

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

To Get Brass Band.

Morgan Park, the beautiful and rapidly thriving suburb, is to have a brass band of its own. This was the result of a great mass meeting held on Oct. 5 at the high school, at which time an interesting program was rendered and many of the prominent citizens of that suburb took an active part as well as Hon. Warren B. Douglas, state representative.

Council Entertainers.

Princess council of S. M. T. of which Mrs. Scriffa Jackson is president, entertained with its regular quarterly program on Oct. 2. A beautiful paper on the subject of "Truth" was read by Mrs. Georgia Montgomery, princess of Rose of Sharon council. Among other speakers was H. R. Hoeker, grand wizard of C. R. F., state of Illinois. Mrs. Eliza Jackson, past vice-princess of the state of Illinois, acted as mistress of ceremonies. Refreshments were served at the close of the program.

On Fraternal Trip.

Mrs. Deane Cannon, 18 East 31st street, left the city Saturday morning for St. Louis, Mo., and will visit Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, and Detroit, Mich., before returning to the city. Mrs. Cannon is imperial deputy of the Knights and Daughters of Honor and is making this trip of interest. She will be away two weeks.

Many Visit Morgan Park.

There were many visitors in Morgan Park during the past week from surrounding suburbs and the city proper. These visitors were Miss M. Taylor, Mrs. Mollie Simpson, Edna H. Taylor, Mrs. R. W. and George E. Nutt, formerly of Virginia, now of this city.

Coming West.

Dr. John M. Gandy, president of the Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute of Petersburg, Va., has been invited by the general secretary of the Kent County Sunday School association, to address a mass meeting to be held in Grand Rapids, Mich., at an early date. The secretary was greatly impressed by the timely address, "Re-delivering a Race Through Its Children," delivered by Dr. Gandy at the meeting of the Industrial Sunday School convention at Kansas City, Mo., in June, and extended this invitation to Dr. Gandy. On part of his trip, Dr. Gandy will be accompanied by M. T. Bailey of 2535 State street, who has served 15 years as president of the Alumni association of the N. C. & I. The meeting will be held in Chicago and states of the Middle West.

Spend Day at Joliet.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Stratton of 3281 Cottage Grove avenue spent last Sunday at Joliet, Ill., with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Stratton were formerly residents of Joliet.

Mrs. Joyce Returns.

Mrs. William Joyce has just returned to the city from a visit to her sister, Mrs. G. B. Reed, 789 Girard street Northwest, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Joyce is an old Washingtonian and while in the city was warmly welcomed and entertained by her old acquaintances there.

Stork's Visits.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hogan, 3534 Vincennes avenue, are the proud parents of a seven-pound boy born Sept. 28. The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Hogan, 3534 Prairie avenue, on Saturday morning leaving them a fine baby gift.

The Rev. Carroll Leaves City.

The Rev. Joseph C. Carroll, for the past two years assistant pastor of the Olivet Baptist church, has resigned his work here and accepted a place on the faculty of the Virginia Theological seminary and college at Lynchburg, Va. Mr. Carroll is well prepared for his work, holding the degrees of Ph. B., M. A. and D. B. from the University of Chicago. He will head the department of history and direct special research in history.

Miss Campbell Entertains.

Dr. and Mrs. Forest L. Robinson and Mrs. Lena Hall Williams were entertained at dinner Sunday afternoon by Miss Geraldine Campbell, 4438 Prairie avenue. A theater party followed.

Cafe Changes Hands.

The Giles Inn cafe, 301 East 35th street, has changed hands. The finest lunch on the South side; serve only the best. Robert J. Taylor and Frank Crawford, props.—Advertisement.

Dr. Willis Attends Meet.

Dr. Floyd W. Willis, 3510 State street, attended the recent meeting of the Central Society of Physical Therapists at the Hotel La Salle week of Oct. 2. Dr. Willis has for a number of years been the only member of our group affiliated with this society. He will leave shortly to attend a national meeting in one of the eastern cities.

Benefit Recital.

