.

Major Hardie in City.

Major J. N. Hardie, Fort Worth, Tex., was in the city this week and spent two days with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Terrell, 2445 Indiana avenue, and Messrs. Kelley and N. Martin. Major Hardie was en route home from attending the B. M. C. at Cleveland, Ohio, where he represented the 9th Patriotic regiment of Texas G. N. O. of O. P.

Patti at Quinn Chapel.

Mrs. Anita Patti Brown sang for Quinn chapel Sunday morning, Oct. 1. Her selection, "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," was a sermon in itself, and the tender pathos in her singing touched the hearts of her hearers.

Stringfellow to Sing.

Herbert Stringfellow, the Gospel singer, will sing at St. Stephen's A. M. E. church Sunday morning, Oct. 8, at 11 o'clock. Rev. S. L. Birt, pastor.

Mrs. Pearl Chandler Convalescing.

Mrs. Pearl Chandler, 315 East 46th place, sister of Miss Grace Cunningham, who has been ill at Provident hospital, where she underwent an operation for acute appendicitis, is convalescing and able to be at her home again.

Will Brown in City.

Will H. Brown, formerly of Chicago and Kansas City, Mo., arrived in the city Sunday morning for a few weeks' stay from St. Louis, Mo., where he stopped for a few days en route from Salt Lake City, Utah, where he is now making his home. Mr. Brown is stopping at Mrs. Harry Bowser's, 3410 South Wabash avenue.

Spend Day in Joliet.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius N. Avendorph and son Frederick were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Dunham, 237 North Bluff street, Joliet, Ill., on Sunday, Oct. 1, where they spent a most delightful day motoring.

James Lillard in Concert.

The Supreme Royal Circle of Friends of the World will present James A. Lillard, America's sweet tenor, in grand concert Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 8 p. m., Pilgrim Baptist church, 334 and Indiana avenue. Dr. D. J. Williams, speaker; P. C. Joyner, manager. Admission, 50 cents.—Advertisement.

Miss Breinsson Returns.

Miss Josephine Breinsson, Buffalo, N. Y., who has been visiting in the city for the past two weeks, stopping at the Vincennes hotel, returned to her home Tuesday. She was very much impressed with the "Windy City" and is contemplating really investments here in the near future.

Bahai services Sunday at 3:30 p. m. in St. John hall, Masonic temple. Albert Vail's subject will be: "The New Science of the Soul."

Mrs. Jeanie MacCamey, 2338 Giles avenue, has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., in search of better health.

William Gales of the Overton Hygienic Mfg. Co., who spent two weeks vacation in New York City, has returned.

Mrs. Pauline Jones and her little daughter, who spent several months in the city, left for their home, Nashville, Tenn., on last Friday morning.

Children Get Treat.

The children of the Enterprise institute, 514 Aldine square, of which the Rev. J. W. McDaniel is president and financial agent, entertained members of the board, faculty and other visitors with a splendid program Friday afternoon, Sept. 29, at the school, and in return the were served with refreshments which were donated by Mrs. H. B. Sweet of Augusta, Ga., the sister of Mrs. M. B. Newland, matron of the school. Among the visiting speakers were: The Rev. C. H. Clark, Ebenezer Baptist church; the Rev. S. E. J. Watson, Pilgrim Baptist temple; M. T. Bailey and Prof. H. W. Bowen, dean of the school.

Mrs. Annie Northington of 2916 South State street is still at the Provident hospital, but somewhat improved.

Mrs. Dottie A. Plackman, in West 47th street, who spent several days visiting her father, the Rev. L. Posey, and other relatives at Henderson, Ky., has returned to the city, pleased with her Southern visit.

Children Entertained.

Little Jessie, Almeria and Lee McCamey of North Little Rock, Ark., who were on a visit to the city for several days with their mother, Mrs. Florence McCamey, have left for their home. On Wednesday evening, Sept. 27, they were given a reception at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Sallie McCamey, in Morgan Park. There were about 100 children present.

Home After Long Absence.

