

igan, where they visited Woodland Beach, Idlewild and Whitehall, the latter being the home of Mrs. Davis' mother. Among those entertaining for them during their stay were Dr. and Mrs. Martin Hoyle of E. 82d St. They left for their home Friday evening after an enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Whiting of E. 82d St. are seen driving a very beautiful new sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cochran of the National Benefit Life are spending their vacation in Denver, Col., with Mr. Cochran's parents.

The many friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Moore will be pleased to learn that she is expected home from the hospital this week.

Mrs. G. W. Williams, wife of Rev. Williams, New Brighton, Pa., accompanied by Dallas Saunders, student at Wilberforce university, was a recent guest of Mrs. W. A. Smith and sister Miss Osceola Victor, 6535 Carnegie Ave.

Rev. D. O. Walker, pastor of St. James' A. M. E. church, is spending his vacation in the east, having attended the Elks' convention as a delegate from King Tut lodge. He visited other cities en route, stopping off in Buffalo on his return for a lecture. He will be in his pulpit Sunday.

J. C. Hudson, secretary of the Starlight Realty company, motored to Canada in his new Dodge sedan with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Maria Nesbitt, and sister-in-law, Miss Iva Nesbitt, one of our popular school teachers, as his guests. His children, Esther, Sarah and Janet, are closing their vacation season at the P. W. A. Camp Merriam, Lorain, Ohio.

John A. Lewis, a prosperous farmer of Humboldt, Tenn., has returned home after a very pleasant three weeks visit with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lewis, of E. 128th St. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gaines of Greenlawn Ave., report a delightful motor trip to Idlewild, Mich., and return. They had as guests for the trip Mr. and Mrs. Turner of E. 80th St.

Rev. Walter C. Wells and wife of Chicago, Ill., are visitors in Cleveland. Old friends are glad to see the reverend, and old Cleveland boy.

Among the most attractive visitors in Cleveland during the summer are the Misses Alice and Lucy Chiles of Richmond, Va., popular Washington, D. C., school teachers, who are in the city for a few days en route home. They have been visiting in Chicago, Idlewild and Detroit. They were the recipients of many social courtesies.

Professor Arthur Taylor, principal of one of the Xenia schools, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Sarah Chambers.

Mrs. John H. Early of Bryant Ave., had as her guests her father, Thomas Patterson, and his niece, Miss Vera Patterson, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Lucinda Byrd of Lima, Ohio, is the house guest of Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Hodges, 224 E. 89th St. Mr. Hodges is leaving soon for Atlanta, Ga., to resume his studies at Gammon Theological seminary.

The Vastiki class will hold its first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Ethel Simone, 2249 E. 84th St. Friday, Sept. 2.

Mrs. Emma Wilder, 2122 E. 46th St., has as guests for several days Mrs. James Spears and James Spears of Orem, Mich. Mrs. Wilder reports a delightful visit to Chicago.

Miss Julia Mae Randolph, niece of Mrs. H. West of E. 128th St., is spending part of her vacation with her mother, Mrs. Isora Randolph, in Ashtabula Harbor, Ohio.

Misses Fay and Bernice Crowler of Lucia Ave., spent the week-end with Misses Sarah and Frances Redd of Corlett.

Dr. and Mrs. Perry of Kansas City, Mo., passed through the city en route home from the medical convention in Detroit, and were guests of Dr. Lambrecht.

One of the most pleasing visitors in the city the past few days was Mrs. William Davis of Springfield, Ohio, who was the guest of Mrs. Milton Poole, 2259 E. 81st St.

The Thurman W. & T. U. held their annual picnic at the residence of Mrs. C. Harris, 2265 E. 103d St.

Mrs. Stella Hunter, prominent business woman of Cedar Ave., and Mrs. Richard Miller of E. 82d St., left for a three weeks' vacation to Sodus Point, N. Y. They stopped with Mrs. Mattie Rogers, sister of Mrs. Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and little daughter, Isabelle, motored over in their new car from Geneva, N. Y., as the weekend guests of Mrs. Rogers.