Tickets are now on sale at the leading drug stores for the recital for the benefit of the Julia Johnson home. Mme. Camille Cohen Jones is directing the recital with Mrs. Le D. Bond as soloist. Miss Hazel Whiteman, pianist, and Miss Magnolia Lewis, reader. Special attraction will be a radio program to begin at 8 o'clock. Remember the date, Thursday evening, Oct. 19, at St. Mark's M. E. church, 50th street and Wabash avenue. Admission 50 cents.—Adv.

To Hold Tinsley Memorial.

The friends and former members of the Choral Study club are requested to meet at Grace Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to prepare a musical program for a memorial service to be held in memory of the late Pedro T. Tinsley. Elmer J. Meyers is chairman of the music committee.

Crawford's Family Grows.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Crawford, 6724 Champlain avenue, are the proud parents of a fine baby girl, born Wednesday, Oct. 2, at Provident hospital. Mother and daughter are in the best of health. Dr. Roscoe G. Giles was attending physician. Prof. James A. Mundy presented the baby with a gift of a bank account at Binga State bank.

Edward Harris, Jr., Dies.

Edward Harris, Jr., six months, 257 St. Lawrence avenue, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris, died Tuesday, Oct. 2. He was buried Saturday, the Rev. Cook officiating; interment Lincoln cemetery.

Shoots Alleged Pickpocket.

An officer of the police assigned to the detective bureau was riding on a State street car, he noticed four men jostling the crowd. He placed Louis Rivers, 29, 3650 Wabash avenue, under arrest. When they reached 33d street Rivers attempted to escape. A shot killed Rivers.

Federal Quartet Sings.

The Federal Male quartet, composed of Messrs. J. Wesley Jones, C. F. Crenshaw, Geo. H. Hutchinson and A. L. Moore, sang at the Masonic temple in the loop last Sunday. The quartet made a big hit as usual. Miss Thelma O. Simons was the accompanist.

Tried to Burn Up Wife.

Henry C. Sheriff, 5232 State street, who was arrested by Sergeants Costella and O'Leary, Third district, after he had poured iodine down his wife's throat, tied her to the bed and set fire to it, was held to the grand jury under $5,000 bonds by Judge Eiler of the 18th Street Police station. He was charged with arson and assault with intent to commit murder.

Faints During Ride.

Police were called to 32d and State streets when the prostrate form of Mrs. Mollie Jackson, 43, 2626 Federal street, was seen lying in a hank and white cab. Investigation showed that she had fainted when a wheel came off of the cab. She suffered no other injuries.

Wagon Driver Injured.

While driving a horse attached to an express wagon, Jose Hoover, 25 years old, 20 East 37th street, was injured when the wagon was struck by an automobile at 27th street and 31st street avenue. J. B. Bell, 40, 4623 Dearborn street, who was riding with Hoover, was also injured.

Breaks Hip Bone.

While playing basket ball in the Doanville playgrounds, Charles Allen, 11,

Bahai Services Sunday at 3:30 p. m. in St. John hall, Masonic temple, Albert Vail's subject will be: "How the Soul is Reborn."

3325 Vernon avenue, suffered a broken hip bone when he fell to the ground.

Internally Injured.

Miss Antonio Jones, 21, 3136 State street, had to receive medical treatment as the result of a beating given her by Eldridge Smith. She stated that while she was quarreling with Smith, he assaulted her. Her face was badly bruised and she sustained possible internal injuries.

Child Uninjured.

When an automobile truck belonging to the Hartman Furniture Co. knocked down Robert Simmons, 2935 Dearborn street, as it was passing 30th and Dearborn streets, passersby turned their heads with a sickening fear, thinking that the child had been killed. The little tot crawled from under the truck uninjured.

Crushed to Death.

When some children shouted, "Let's take a ride," as a big truck was passing on 29th street, between Michigan and Wabash avenues, little 8-year-old Frank Willis attempted to climb upon the truck. He missed his footing and fell to the ground, the rear wheels of the truck passing over his body. The child was crushed to death. He lived with his parents at 2812 State street.

Falls Down the Stairs.

According to the police John Porter, 52, 2623 State street, was intoxicated when he fell down a stairway at 30th and State streets. He suffered a broken leg.

William Frazier Injured.

William Frazier, 46, 2953 Wabash avenue, is confined to his home suffering with influenza to his head and leg which he sustained when he was struck by an automobile at 30th and State streets.