Mrs. Amelia McGavock of 4425 South Dearborn street, who has spent more than 10 months at Batavia, Ohio, where she went to be at the bedside of her only sister, who recently passed away, has returned to her home in the city.

Many Visit Morgan Park.

Among the many persons who visited Morgan Park on Sunday and during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Wolfscane, Mesdames Nettie Anderson, Fannie E. Walker, J. H. Burney and C. B. Saunders of Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. E. Yarbrough, Mrs. C. L. Thompson and Mrs. Pearl Love-Payne and her little niece, Messrs. Thomas McNealy, S. Butler, Chas. Mitchell, Hayes and Frazer Thornton.

A Tennessean in City.

Mrs. C. R. Saunders of Memphis, Tenn., is in the city visiting friends and is the guest of Mrs. E. Yarbrough, 456 West 36th street, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. C. L. Thompson, 426 Tremont street.

To Speak Here.

Captain Napoleon B. Marshall of New York, recently appointed attache of the legation, Port-au-Prince, Haiti, will be a speaker at the People's Movement on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 22, in conjunction with Senator Modell McCormick, chairman of the senatorial committee, in charge of the Haitian affairs. This will be Captain Marshall's final public appearance in the United States prior to sailing for Haiti.

Struck by Brother.

During a quarrel with his sister, Miss Lulu McFarlane, 20, 4031 Vincennes avenue, David McFarlane became so angry that he struck his sister a vicious blow in the side.

Men Stags Fight.

A quarrel between Elliott Treyler, 27, 4105 Dearborn street, and Thomas Graham, 4021 Federal street, led to Elliott being cut over the eye with a knife by Tom.

The Grady's Injured.

James Grady, 29, and his wife, Nora, 26, who live at 3721 Indiana avenue, were carried to the South Side hospital suffering with various injuries which they received when their automobile collided with another one at 40th street and Michigan avenue.

Fight in Barber Shop.

While in a barber shop at 452 State street, David Young, 38, 4537 Wabash avenue, engaged in a quarrel with J. E. Smith, 4726 State street, over money matters. Young was carried to the hospital suffering with six razor cuts. Smith was arrested by Sergeants Swain and Brown.

Shot with Father's Gun.

As he was examining his father's gun, Henry Smith, 11, 3048 Calumet avenue, accidentally shot himself through the lung. She is confined at Provident hospital in a serious condition.

Kicked in Stomach.

Mrs. Billie King, 40, 2617 State street, expecting soon to become a mother, was probably internally injured when a man known only to her as John, kicked her in the stomach when she engaged in a quarrel with him at 28th and Dearborn streets. He escaped after the assault.

Idol Loses Worshipers.

When Samuel Henderson, 3551 Wells street, motored to Georgetown, Ky., in a fine automobile, he told his friends just how well he was doing here. But when Sergeants Carney and Curtin nabbed Sam there and charged him with having stolen the car from Joe Osborne, 4210 Calumet avenue, his friends did not think so well of Sam. Sam was brought back by officers minus his crown of popularity.

Accidentally Cut.

While wrestling with two Greeks in a restaurant at 1215 Wabash avenue for the possession of a knife, Joseph Thomas, 40, 1235 Wabash avenue, was accidentally cut in the side.

Boy Stabbed in Back.

Leon Parker, 13, 1515 State street, was stabbed in the back by a boy called "Pap" as they were fighting over a woman at Dearborn street and Archer avenue.

Injured While Intoxicated.

According to the police, William Sullivan, 35, 2116 Dearborn street, was in an intoxicated condition when he fell from a newsstand on which he was sitting at Archer avenue and State streets. He sustained a deep laceration on his face.

Lieutenant Takes Vacation.

Lieut. John McCann, in charge of the Stanton Avenue station, has gone to Mt. Clements, Mich., where he will enjoy a two weeks' rest. Sergeant Andrew Lavin is in charge of his work.

Mrs. Speaks Injured.

An automobile struck and knocked down Mrs. Bertha Speaks, 36, 440 Wabash avenue, as she was attempting to cross the street at 45th street and Grand boulevard. She was painfully injured.

