

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

The Rev. Weathers in the City.
The Rev. C. C. Weathers, pastor of Ebenezer Baptist church, New Brunswick, N. J., is in the city for a few days, visiting M. J. Griffin, Evanston, Ill. On Sunday, Oct. 15, he preached to the Rev. I. A. Thomas, Evanston, and delivered a powerful sermon. The Rev. Weathers was a visitor to the Defender plant on Monday and was accompanied by the Rev. J. H. Johnson, a large force employed. When he returns to New Jersey he will deliver a sermon on "The Chicago Defender and What It Means to the Nation."

The Rev. Kingsley in City.
The Rev. Harold M. Kingsley, Congregational minister of the Home Missionary society, who attended the 69th semi-annual meeting of the Chicago Congregational association, Tuesday, Oct. 16, with the Harvey Federated church, Harvey, Ill., was the guest of the Rev. Burton while in Chicago.

Receives Appointment.
Albert L. Walker, grandson of the Rev. P. R. Walker and son-in-law of H. J. Roberts, Evanston, Ill., has been appointed principal of the Douglas high school, Henderson, Ky., and assistant principal of the Alvest Street school, which has over 450 students with a faculty of 14 teachers. Mr. Walker, who is only 24 years old, is well known in Indiana, where he attended high school and college and was commonly called the "Hoosier Track Idol." He is the only member of the Race that ever debated on the "Triangular Debating" team, which held the Western high school championship for two years. He is mathematics teacher and basket ball and track coach.

Miss Adeline Wilson Dies.
Miss Adeline B. Wilson, 6541 Evans avenue, died Sunday, Oct. 15. She was a clerk in the dead letter department of the Chicago postoffice and the daughter of Henry B. Wilson, also a clerk in the postoffice. Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Lincoln Memorial Congregational church; interment at Oakwood cemetery. She leaves a father, two brothers, Henry and Carter; two sisters, Frederica and Alice, to mourn her loss.

Large Crowd at Concert.
There was a large and appreciative audience at Quinn chapel last Sunday evening to hear the sacred concert since opening of the program were Misses: Blaine, Annette White, Elita Jones, Misses Anna Adams, Lillian Smith, West, Marion Adams, Messrs. Hilbert Stewart, Clarence Lee, Hon. Adolbert Roberts and Prof. Jackson.

Newspaper Man in City.
Mr. and Mrs. Elliott O. Brown and William A. Green, Buffalo, N. Y., were in the city this week, where they stopped over a few days at the Vincennes hotel, en route to St. Paul by way of motor. Mr. Brown is publisher of the Buffalo American and was a visitor to the Defender plant while in the city.

Mrs. Bell Green Moves.
Mrs. Bell Green has moved from 3345 Indiana avenue to 4404 Prairie avenue, 2d apartment.

Albert Watkins in City.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Watkins and brother, Eddie H. Watkins, arrived in the city last week from Nashville, Tenn., where Mr. Watkins is taking care of his business at the Porters and Waiters' Exchange, 3445 South State street. His friends may find him at this location for a few days.

Opens Law Office.
Malvin H. Huggins, one of the well-known young men of the city, has just returned from Springfield, Ill., where he was granted a license to practice law before the bar of the state of Illinois. The Supreme court convened on Sept. 12 for the purpose of issuing licenses to the successful participants who passed the bar examination held July 11 and 12 of this year at Chicago. Mr. Huggins will engage in the general practice of law in the city of Chicago and will be associated with Attorney J. Debes Bell, 3439 Indiana avenue. His wide acquaintance with the legal fraternity and his association with many social and civic organizations in Chicago will assure for him great success.

Rockford Singers Coming.
The Rockford Singers, termed "the best singers in Illinois," will appear at Quinn chapel Thursday evening, Nov. 8. This splendid aggregation, consisting of 20 members, will unite with Quinn chapel's Sunday school orchestra in the season's biggest concert. The orchestra is under the direction of Mrs. Ima Howard and consists of 21 youngsters who have developed at almost a phenomenal pace.

George I. Holt stands in the forefront in ability for interpretation with the Allen Temple Choral society of Rockford.