Fractures Leg.

While playing in the street, little 8-year-old Leslie Brown, 4523 Prairie avenue, suffered a fractured leg when he ran directly in the path of a passing automobile.

Auto Injures Boy.

Douglas Brown, 15, 144 West 4th street, was carried to Provident hospital suffering with injuries he received when he was struck by an automobile at 4th and Federal streets.

Shoots Woman; Escapes.

The police have been asked to look for William Johnson, 39 years old, 5 feet 9 inches and slim build. He worked for the Northwestern railroad at Crawford avenue and Kinzie street. He is wanted for the attempted murder of Sarah Collins, 52, 1806 Dearborn street. Johnson, who lives at 1892 Dearborn street, shot the woman three times.

Suffers Various Injuries.

While attempting to cross the street at Archer avenue and State street, little 7-year-old Charles Brown, 5915 Clark street, was knocked down by a Tri-angle taxicab. He suffered a broken leg, broken jaw, broken nose, several teeth knocked out and various minor bruises.

Chalk Uses Knife.

An argument with a man called "Chalk" ending with the cutting of Charles Francis, 23, 315 State street, being sent to the hospital. For some unknown reason the man quarreled violently. Chalk used his razor with telling effect.

Exonerated for Husband's Death.

The woman was acquitted of the charge of a quarrel between Mrs. Estelle Johns and her husband, Eugene, in their home at 2870 Federal street. Johns became beating his wife. She resorted to a knife for protection. Johns died from his wounds. A coroner's jury exonerated Mrs. Johns for her husband's death.

Scalds Common Law Husband.

Moonshine was the cause of a quarrel between Cleve Powell, 31, and his common law wife, Anna Martin, who reside at 3501 Wabash avenue. Powell was in such an intoxicated condition that he threatened to throw Anna out of the window. In desperation she grabbed a pan of boiling water and threw it on Cleve. He is at the County hospital in a serious condition, but declares that he will not prosecute Anna.

Bob Lee Dies.

A man, supposed to be Bob Lee, 35 years old, had a hemorrhage while at 3221 Wabash avenue and died in a few moments. Further particulars will be sought regarding the case.

Child Injured.

John W. Gross, 10, 465 East 40th street, was carried to the Provident hospital suffering with injuries he sustained when he fell off a truck on which he was riding directly in the path of a passing automobile.

Shoots Intruder.

While looking for his brother, who lives at 4114 Dearborn street, Edward Morgan, 21, 4049 Dearborn street, through a mistake, was trying the door of Hurlis Morris, who lives at 4116 Dearborn street. Morris shot through the door and struck Morgan in the arm. Morris and Morgan were arrested pending an investigation by the police.

Injured In Collision.

When driving his own automobile, Alva Jackson, 37, 2647 State street, was painfully injured when his car collided with another machine at 43d and State streets.

Moonshine Causes Quarrel.

While quarreling over a division of moonshine between Jackson, 24, 522 East 42d place, and Curtis Smith, 4412 Federal street, came to blows. Jackson was carried to the county hospital suffering with several razor cuts inflicted by Smith.

Biten by Dogs.

As he was descending the stairs from the third floor to the second of a building at 4847 Langley avenue, Paul Duckworth, 36, who resides on the third floor, was bitten by a dog belonging to Mrs. Allen, who lives on the second floor. Miss Anna Hogan, 22 years old, 26 West 37th street, was also the victim of a dog owned by Mrs. Brown, 3541 Federal street.

Cut In the Side.

Richard Warner, 21, 5110 Wabash avenue, was severely cut in the side with a pocket knife by William Wonders, 481 State street, when they engaged in a quarrel at 4933 State street.

Confesses to Murder.

According to the story told by Sergeants Costella and O'Leary, assigned to the third district, Perry Robinson confessed to them that it was he alone who chloroformed Mrs. Bessie Greenberg in her home at 3448 West 15th street. For a last. When he was hired by her to wash windows, he used the drug to rob her. Robinson escaped after the murder, but was captured at 902 Division street, St. Louis, Mo.

Will Lose Arm.

