

Taylor, Alexander O
The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Aug 30, 1924;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender
pg. A9

THE BUCKEYE STATE

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
Cleveland Office, 2398 E. 55th St.
Phone Randolph 969

Cleveland Briefs

The Rev. J. S. Edwards of Bortah, Pa., was the guest of the Rev. A. Hawkins of Friendship Baptist church last week.

Attorney H. S. Chauncey and wife returned from a delightful touring trip East and South visiting Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York, Savannah, Ga., his home, and Tuskegee, Ala. He was given a big ovation in his home town. His brother, McKimney Chauncey, accompanied them.

Attorney Louise J. Fridgeon and Miss Edith Wright, assistant executive secretary of the Phyllis Wheatley, returned from a three weeks' vacation in Chicago and Detroit.

Dr. M. L. Crawford is attending the National Medical association meeting in Hampton, Va., after which he will visit in Jacksonville, Fla., and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Robinson, 231 E. 80th St., entertained at dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Whiting, Haverhill, Mass.

C. E. Jackson of the Jackson newspaper, one of the best and leading papers of The Chicago Defender, has been ill again, but is improving. His wife continues to improve after her operation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ingram, Morristown Ave., motored to Beulah Park Sunday to attend the annual camp meeting of the Christian Alliance. They had as guests Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hicks, E. 50th St.

Antioch Baptist church plans a big program in their new community house on the church property at 24th and Central. Miss Myrtle Wiggins, formerly of the musical department of the P. W. A., and Mrs. Archie Thurston are among the workers already secured. The Rev. Mack T. Williams already has made remarkable progress in seeing that Antioch is again on its former basis.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Murrell of the Empire bank had as guest John Goode, one of the leading citizens of Cincinnati. They motored to Buffalo and the Falls with Mrs. Murrell's brother.

Mrs. Lillian Douglas, Mrs. Lucy Thornton, alto saxophonist; Mrs. Rebecca Powell of the Quaker City Female band, Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Charles Grasty, corresponding secretary of the Allen C. E. league, Philadelphia conference, passed through the city Sunday en route to Pittsburgh, Pa., to attend the Elks' national meeting. Mme. Abbie Johnson is leader of the band.

Patrolmen John Jones and Horace Jenkins, accompanied by Clarence Davis and John Hodge, motored to Pittsburgh last week to attend the Shriners and Templars convolve. Mr. Hodge is a member of the Masonic band which made a great impression on the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Brent Stewart, Blaine Ave., motored to Columbus for their vacation.

Mrs. James Smith was buried from Antioch Baptist church last week. She died from an operation for cancer. Mrs. Smith, well known as Mrs. Berry of Blaine Ave., became the bride of Mr. Smith only two months ago.

Dr. Armen G. Evans, 7102 Central Ave., was signally honored with the appointment of demonstrator of children's diseases at the babies' dispensary on E. 35th St. The doctor has been speaking in children's diseases the past three years, making good. The appointment is under the supervision of Western Reserve university.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Acey H. Harraison, 2500 E. 33d St., a fine son. Mother and son doing nicely. Mr. Harraison is treasurer and general superintendent of the Hope Aid and Relief association.

The Rev. T. W. Woodson, presiding elder, preached at St. John's church Sunday and the Rev. E. C. Bailey in the evening. The Lord's Supper was administered. Both delivered soul-stirring sermons.

Ellsworth Gamble, teacher of athletics in the public schools at Cincinnati, Ohio, arrived in the city last week, expecting to locate here. His wife accompanied him.

The Lafayette Players starred in "Twin Beds" at the Globe last week. The stars were Charles Olden, William Babe Townsend, Hilda Simpson, Theresa Brooks, Rupert Monk, and Clarence Muse. The Georgia Minstrels are the bill at that popular playhouse this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dean recovered their auto at 53d and Woodland, minus their extra balloon tire.

The Rev. C. Lee Jefferson visited his brother in Missouri, returning to Cleveland via Chicago. His wife is visiting her parents in New Jersey.

Attorney Fugett has located in Youngstown, Ohio.

Clevelanders had as guests in a touring party from Covington, Ky., last week, en route to Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. Elizabeth Peppers, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lackey and little son, Mrs. May Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and little son, John Maurice Price. They attended the Shriners convolve.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dorecy, E. 55th St., had as guests Mrs. Lillian Swan and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ferguson, Sandusky, Ohio.