REV. STRONG COMES HERE
The Rev. I. S. Strong, D. D., Memphis, Tenn., one of the leading pastors of that city, and pastor of the New Friendship Baptist church for 14 years, has been called to the pastorate of the Mount Zion Baptist church, 5311 LaFayette avenue. The ministry of Chicago have extended to Dr. Strong a hearty welcome and he comes highly recommended. Memphis ministers of both sexes expressed their regret in having his leave the South. A reception was tendered him and his wife last Monday night at the Mount Zion Baptist church, Dr. A. H. Henderson, pastor. Dr. Strong has also recommendations from the association, of which he was vice moderator, and the Ministers' Alliance, of which he was a member. He was founder of the New Friendship Baptist church and the congregation gave him many presents when he left.

Whist Party
Priscilla Art and Social club will give a whist party at the Railroad Men's club, 3441 Wabash avenue, Oct. 25. Mrs. Charles Wright, president; Mrs. E. L. Daniel, chairman. Tickets, 25c.—Advt.

Evangelist Returns
Mrs. Willa S. Woods, Wilberforce Gospel evangelist of the 14th Episcopal district, graduate of Payne Theological seminary, has returned from South Carolina, where she conducted four successful campaigns.

Mrs. Carter Entertains
Mrs. Oliver P. Carter, 5619 Wabash avenue, entertained at dinner Monday evening for her schoolmates of 25 years ago. Those present were: Mesdames Eschra King, Lillian Patterson, Mildred Fisher, Ethel Silks, Blanche Johnson, Esther Strong and Sadie McCarver. Each guest was presented with a silver coin as a keepsake.

Amanda Greenhall Dies
Mrs. Amanda Greenhall died Oct. 3 after an illness of eight weeks at the home of her daughters, Mesdames Anna Stokes and Sallie Leonard, 3468 State street.

Postal Employees Alliance
The Chicago branch of the National Alliance of Postal Employees met on Sunday, Oct. 8, at 4:30 p. m. at the Appomattox club. This was the first meeting in the second year of the organization. Officers elected for the ensuing year as follows: J. W. Asey, president; W. T. Waller, vice president; George Davidson, secretary, and E. Davis, Jr., reporter.

Returns to Salisbury
Mrs. Josephine Wallace, Salisbury, N. C., who has been the guest of Mrs. Mae C. Walker, 2561 Grand boulevard, for the past two months, has left the city for her home. She will visit in Washington en route.

How Old is Billy?
A dozen friends were entertained on Saturday evening by Miss Billie Springfield, 3517 Wabash avenue. The occasion was Miss Springfield's birthday. Dancing and music were the entertainment of the evening. Candle lights on the beautiful birthday cake presented Miss Springfield were blown out before the candle could be counted. There were not many.

Fined on Woman's Complaint
John Simms, 35, 4343 Evans avenue, was fined $15 and costs by Judge Ehler on a disorderly conduct charge preferred by Mrs. Sarah Miller, 4225 Evans avenue.

Bahai services Sunday at 3:30
p. m. in St. John hall, Masonic temple. Albert Vail's subject will be: "How the Soul is Reborn."

Entertains Memphians
Mrs. Ella Williams, 4644 Indian avenue, entertained Wednesday evening with a party, honoring Mrs. George Duncan, Mrs. Larnie Ford, Mrs. Roberta Edmondson and Mrs. Fowler of Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. Lovie Carey of St. Louis, Mo., and L. Wilson, Youngstown, Ohio.

The Majors Return
Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Majors, 4450 Prairie avenue, returned to the city Sunday from Nashville, Tenn., after an absence of three weeks. Dr. Majors had been away from Meharry Medical college in Nashville for 36 years. They were the recipients of many receptions and dinners given in their honor by many prominent people of Nashville and Franklin.

Struck by Auto
Mrs. Sadie Varnum, 42, 4333 Evans avenue, suffered internal injuries late Wednesday afternoon when she was struck by a southbound auto while crossing Drexel boulevard from the east to the west side at 43d street. The car was owned and driven by Lee Laney (white), 5522 Calumet avenue. Mrs. Varnum, unassisted, made her way home.

Falls in Street
A man who gave his name to Officers Stackowski and Kane of the Stockyards police station as A. Sheldon, 45 years old, 4740 State street, suffered lacerations about the head when he fell from the street at 10th and Wallace streets, Saturday afternoon. He was taken to his home.

Wants to Fight Officer
According to the testimony offered by Officer Fred Grant, Miss Mary Clark, 2510 Dearborn street, defied him to arrest her and offered to fight with him by Queensberry rules. She was fined $10 and costs.