As a result of a quarrel during a moonshine party, Mrs. Amazona Franklin, 25, 3019 Cottage Grove avenue, will lose her arm. She engaged in a quarrel with Hugh Vail, 4014 Cottage Grove avenue. He shot her in the arm and above the nipple with a shotgun. The shot shattered the bone in her arm, which will cause it to be amputated. Vail, who was arrested by Officer Leo O'Neill, will be tried for attempted murder Oct. 28.

Car Strikes Auto.

Mrs. Laura Bard, 34 years old, 18 East 33d street, was painfully injured when an automobile belonging to John Powner, 11 East 33d street, in which she was a passenger, collided with a street car at 30th and Cottage Grove avenue.

Sprains Knee.

While getting off of a street car, Mrs. Vivian Anderson, 35, 2500 Rhodes avenue, missed her footing and fell to the street. She is confined to her home, suffering with a sprained knee.

Visitors at Defender Plant.

Chicago visitors, who inspected the Defender plant during the past week were: Mrs. L. C. Weeks, Kansas, the guest of Mrs. E. B. Day, 411 Indiana avenue; J. A. Griffin, Kansas City, Kan., the guest of Thornton Williams, 3125 Wabash avenue; Woodley C. Lewis, Los Angeles, Cal., guest of Mr. and Mrs. Calloway, 3324 Dearborn street; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carter, Toronto, Canada, guests of the Vincennes hotel; Claude C. Milton, Ridgewood, N. J., guest of Anthony Overton, 3201 State street; Mrs. E. E. Terre Longe, Hamilton, Ontario, guest of Mrs. Anna Eaton, 4523 Indiana avenue; A. C. McNeal, Memphis, Tenn., stopping at 3629 Ellis park; Rev. Jacob Nicholas, Vicksburg, Miss., visiting nephew at 4343 South Park avenue; Mrs. Nancy Washington, Monroe, La., guest of Willie Crowder, her son, 3207 Dearborn street; Mrs. Pauline H. Daniels, Houston, Texas, stopping at the Columbia hotel; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cannady, Kansas City, Mo., guests of Clifton Stewart, 4510 Prairie avenue; Dewey R. Jones, Ann Arbor, Mich., guest of E. F. Robbins, 4022 Calumet avenue; Thomas H. Hays, Memphis, Tenn., the guest of Dr. H. G. Martin, 3818 Grand boulevard; Florence E. Gladys, Wichita, Kan., stopping at the Misses Blanche and Mildred Jackson, 524 East 37th place; Edward Pitts and sister, Rosa, Philadelphia, Pa., stopping at Vincennes hotel; Charles Crenshaw, Portsmouth, Va., visiting Miss Emma Vannoy, 469 East 30th street; Mrs. Nora G. Richardson, Memphis, Tenn., guest of Frank Bell, H. Thomas, 3332 Indiana avenue; Mrs. Myrtle H. Edwards, Detroit, Mich., stopping at the Vincennes hotel; the Rev. John S. Crittenden, West Baden, Ind., the guest of the Rev. A. M. Martin, 3156 Prairie avenue; the Rev. Thomas D. Scott, Leavenworth, Kan., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott, 2336 Prairie avenue; the Rev. M. C. Knight, Quindaro, Kan., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Scott; James F. Mann, Los Angeles, Cal., visiting C. A. Martin, 3359 Wabash avenue; W. H. Dillard, Los Angeles, Cal., the guest of Charles Bentley, 4433 Wabash avenue; Elmer Burnett, Los Angeles, Cal., guest of Prof. James A. Mundy, 3834 Wabash avenue; Mrs. F. S. Sullivan and Miss Mildred Stewart, Wichita, Kan., guests of Mrs. Nora Lee, 5253 Dearborn street; William Crump, Davenport, Iowa; Edgar Arnold, Shellbina, Mo.; Robert F. Henry, Wheeland, Mo.; Frank Jones, Columbus, Ohio; Henry Hughes, Bellefontaine, Ohio; Royal Poole, 2217 Indiana avenue.

Bond Fixed at $20,000.