Mrs. Ada Walker, formerly of Cleveland but now of Detroit, Mich., spent a few days in the city as the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Gist, 2225 E. 61st St.

Attorney Alexander H. Martin attended the Elks' convention in New York, after which he visited Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia, arriving home the latter part of the week.

Miss Inez Samons, 224 E. 93d St., one of our most promising young girls, graduated from Longwood Commerce high school with a good record and accepted a temporary position as stenographer with the National Benefit Life insurance company in the Central Medical building. It is hoped that Miss Samons will be retained permanently, as she is very deserving.

The wedding of Miss Emma Howell, the popular welfare worker, and Esael Baugher, will take place Saturday, Sept. 2, invitations having been received by many friends.

Little Miss Mary Webster, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Webster of E. 23d St., accompanied her cousin, Miss Noirene West, to Pittsburgh, Pa., for a two weeks' visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Julia Webster.

Miss Irene Dean, 6702 Belvidere Ave., entertained at a porch party Thursday honoring Mrs. Emma Clay and Mrs. William Byrd of Springfield, Ohio. Miss Dean proved a very delightful hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen H. Dorsey of E. 81st St., had the pleasure of the company of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Roots of Covington, Ky., and Prof. and Mrs. Robert Yancey, Cincinnati, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Roots being motor guests of Prof. and Mrs. Yancey. Mr. Roots is clerk in the Cincinnati post office and Prof. Yancey was formerly principal of William Grant high school in Covington, having just recently resigned.

Miss Sarah Atwater, who has been visiting her mother in Uniontown, Ala., has returned to spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. P. H. White.

Dr. W. B. Hatcher of Chicago was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bessie Parham, 2225 E. 79th St., en route to the convention of the National Medical association in Detroit, Mich.

Clevelanders take great pleasure in welcoming to the city Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Mulrow and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Reader of Cincinnati, Ohio. They have taken over one of the newly fitted suites of J. W. Willis & Co., at 2525-2529 Central Ave. Messrs. Mulrow and Reader are trainmen on the Big Four between Cleveland and Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Junius Robinson, 8214 Cedar Ave., are spending their vacation with relatives in the East. They are motoring in their new roadster, spending a short time in Washington, D. C., Hewlett and Richmond, Va., and returning through New York City, Mr. Robinson's home town for a number of years.

Prof. and Mrs. J. D. Baltimore, Washington, D. C., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. McNaughton for the past three weeks, left the city Monday for Marion, Ohio, to visit relatives. While here Mrs. Baltimore was the recipient of many social attentions, many functions being given in their honor. She was greatly admired and was presented with a number of beautiful gifts.

Rev. James E. Brown of E. 85th St., is spending her vacation in Idlewild and Detroit, Mich.

Miss Bessie McCurry, 2529 E. 73d St., left Wednesday for New York to take up nurse's training at the Bellevue Allied hospital.

Miss Verna Gorman of E. 85th St. proved a very charming hostess at an informal party to a few friends Sunday afternoon. Her friends were greatly disappointed because they thought this would be the formal announcement affair. Dame Rumor says wedding bells are to ring in the very near future, however.

Miss Pearlle Brown of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of Miss Cora Pearl Hogan, 2230 E. 49th St. Miss Hogan, who is one of the most active members of St. John's gospel choir, is to accompany Miss Brown home for an indefinite stay, Nashville being her native home. St. John's will miss her greatly.

Mrs. Earl D. Jones of Garfield Ave. was able to be out Sunday for the first time since her operation. Her many friends were glad to see her.