Off on Hunting Trip.

The opening of the hunting season is being hailed with delight by lovers of the sport and many parties are leaving the city in quest of game. Messrs. Carter Hayes, Lanna Jacobs, Walter Speedy and Jack Harding will leave Saturday for Wisconsin on a duck hunting trip.

Robbed of Life's Savings.

James Brown, 2560 Dearborn street, who was arrested by Sergeants Farrell and McGinley, was identified by Stephen Pace, 2724 Dearborn street, as one of the two men who had held him up in his home and robbed him of $500 and $300 worth of jewelry. James Aaron, 2506 Dearborn street, who was visiting at the home of Pace at the time of the robbery, was accused by Pace as having tried to influence him to keep from prosecuting the men. Brown and Aaron were each held to the grand jury under $20,000 bonds each.

Robbed Peter to Pay Paul.

The methods employed by Eunie Collins, 3656 Indiana avenue, to get money were unique, according to Sergeants Duffy and Bahr of the pawnshop squad. Collins was employed by O. Stangard, 510 South Dearborn street, a clothing firm. Persons would leave their summer apparel there to be cleaned for the winter, and vice versa. The officers recovered over $3,000 worth of clothing from the different pawnshops. They declare that should a patron come to claim a suit, Collins would pawn another to redeem the one in demand. He is being held at the detective bureau.

Children's Annoyer Fined.

Several mothers, with their children, appeared before Judge John F. Haas and identified James Wallace, 3523 State street, as the man who had annoyed small children in the alleys in the rear of their homes. He was arrested by Officers Russian, Love and Policewoman Grace Wilson and charged with indecent exposure. He was fined $100 and costs.

Man Beats Wife.

In a quarrel with her husband, Mrs. Danks Williams, 28, 2903 Dearborn street, was severely beaten by him. She suffered a blackened eye and several cuts on the head.

Injured by Automobiles.

Archer Freeman, 19, 2622 Wabash avenue, was painfully injured when he walked from behind one machine directly in the path of another. F. B. Jones, 63, 1502 State street, and Eric Williams, 19, 3448 Dearborn street, were also injured by automobile accidents.

Wife Shoots Estranged Husband.

As he was getting through the transom at 519 East 32d street, trying to reach his wife, Anna, from whom he had been separated for over a year, Clement Fields, 28, 1443 Federal street, was shot in the shoulder by her. She was discharged from the assault.

Boys Implicate Woman.

Two boys, Leon James, 14, 3515 Vernon avenue, and Norman Chambers, 13, 2914 Cottage Grove avenue, told Judge John F. Haas that they had sold some stolen goods to Mrs. Emma Wilson, 3006 Prairie avenue. The boys were arrested by Sergeants Farrell and McGinley after they had stolen a package off a wagon. The woman was ordered to make restitution.

Picks Wrong Man.

Officer Oscar Ridley has the appearance of anything else but a dope fiend, but Charles Taylor, 2637 Dearborn street, chose him as a probable customer when he offered to sell him some morphine as the officer was passing him dressed in civilian clothes. Taylor will look the second time the next time he attempts to peddle dope, for his little mistake made his bank roll $25 short.

Slaughter System Beauty Shop.

Have you visited the Slaughter System Beauty Shop, 5100 Indiana avenue, apartment A? Phone Douglas 1540. Misses Lydia Slaughter-Wilson, on and Sims, props.; Laura Gibbs, assistant.—Advertisement.

The Julius Adams Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius J. Adams, 4926 Indiana avenue, newlyweds, entertained Sunday evening at dinner, the Misses Hazel Harris, Katie Cotton, Waterloo Anderson, Carol and Lynette McCoy, and Dr. L. Baker, Willis J. Clayton, J. Hubert, Clarence Lightfoot, William Jackson. Mrs. Adams will be remembered before her marriage as Pearl Little.