Friends of Samuel Elliott, who was recently brought back from Tucson, Ariz., by Sergeant David (Big Six) Smith, are rallying to his support in order to obtain bail for him. Chief Justice Michael McKinley has fixed bonds at $20,000. Elliott was held to the grand jury for the murder of Sug Clem, who died in the Provident hospital from gun shot wounds alleged to have been fired by Elliott.

Mike Assaults Jennie.

While in a quarrel with Mike Willis in her home at 15 West 26th place, Mrs. Jennie Wingfield, 42 years old, sustained a severe wound in the forehead when she was hit by Mike.

Assaulted by Unknown.

For no apparent reason and without allowing him to get a glimpse of his face, Paul Curtis, 20, 4653 Federal street, was hit from behind with a club while walking along at 47th and Dearborn streets. He stated that he knew of no enemies.

Injured by Auto.

A Ford automobile, which was traveling at a rapid pace at 44th street and Indiana avenue, struck and knocked down James H. Howard, 35, 4504 Indiana avenue, and painfully injured him.

Declared Insane.

Davis H. Poston, 58, 4211 Champlain avenue, was carried to the psychopathic hospital to be kept under observation, pending an investigation into his sanity.

Dies of Heart Trouble.

Mrs. Ida Prooks, 39, was found dead in bed at her home, 2850 Ellis avenue. Death was due to organic heart trouble.

Receive Creditable Mention.

In appreciation of the recommendation of Sergeant Andrew Laylin, in command of the Stanton avenue police station in the absence of Lieut. John McCann, creditable mention is given Officer James Majors for the alertness and attention to duty, displayed by him in apprehending Nathaniel Springfield, who fired eight shots at Officer Majors. Creditable mention is also given to Officer Joseph Eryin, who, single-handed, captured Alvin Duff and Dorsey Porter, after they had held up and robbed a grocer and his wife of $600.

Sent to County Hospital.

The following persons were sent to the county hospital this week: Mrs. Josie Cooper, 29, 2115 Wabash avenue; Mose Byrd, 40, 2908 State street; Jake Ryan, 20, 2908 State street; John Williams, 25, 2523 LaSalle street; Henry Beasley, 21, Chicago Heights; Leslie Wershaw, 45, 509 Bryant avenue; Mrs. Blanche Childers, 19, 3302 Cottage Grove avenue; and Mrs. Ida Requef, 60, 2223 South Park avenue.

Stork Leaves Boy.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brooks, 3207 Federal street, Monday morning, leaving a 10-pound baby boy. The mother, doing nicely under the care of Dr. J. H. McClure.

Surprise Smoker.

Mrs. James Stephens, 3513 Wabash avenue, surprised her husband Thursday evening with a smoker in honor of his birthday. Prof. T. Thelore Taylor opened the program with a radio solo, after which a duet was rendered by the Lees, Russell and Daise. Dr. H. Arthur Massey was toastmaster. Mrs. Stephens was assisted by Mrs. Chowchester and Mrs. Harris.

Delegates to G. A. R. Session.

Fort Wagner Circle No. 5, Daughters of the Grand Army of Republic and Mrs. Mark Mack, patriotic instructor in the circle, were delegates to the national encampment of the G. A. R., held at Des Moines, Iowa, last week.

Choir Singers Organize.

Choirs in the various churches of Chicago and suburbs have been organized into what is known as the Cook County Gospel Musical Convention, which, for the present, holds monthly sessions on each third Sunday afternoon. The October meeting will be held this Sunday afternoon at the Ebenezer Baptist church, 329 North Division street, the Rev. T. M. Moses, pastor. Mrs. Ezzella M. Carter will deliver a special address, and good singing will feature the program.

Party for Arkansas.

Edgar Glover entertained with a stag party, ending at his residence in honor of visiting friends from Little Rock, Ark. The tables were laid out in the form of the letter "L," and were beautifully decorated. Several short talks were made by Messrs. William Booker and William C. Prince. Charles McCoy entertained with a stag party, ending at his residence. DeShon Jones played several of his own selections on the piano.

J. D. Lewis Entertains.

J. D. Lewis, 4618 Kenmore avenue, entertained at the Hotel Kenmore, Saturday evening, honoring Miss Lucas of Lily Lake, Ill., and Miss Washington of Aurora. Twenty guests were present and all voted Mr. Lewis a pleasing host.