The Rosa Budd Missionary society gave its annual banquet in St. John's church Wednesday evening. The special guests were Rev. and Mrs. Hodges and Rev. E. P. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford, 2318 E. 89th St., had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brannam, Miss Eliza Martin and Lewis Meadows of Detroit, Mich. Mr. Brannam is in charge of Henry Ford's private car. Mrs. Crawford entertained friends in their guests' honor on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bettam Washington were hosts at a theater party at Keith's Palace followed by a Chinese luncheon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Reynolds of Kansas City, last Friday evening.

Mrs. James Offer is visiting her sister in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. William Coleman have returned to Cleveland from Buffalo to reside again. They are stopping with Mrs. Ellen Jackson, 10512 Hudson Ave. Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Reynolds and daughter, Josephine Carroll, who motored here last month to visit relatives and friends, were delightfully entertained while in the city. They left Wednesday morning, visiting in Plaquemine, Anderson, Ind., and Indianapolis, on their way home.

Mrs. Sarah Cyrus Exum and Mrs. Esther Cyrus Hawthorne, Youngtown, Ohio, were visitors in the city last week. They stopped with their aunt, Mrs. P. Hyde of Cory Ave.

Bishop C. H. Phillips was to return this week from New York, where he attended the Pan-African congress, to which he was a delegate.

The Misses Regina and Genevieve Ernest left the city Friday for New Orleans, their home.

Miss Arline Payne, musical director at the Globe theater, had a very pleasant surprise when a touring party from St. Louis, Mo., paid her a visit. In the party were Mrs. William Blue and daughter, Miss Lillian Blue and Miss Marion Douglas and chauffeur. Both young ladies are prominent school teachers of St. Louis. After leaving Cleveland the party returned to St. Louis by way of Chicago, having spent several weeks touring Canada and other points, including New York, Washington, D. C. and Atlantic City, where the son of Mrs. Blue, William Blue, Jr., is spending the summer. The party has been en route since June.

A motor party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fairfax, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blue, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Reynolds of Kansas City, and Miss Bertha Blue, were guests at the Lee estate in Chagrin Falls Tuesday.

Mrs. Lena Checks Shehee of Tuskegee, Ala., spent the past week in the city as the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. N. Checks of Mt. Overlook Rd. She left Saturday for Erie, Pa., to visit her brother, Dr. C. E. Checks, and will visit other eastern points before returning to Tuskegee. She was accompanied to Erie by her sister, Miss Henrietta Checks. A party was given in her honor at the Checks home on Thursday.

Mrs. Claybourne George entertained at dinner for Dr. Charles H. Garvin Sunday. Mrs. Garvin is still in Charlottesville, Va., assisting in closing up the affairs of her deceased father, who was reputed to be quite wealthy.

Councilman and Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming returned from New York where they attended the Elks' convention. Mrs. Fleming also attended the Eastern Star meeting in Newark, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming were also guests at the convention in Detroit. In fact they have been on the go ever since returning from Saturday for Erie, Pa., to visit her brother, Dr. C. E. Checks, and will visit other eastern points before returning to Tuskegee. She was accompanied to Erie by her sister, Miss Henrietta Checks. A party was given in her honor at the Checks home on Thursday.

Mrs. Claybourne George entertained at dinner for Dr. Charles H. Garvin Sunday. Mrs. Garvin is still in Charlottesville, Va., assisting in closing up the affairs of her deceased father, who was reputed to be quite wealthy.

Councilman and Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming returned from New York where they attended the Elks' convention. Mrs. Fleming also attended the Eastern Star meeting in Newark, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming were also guests at the convention in Detroit. In fact they have been on the go ever since returning from Saturday for Erie, Pa., to visit her brother, Dr. C. E. Checks, and will visit other eastern points before returning to Tuskegee. She was accompanied to Erie by her sister, Miss Henrietta Checks. A party was given in her honor at the Checks home on Thursday.