Dependent on Pullman Company
Claiming that he was 75 per cent dependent on the Pullman company for support, George Williams, alias Joe Smith, with no home, was arrested by Special Officer Walter Clark of the Pullman company for stealing sheets. He was sentenced to 60 days in the house of correction and fined $10 and costs. This is the seventh conviction for Williams for purloining Pullman goods.

Pickpockets Fined
In the recent clean-up for pickpockets Officers Oliver and Johnston arrested Jerry Russell, 2501 Wabash avenue, and William Lett, 325 Wabash avenue. Judge Howard Hayes fined Russell $25 and costs, while Lett drew a fine of $50 and costs.

Nab Boy Holdups
While traveling their beat, Officers Howland and Abbott caught George Rollins, 23, 2905 State street, and William Smith, 18, 2611 Dearborn street, as they were holding up Harold Summers, 2527 West 25th place. Each of the boys were fined $200 and costs by Judge McKinley of the boys' court.

Moves to Suburb
Mrs. Minnie Hill, 3445 South Dearborn street, has secured a beautiful cottage on 109th place and Throop street, Morgan Park. Mrs. Hill has taken up her permanent residence in this beautiful suburb.

J. J. Miles Returns
J. J. Miles, 3645 Giles avenue, who spent some time in Iowa after attending the grand army encampment at Des Moines, has returned to the city much pleased with his trip.

William Gates Goes South
William Gates left during the week for an extended trip South through Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Mrs. Prince Addresses Club
Mrs. L. F. Prince of St. Joseph, Mo., who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Luggie, 2963 Prairie avenue, delivered a fine address to the members and friends of the Carter Charity and Benevolent club on Oct. 4 at the residence of Mrs. Mary Womack, 3012 Vernon avenue. Her subject was "A Program and a Budget." Several others spoke and complimented the splendid address made by Mrs. Prince.

May Address New Yorkers
M. T. Bailey, president of the Alumni association of the Virginia Normal and Industrial institute of Petersburg, Va., has been invited to deliver an address in Newburg, N. Y.

Californians Stop En Route
Misses Ethel and Marguerite James of Los Angeles, Calif., were the guests of Mrs. M. E. Britton, 2550 Dearborn street, a few days during the week en route to their home after a visit with relatives and friends at Xenia, Oxford and Cincinnati, Ohio. They returned to the far West delighted with their trip.

Attorney Farmer Speaks
Attorney Walter M. Farmer delivered an address before the Christian Endeavor of Quinn chapel last Sunday afternoon on "Patriotism." Attorney Farmer is an interesting speaker and his remarks were very inspiring to the large audience. Mrs. Cora B. Giddens is president of the endeavor and Miss Alma Edwards, secretary.

Fractures Leg.
As he was attempting to cross the street at 46th and State streets, Joseph Himes, 11, 4516 State street, was struck by an automobile. He was carried to the county hospital suffering with a fractured leg.

Pays for Assault.
Hoisey Jackson, 23, 727 East 10th street, engaged in an argument with Joe Jackson, 4022 Cottage Grove avenue, because he objected to Joe telephoning to Miss Kittle Mason, 709 Bowen avenue. Hoisey sought to impress Joe by inflicting several knife wounds. All three were arrested by Sergeant Michael Hurley. Hoisey was fined $50 and costs, while the other two were discharged.

Little Girl Injured.
Little 13-year-old Dora Marie Owens, 5 East 51st street, was carried to the South Side hospital suffering with injuries she received when she was struck by an automobile at 51st street.

Woman Uses Knife.
While quarreling with Mrs. Marie Houston, Mrs. Ollie Black, 24, was cut by her three times with a knife. The women live at 3525 Indiana avenue. Mrs. Black would give no information as to the trouble.

Internally Injured.
After being struck by an automobile at 43d street and Drexel boulevard, Mrs. Sadie Varnum, 42, 4333 Evans avenue, complained of being hurt internally. She is confined to her home.

Steals Diamond Rings.
Albert Boone, a railroad porter from St. Paul, Minn., pleaded guilty to stealing two diamond rings and $61 from a passenger on a Pullman car and was sentenced to one year in the house of correction by Judge John F. Hans. He was arrested by Special Officer Walter Clark after he had kept the rings secreted for over three months.