To Hold Rummage Sale.

An interesting rummage sale will be held by the Isiah Temple Woman's club at the Gran M. E. church, 44th and Evans avenue, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 17, 18 and 19. The proceeds of the sale are to go to the organ fund of the new temple.

Celebrate Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy celebrated their 20th anniversary Sept. 23 at the Vincennes hotel. Many valuable presents were received. A beautiful ring was received by the hostess from her husband. Mrs. Kennedy wore a gown of white georgette and jet and wore white duchess satin, trimmed with silver grapes. Ninety guests were present. The dining room was attractively decorated with cut flowers and ferns. Music was furnished ### by the Paramount orchestra. Out-of-town guest was Mrs. James Burnett, 1110 North 17th avenue, Nashville, Tenn. Telegrams were received from Porterville, Cal., New York City and Highland Park, Ill.

Mrs. Ida Pegues Dies.

Mrs. Ida Pegues, 2923 South Park avenue, sister of Mrs. M. Malone, Holly Springs, Mass., took suddenly ill Tuesday, Oct. 2, and was taken to the hospital, where she died Wednesday, Oct. 4. Funeral was held from Frank Edwards undertaking establishment, 31st and Indiana avenue. Among the beautiful floral offerings was a beautiful wreath from the Dearborn street station from friends of her son. She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, three brothers, one sister and a host of relatives.

Alpha Kappa Sorority Meets.

The first meeting of the Chicago Graduate chapter of the Alpha Kappa Sorority was held at the Ideal tea room, 3218 Michigan avenue, Saturday evening. A dinner was served for Mrs. Bortha Lewis, Mrs. Ida Taylor Jones, Miss Helen K. Perry, Mrs. Vera Overton Lewis, Mrs. Gertrude Hodges Dismond and Mrs. Vesta Lewis.

William Beck in City.

William Beck, detective sergeant, Detroit, Mich., was in the city last week, the guest of Sheridan A. Brusseau. Mr. Beck was in the city on official business. He left Tuesday for Detroit.

Entertain at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Minnes, 3006 Prairie avenue, entertained with a six-course dinner Oct. 9 in honor of Mrs. Nora Fletcher, Hot Springs, Ark. Other guests were W. S. Hopkins, John Farrell and Frank Weber, Los Angeles, Cal.; T. Tate, Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Stella Anderson and Mrs. Lillie Fredericks, residents of Chicago. After dinner the party motored over the city.

Cozy Dance Hall.

The Cozy dance hall, 2918 Michigan avenue, is open for dancing and card parties, dinner dances, breakfast dances, etc. Will accommodate 25 couples or more.—Advertisement.

Mme. Williams Moves.

Mrs. Estelle Williams has moved to 2642 Prairie avenue and will be pleased to see friends and customers.

Dr. and Mrs. Williams Return.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Williams returned to the city during the past week from Idlewild, Mich., where they spent three months enjoying their summer home.

Dinner Guest.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. French of 4650 Winthrop avenue were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julius N. Avendorph, Thursday evening, Oct. 5. Fredrick Wm. Avendorph spent Saturday and Sunday in Joliet, Ill., as the guest of Master Albert Dunham, 237 North Blue street.

Leaves for Denver.

Mrs. Marie Brown, one of Denver's leading matrons, spent several days in the city en route home. Mrs. Brown was the recipient of much social attention while here and our popular bachelor, A. L. McFriede's Nash car was placed at her disposal. She left Monday morning.

C. M. Washington Ill.

C. M. Washington, 6535 Evans avenue, was compelled to leave his post of duty on Thursday of last week on account of being ill and has been confined to his home ever since.

Quinn Chapel Program.

Quinn chapel choir will render a program, assisted by Prof. Jackson, Mrs. Anette White and others, Sunday, Oct. 15, at 8 p. m. Mme. Marion Adams, choir director. Admission free.

To Select Judicial Ticket.

The Cook County Bar association will hold a conference for the selection of a judicial ticket to be voted on Nov. 1 at 262 Grand boulevard, Friday, Oct. 12. The selection of candidates will be made from all tickets by the association for judges of the county, probate and municipal courts.