The Lazarus Henrys Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Lazarus Henry, 4514 Champlain avenue, entertained with a birthday party in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Marion Ellis, Sept. 22. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. L. Wardel, Mr. and Mrs. John McEluff, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Henry, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, the Misses Thomas, Hughes, Clancy, Jenkins, Hatfield and Willis, Messrs. Alford, Johnson, Hall, Barrow, Earl Lackey, C. Harris, Kennedy and George Henry. Visiting guests from Middletown, Ohio, were Mrs. Jessie Gates and Elmer Gates, Jr..

Gary to Hear Byrd.

Edward M. Byrd, noted young orator of Northwestern university, will address the members of First Baptist church of Gary, Ind., Sunday at 8 p. m.

Appointed Truant Officer.

Mrs. Sallie Rogers Harris, 4736 St. Lawrence avenue, was recently appointed truant officer by the board of education. Mrs. Harris is well known, having been an active club worker for years.

Stork Visits.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Williams, 5138 Dearborn street, are the proud parents of an eight-pound baby girl. Both mother and baby are doing fine at Provident hospital, under the care of Dr. Homer Cooper.

Motor to City.

Dr. Earl Williams of Lovejoy, Ill., accompanied by Drs. Streets, Sykes and Robertson, and Mr. Hobson, motored to the city last week and were the guests of Dr. Williams' aunt, Mrs. Frances Breckenridge, 21 East 36th street.

The residence of Mrs. Emma Jefferson, 4404 Wabash avenue, was a scene of beauty on Wednesday, Sept. 27, when she gave a party in honor of her birthday. The house was artistically decorated in purple and white chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Approximately 75 guests were present and a large number of gifts were received. During the evening a telegram of congratulations was received from Mrs. Julia Fitzgerald and Mrs. Susie Allen, New York City. Dancing and cards were the features of the evening.

Col. Bruce in City.

Col. Paul Bruce, New Orleans, La., is visiting his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Bruce, 3566 Prairie avenue. Col. Bruce retired recently as U. S. customs inspector after serving the government for the past 35 years. He attended the G. A. R. encampment held in Des Moines, Iowa, being past deputy commander of the department of Louisiana and Mississippi.

Enters U. of C.

Miss Georgia Washington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Washington, 6544 Eberhart avenue, has entered the University of Chicago. She is a graduate of Wendell Phillips and Crane Junior college as an honor student.

Poet in City.

Noble Wiley, author of Noble Thought poems, is in the city, stopping at 3200 Wabash avenue, after an extensive tour of the South and East.

Returns From Hospital.

Samuel E. McAlpine, well-known in musical circles, who was injured in August, has returned to his home, 3443 Rhodes avenue, from the Columbus hospital, where he underwent an operation. He contemplates opening a dramatic school.

French Makes Record.

Clifford C. French, salesman for the Safe-Cabinet company, secured 50 per cent more than was expected of him, or 150 per cent of his quota in a recent sales contest held by that company. He is the only member of his race in a group of 400 salesmen employed.

Goes to Missouri.

Sheridan A. Bruseaux, principal of the Keystone National Detective agency, left the city Monday for Kansas City, Mo., on official business. He will return in 10 days.

A Correction.

Dr. J. M. Allison, 435 East 35th street, corrects the statement that it was he who was arrested charged with speeding. James Water, 3182 South Park avenue, a relative, had the physician's car when taken by traffic officers and the mistake occurred in entering the name of the owner of the car instead of the driver.

Sick List.

Joseph Carter, 1348 West 61st street, suffering from a stroke.
Mrs. M. P. McSpadden, 3623 Giles avenue, is improving from a serious attack of bronchitis.
Miss Anna T. Owens, 3152 Prairie avenue, is improving after a long illness.

Drank Poison.

Early Thursday morning, between 12:30 and 1 o'clock, police from the Wabash avenue station were summoned to the home of Mrs. Lula Moore, 24, 4729 Prairie avenue, who had swallowed an ounce of iodine. On their arrival the officers found her still conscious and rushed her to the County hospital. There she was brought out of danger. According to the police, Mrs. Moore drank the poison with suicidal intent, while despondent over illness. But this she denied.