Has Still in Home.
The scent of moonshine whisky led Officers Oscar Ridley and W. D. Williams to go to the home of Louis Hunter, 3556 Elmwood avenue, where they found a still. Hunter was fined $50 and costs after he had pleaded guilty of making moonshine.

Steals Crate of Chickens.
They always ascertained that they were "springers" before they would take the chickens, was the statement offered by Earl Frison, 3332 Giles avenue, who, with James Cobb, 3212 Ella avenue, and Jesse Sandberry, were arrested by Officers Oliver and Johnston for stealing a crate of chickens from Sol Rosenfield, 3720 Cottage Grove avenue.

Crazy Drunk.
A crowd of people at 35th and State streets stopped to watch the antics of Samuel Carroll, who was trying to climb the police patrol box. When Officer James Majors came to the box to pull, he found his prisoner waiting for him. Carroll had his pockets full of sticks, which he thought was money.

Held to Grand Jury.
Robert Topp, 344 State street, who was arrested by Sergeants Middleton and Harper of the defective bureau, was identified by Warren Kelth, 2302 State street, as the man who had held him up with a gun and taken $4 from him. Judge John Hans held Topp to the grand jury under $2,000 bonds.

Injured Alighting from Car
An automobile which ran up to close to a State street car as the passengers were getting off of the car knocked down and injured Henry Willis, 30, 2639 Federal street. He suffered a fractured ankle.

Accidentally Killed
While walking on the tracks of the I. C. railroad between 12th and 13th streets, Edward L. Cooper, 30, 3913 Calumet avenue, a railroad porter, was instantly killed when he was run down by an engine of a suburban train. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

Have Potomac Poisoning
Mrs. Willie Collins, 33, 1826 Federal street, and her baby were carried to the County hospital after both had been taken suddenly ill. They showed symptoms of potomac poisoning. Mrs. Collins stated that she had partaken of a portion of canned beans.

Injured Riding Horse
An automobile ran down and injured William Askew, 21, 2224 Graves court, as he was driving a horse. Askew is confined at the Provident hospital suffering from his injuries.

Shows Signs of Insanity
After showing signs of insanity Mrs. Dena Thomas, 26, 3547 State street, and Thomas Holey, 34, 3706 Giles avenue, were carried to the Psychopathic hospital to be kept under observation.

Sent to County Hospital
The following persons were sent to the County hospital this week: Anna Carr, 57, 1105 State street; James Crockett, 23, 215 State street; Napoleon Wright, 19, 5709 Grove avenue; Mrs. Bertha Hill, 59, 2827 Vincennes avenue; Mrs. Myra Anderson, 43, 537 East 31st street; Mrs. Iona Merrill, 23, 4629 Vincennes avenue; Mrs. Lella Anderson, 37, 4755 Evans avenue; John Williams, 25, 2823 La Salle street, and Mrs. Cornelia Coleman, 22, 2972 Federal street.

Injured in Collision
When a Ford truck on which she was riding collided with an automobile at 21st street and Prairie avenue, Miss Julia Poynter, 20, 5619 Vincennes avenue, was painfully cut on the forehead and sustained other bruises.

Cuts Wrist Badly
According to the police, Mrs. Alice Guffee, 23, 2622 Prairie avenue, was intoxicated when she fell down in a vacant lot in the rear of 2733 Michigan avenue. Her screams attracted the attention of passers-by. She was carried to the County hospital suffering with a badly lacerated wrist.

Passengers Injured
Two persons who were passengers in Yellow cabs were injured this week when the cabs collided with other automobiles. Mrs. Ethel Williams, 22, 3115 Prairie avenue, was injured when her cab collided with an auto at 31st street and Indiana avenue. Robert Logan, 21, 3540 Michigan avenue, was carried to Provident hospital suffering with injuries he received when the cab in which he was riding collided with an auto at 31st street and Michigan avenue.

Jessamine Club Reception.
The Clara Jessamine Charity club entertained with a reception and installation of officers last Friday evening at the Phyllis Wheatley parlors, 3556 Rhodes avenue. A splendid musical program was rendered and a dramatic reading given by Solomon Bruce. Mrs. Bertha Hensley read a paper on the early history of the club, after which the following officers were installed by Mrs. Elizabeth Hensley Davis: Mrs. Rachel Cross, president; Mrs. Corinne Engleton, vice-president; Mrs. Marie Hedges, secretary; Mrs. Johnson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fannie Bowers, treasurer, and Mrs. Sadie Adams, parliamentarian. More than 100 guests were present during the evening, and many beautiful gowns were worn.