Master J. Cyril Crawford, Knowlton Ave., left Monday with the Cedar "Y" camp boys on their camping tour to Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Skidmore Blumer and son, Evan S., motored through Cleveland from Buffalo and the Falls en route to their home, Louisville, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Will Davis accompanied them. While in Cleveland they called on G. L. Cheatham of the Anchor Life.

Mrs. Ida H. Walker, St. Joseph, Mo., ex-president of the Federation of Women's Club of Missouri, is in the city as guest of her niece, Mrs. Bertha A. Welch, 2319 E. 83d St. A party was given by Mrs. Welch in honor of her aunt Saturday afternoon, which was attended by members of the Research and other clubs. Mrs. Walker was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Mansfield, St. Louis, Mo., on a motor trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Louisa S. Jones, E. 101st St., entertained delightfully at an indoor picnic, attended by members of the Hlawatha, Research and T. E. C. clubs. Mr. Jones gave interesting views of their recent trip to France.

G. L. Cheatham, president of the Anchor Life and Hope Aid insurance company, attended the meeting of the National Negro Business league in Chicago last week.

Councilman and Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming left Saturday for Pittsburg to attend the Elks' convention. While there they are guests of Attorney and Mrs. W. H. Stanton. Mr. Fleming's slogan is "On to Cleveland" in 1925.

Mrs. Harde Fairfax, one of our pioneer club women, attended the Women's Federation meeting in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Edmondson and daughter, Miss Mary, are moving into their recently purchased home, 2217 E. 93d St.

Mrs. Amanda Taylor, E. 37th St., was called to Detroit, Mich., to attend the funeral of her youngest brother, William N. Hawkins, who died after two years' illness. He leaves a wife and daughter, Miss Myrtle, a teacher in the public schools of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Smith composed a very pleasing touring party passing through Cleveland to and from Buffalo and the Falls enroute to Pittsburgh to attend the Elks' convention. While in the city they stopped with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jordan, 2160 E. 86th St. Mr. Hughes is president of the Domestic Life of Louisville, Ky., and Mr. Smith is proprietor of a large warehouse. The party also attended the National Negro Business league meet in Chicago.

Alcade Bromley, Monroe, Mich., passed through the city Saturday enroute to New Jersey to become the groom on one of the state's leading ladies. He left his little daughter, Muriel, here for a visit with her uncle and aunt, Major and Mrs. W. T. Anderson.

Garrett A. Morgan and several others have purchased the Wakeman Country, near Oberlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dempsey, Bellefontaine, Ohio, are guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. R. Buford, 2173 E. 75th St.

Dr. and Mrs. Harris are locating on E. 57th St. Mrs. Harris arrived last week from Buffalo.

Mrs. Charles Arter of the St. John's apartments arrived Sunday from Carlisle, Pa., where she has been visiting the past five weeks.

Clevelanders had as guests this week T. Thomas and wife, Mrs. Rosa Thomas, grand lecturer of the O. E. S. of the District of Columbia Jurisdiction, Washington, D. C. They are on a motor trip, stopping at 2259 E. 85th St.

Mrs. Harvey Atkins, E. 82d St., was hostess to the Present Day club Aug. 19. The next meeting, Sept. 2, will be with Mrs. Luther Bailey, 2174 E. 103d St. This will be program day.

Miss Niele Cummings returned from Chicago after spending three weeks. She will visit her brother, General Cummings, 7717 Central Ave., before returning to her home in Hessemer, Ala. She is a teacher at Tuskegee Institute.

Wade Watts, 2341 E. 65th St., was taken to the hospital very ill.

Miss Frances Hilliard, 7717 Central Ave., is visiting her aunt in Chicago.

L. Hillmond, 2339 E. 65th St., died last Friday at the ripe old age of 86 years, leaving a widow with whom he had lived 46 years.

Harry E. Davis, our candidate for state representative received the third largest number of votes in a list of 90 candidates. He has received the nomination for state representative for the third consecutive time and always stands at the head of the list in Cuyahoga county. Hon. Harry E. Smith received over 13,000 votes for governor in the city, nearly 15,000 in the state. Attorney Chester Gillespie got 7,000 votes and made a good run. S. E. Woods for state representative and George Shanklin of Springfield for lieutenant governor made fair showings.

A. O. TAYLOR