On Long Motor Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown and J. Campbell, St. Louis, Mo., with Marion Brown and Louis Taylor, Hot Springs, Ark., motored to the city this week from St. Louis. They are guests at the Vincennes hotel and have been the recipients of courtesies from a local friend of the bunch, Sheridan A. Brusseau.

Meharry Alumni Reception.

Members of the Meharry Alumni association will give a dance and reception in the Chicago University of Music, 37th and Michigan, Monday evening, Oct. 16.

Kentuckian in City.

Lyle Hawkins, Shelbyville, Ky., is in the city attending the Y. M. C. A. college and University of Chicago. During the afternoon Mr. Hawkins is day clerk at the Idlewild hotel, 50 East 33d street. Mr. Hawkins is the son of Mrs. Mayme Hawkins Roman, supervisor of schools of Shelbyville, Ky.

Attorneys in Monmouth.

Warren B. Douglas and Clifford Tarrant, lawyers, successfully defended Amon Minnehan in the Circuit court, Warren county, Monmouth, Ill., Monday, Oct. 9. They were the special guests of Mr. Lauder, state's attorney, at the Rotary club luncheon, where Mr. Douglas made a very eloquent speech.

Senators to Speak.

Do not fail to hear Senators Medill McCormick and William McKinley, who will address the Original Providence Baptist church musicale and citizens' meeting, Sunday, Oct. 15, at the Original Providence Baptist church, Leavitt and Wabash streets. The Dyer anti-lynching bill and other matters of vital interest to all will be discussed. Doors open at 2:30 p. m. Program begins at 3 o'clock sharp. Dr. Aaron H. Fairfax, master of ceremonies. Prof. Albert Jones, musical director.

Alexander Webb Visits.

Alexander Webb, 1477 West 12th street, Morgan Park, left Sunday night to attend the Musonic convention in East St. Louis, Ill. He will also visit relatives and friends in St. Louis, Mo.

Celebrate Birth of Bab.

A meeting was held Monday evening in the basement of the Bahai temple, being built in Wilmette, celebrating the birth of Bab, the martyred forerunner of John the Baptist of the Bahai Revelation. It is reported that Prof. Jenab Fazel, the distinguished scholar and author, will make a lecturing tour through the United States and will make Chicago his home.

Taggers Wanted.

It is necessary to have 500 women and girls as charity workers to tag for the Mt. Carmel Mutual Welfare Institution, Monday, Oct. 23, for the benefit of poor, orphan children. For terms apply 4212 South Wabash avenue. (Houl. 827.—Advertisement.)

"La Pearl" Beauty Shop.

Pearl M. Bamey, formerly of 211 East 35th street, announces the opening of the "La Pearl," an exclusive millinery and beauty shop, located at 3112 Indiana avenue.—Advertisement.

Hold Man for Murder.

Walter Wilson, 3502 State street, who recently shot and killed Lincoln Montgomery in front of 3532 State street, was held for murder by the coroner's jury Saturday morning. His plea was self-defense.

Visit Boys' School.

Robert S. Abbott, his assistant, A. L. Jackson, and Dr. G. C. Hall motored out to visit the St. Charles school for boys. While there they were the guests of the acting superintendent, Frank D. Whipp, with whom they had an interesting conference pertaining to the welfare of the school.

The head of the school paid the visitors an unusual honor in calling out the regiment of 800 boys to drill and parade in their honor. The regiment in their natty uniforms with Race boys as officers in several of the companies and several in the band, notably drum major, drilled and paraded in impressive fashion. At the conclusion of the parade the officers were called forward and A. L. Jackson made an address to the regiment on leadership and morale at the request of the school superintendent.

Rev. Turner to Speak.

The Rev. Mrs. M. E. Turner of Idlewild, Mich., will return to the city Sunday. She will be the principal speaker of the Idlewild Boosters club Thursday night at Bells hotel, 1521-23 West Park avenue.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention at Springfield. Mr. Abbott is the first Race member of this committee to be appointed so far. Justice Orrin N. Carter is chairman and official head of the work of the committee.

Editor on Committee.

Robert S. Abbott, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, has been appointed a member of the general committee which is to put before the people the new constitution for the state of Illinois, recently framed by the constitutional convention