The Rev. Bannall in City.
Robert W. Bannall, director of branches of the N. A. A. C. P., is in the city this week, stopping at the Y. W. C. A.

Implicates Other Man.
Percy Robinson, who was arrested by Sergeants Costella and O'Leary at 202 Division street, St. Louis, Mo., and brought back to Chicago on a charge of having murdered Mrs. Morris Greenberg, 3418 West 15th street, has implicated Ben Delmore Goff, 4727 Federal street, as having helped him commit the crime.

Not Guilty of Murder.
His claim of self-defense won an acquittal for Joseph Stewart, who was placed on trial for the murder of Clyde Glenn, who died from stab wounds inflicted by Stewart. The men had quarreled over Miss Ollie Montgomery when all three lived at 3512 LaSalle street.

Purchases Building.
Mr. and Mrs. William S. Brown, 121 East 37th street, have purchased the apartment building located at 5232 Prairie avenue. They moved into their new home last week.

Returns From Convention.
Joseph R. B. Glover, 3133 Prairie avenue, has returned from Houston, Texas, where he has been attending the Landowners' National convention. En route home he spent a day in St. Louis visiting friends.

Bowman's Entertain Cousin.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bowman, 528 East 42d place, entertained Oct. 8 in honor of their cousin, Mrs. Anna Smock of Los Angeles, who they have not seen for a number of years. The Bowman family and a few friends were present. Mrs. Smock will visit Kentucky, Ohio and other points before returning home.

Goes South to School.
Miss Dolly Thomas, daughter of Mrs. E. M. Thomas, 3253 Indiana avenue, has enrolled as a student at the Phillander Smith college, Little Rock, Ark.

Dies From Blow.
Bennie L. Gray, 33, 5234 Prairie avenue, came home from his work Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock. He lived in the second apartment of the building, but had no key to the front door. He thought that someone of the household was probably home and he pressed the door bell button. No response came. A key is usually hidden in the rear and Gray started for it. He was leaving the porch when a part of a stone ceiling fell and struck him on the head, fracturing his skull. The injured man was attended at his home by Dr. Herbert Turner, 3658 State street, but died in a few hours. He was a former employee of the postoffice. Just at his death he was shipping clerk for the town and County Shop at East Ohio street and Michigan avenue. He moved into the Prairie avenue apartment two weeks ago.

Music Lovers Pack Bethel.
A wonderful audience inspiring in its magnitude packed Bethel last Sunday night. The choir never sang more sweetly than on this occasion, directed by James A. Mundy, with Cleo M. Dickerson at the organ. Mary E. Jones and Laura Hoffman were soloists in one of the anthems. Mrs. Sophia Pulley and Mrs. Bertha Grady rendered sensitive songs. Herbert G. Carter sang "There is No Death" and Frank Cost were, tenor from the West side. "How Beautiful Are Thy Gardens." Reese's Harmony quartette from the West side were soloists in "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Mrs. C. I. Fligg answered in an original reading and Gilbert Mundy in a violin solo. Cassius Fligg conducted the program.

Receives Big Fine.
The next time that Mrs. Elsie Green, 3320 Giles avenue, goes visiting, she will not stay so late. Edward Brown, 3204 Prairie avenue, stated that she staid at his rooming place after everyone else had gone to bed. He caught her as she was taking her hand from under his pillow. Her hand held $36 and a watch valued at $37. Judge John F. Hans fined her $73 and costs.

Shoots Man in Shoulder.
The sound of shots attracted the attention of motorists as they were passing 35th street and Grand boulevard. Officers Oscar Ridley and W. D. Williams arrest Charlie Jackson, 2261 South Park avenue, and Robert Davis, 3158 Wabash avenue. They were identified by Clarence Hunt, 18, who stated that he lived at 4323 Evans avenue, as the men who had shot him. Each of the men were held to the grand jury under $2,000 bonds.

Uses Vase as Weapon.
With lacerations over her eye and a deep wound on her forehead, Mrs. Fannie Plaine, 59, 3319 State street, told the police that she had been struck over the head with a vase. She stated that she was quarreling with William Span, 3600 Cottage Grove avenue, when he struck her. Span has not been apprehended.

Cut Over 5 Cents.
Mrs. Annie Bradford, 25, was severely cut about the body when she engaged in a quarrel with Mrs. Anna Covan. According to Officer James Majors, who had been assigned to the case, the women engaged in an argument over a nickel. They both reside at 3506 State street.

Arm Useless for Life.
While engaged in a quarrel with John Crowley at 34d street and Wabash avenue, Carl Knox lost the use of his arm for life when Crowley plunged a pair of scissors into them. The scissors penetrated two inches into the muscles of the arm.

Receive Creditable Mention.
In accordance with the recommendation of Captain J. B. Enright, creditable mention is given to Sergeant Joseph Hereth, Officers Dawe, Callahan, Cullinan and Leonard, and Policewomen Grace Wilson, Mabel Rockwell and Julia Cunningham for the efficiency and ardently displayed by them for the arrest of the last of the "Black Knights." Ira J. Newson, Sergeant Andrew J. Lavin, in the absence of Lieutenant John McCann, recommended creditable mention for Officers O'Brien, Savage and Hennecke for apprehending Dave McDuel and Henry Ross, after they had held up and robbed a drug store.

McClure Entertains.
On Sunday, a week ago, Mrs. Melissa E. McClure, 6514 Evans avenue, entertained with a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Netta Brown of Toledo, Ohio. Those present were: Mrs. Katie Harris, Mrs. A. A. Wells, Mrs. L. A. Avendorph, Mrs. Carl, Mrs. McGhee, Mrs. Lewis of Indianapolis, Ind., and Joseph Moore. Mrs. McClure, as usual, proved herself a charming hostess.

Mrs. Netta Brown in City.
Mrs. Netta Brown, mother of Mrs. A. A. Wells and formerly of Chicago, but now of Toledo, Ohio, has been in the city for seven weeks, during which time she divided her stay between her niece, Mrs. Florence Davis, 5734 Wabash avenue; Mrs. L. French, 3104 Giles avenue; the Rev. John W. Robinson and Mrs. A. A. Wells. She is spending the week-end with Mrs. Mary Johnson, 5227 Wabash avenue, another niece.

Motor Party to Joliet.
On last Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Julius N. Avendorph and son, Frederick, motored to Joliet, Ill., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dunham. Sight-seeing was the feature during the afternoon.

Celebrates 20th Anniversary.
Inadvertently left out: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Evans, 417 East 42d place, celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary on Wednesday evening, Oct. 4. Several close friends were present and the evening was spent socially.

Defender Family Increases.
The Chicago Defender's happy family increased to the extent of one, Wednesday morning, with the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butler, 5819 Grove avenue. Mr. Butler, one of the oldest employees, in point of service, on the Defender staff, is circulation manager. Mrs. Butler was a resident of Philadelphia until the time of her marriage in 1921. Her mother, a mistress of the Quaker city, was present at the time of the child's birth. Naturally, the Defender staff pulled out stogies Wednesday.

Says He Was Robbed
William Bell, 3003 Indiana avenue, complained to Officers Randall and O'Leary that he had been robbed of $9.50 by Roy Smith, 2523 Wabash avenue, and Andrew Hamcock, 2541 Wabash avenue. He claimed that the men held a knife on him and robbed him in the shadow of a church.

Takes Aeroplane Flight
After Miss Resette Coleman, aviatrix, had put on an exhibition with her aeroplane Sunday afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Reynolds, 4202 Langley avenue, was so well pleased that she decided she would take a spin in Miss Coleman's plane. She was the only woman on the field to fly with Miss Coleman. So impressed was Miss Reynolds that she is going in training to be an aviatrix as soon as arrangements can be perfected with Miss Coleman. A Hampton, manufacturer of extracts and proprietor of a cigar store, 705 East 43rd street, is also going to join the aviation class, being anxious to become a dare-devil of the air. When he completes his course he plans making a trip with Miss Reynolds in her aeroplane.

Gives Luncheon for Mother
A luncheon was given by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Davis, 3359 South Park avenue, Sunday, Oct. 15, in honor of Mr. Davis' mother, Mrs. Clara Gilliam, who is visiting here en route to California. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Brutus Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Summers, Mesdames Sarah Hammond, G. Clark Rose Wyche, Blanche Carr and W. Harris. Music was furnished by Mrs. Summers, pianist, and Allen Davis, saxophone. An enjoyable evening was spent by all.