An interesting feature of the recent motor trip South of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. White was the reception given in their honor in Uniontown, Ala., by the Sunset Social club of that city. It was attended by over 300 persons and was said to be the largest and most brilliant social affair ever given in that city. Many of the old friends of the family were present from neighboring towns, including Selma, Marion, Gretna, and Demopolis, Ala. The affair was unique in that this was the first time the entire families were together. Mrs. H. E. Hudson, mother of Mrs. W. T. White, entertained at a motor party to Tuskegee and Montgomery.

Miss Lu Verne Gregory, teacher of languages in the high school at Washington, D. C., is in the city for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Francis Gregory, and brothers, Francis and Monroe, of E. 81st St., and her grandmother, Mrs. Burdine. Miss Gregory has a host of friends whom she has won by her charming personality. Her success as a teacher since graduating from the Women's college of Western Reserve university, has been phenomenal. The many friends of the family will be pleased to learn that Mr. Gregory, who sustained a major fracture several weeks ago in an auto accident while returning from his duties as teacher in summer school, will be able to resume his position in Miner Normal school, Washington, D. C. when school opens.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Smith motored to Cleveland from Buffalo, N. Y., and were the guests of Mrs. Sheats, 2159 E. 84th St. Mr. Smith is a member of Captain Wainack's Algerians, who played so wonderfully at the dance in Cleveland on Monday, Aug. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Waldon of E. 93d St., are seen driving their new sedan. Mr. and Mrs. Walden are the owners of the well known orchestra bearing their name.

R. W. Chamblee, formerly general manager of the Atlanta Life insurance company, Atlanta, Ga., but now of the Century Life, Little Rock, Ark., motored through the city and spent two days, stopping at the Majestic hotel. Mr. Chamblee visited his old friend W. H. King, general manager of the Anchor Life insurance company, and other old friends while in the city. Mr. Chamblee was en route to Detroit and Chicago, accompanied by his chauffeur.

Mack Adams, field agent for the Woodland Park Resort company, passed through the city Friday en route from Woodland Park, Mich., to resume his duties in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania. He spoke in glowing terms of the many visitors at the popular resort this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovie Wright, 2244 E. 82th St., newlyweds, have as their guests their cousins, Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Smith of Richmond, Va.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Murrell report a delightful trip to Toronto, Canada, stopping off at the medical convention in Detroit, Mich.

The Church of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament held their annual garden party on the parish grounds, 2354 E. 79th St. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Various attractions and valuable prizes made the affair very interesting as well as successful.

The Harriett Tubman Art club held a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Cora Thompson, 2835 E. 75th St., last Monday evening. Mrs. Pauline Thomas, secretary; Mrs. Agnes Garnett, president.

Society

Mrs. Blanche Jones, 2247 E. 32d St., accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Essick Garth, and Charles Moore, returned from a delightful motor trip, visiting Jackson and Detroit, Mich., and Chicago, Ill. While in Chicago they visited The Chicago Defender plant and had the pleasure of meeting and conversing with Editor Robert S. Abbott. They speak in highest terms of the mammoth plant and the splendid cordiality extended them while visiting the home of the World's Greatest Weekly. Mrs. Jones is one of our most popular young club women.

Wood Hawkins of 2240 E. 86th St., continues to improve following his recent serious operation at St. Luke's hospital. Mr. Hawkins has been in the employ of the city for the past four months, having disposed of his Cedar Ave. barber shop on account of his health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McIntyre of E. 85th St. accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hicks of E. 80th St. returned Saturday from a week's tour of the southern part of the state, visiting Columbus, Chillicothe and other cities.

St. John's stewardess board No. 3 gave a successful bake sale Saturday at the home of Mrs. Bertha Austin, 2418 E. 59th St.

Mrs. Rose Hatcher of E. 46th St. left Thursday for New York and Richmond, Va., for a visit with relatives. Her son, George Hatcher, will meet her in Richmond and accompany her home.

Dr. and Mrs. P. H. White entertained with a motor party to Buffalo and Niagara Falls, honoring their guests. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Key of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. W. H. Eldridge, Uniontown, Ala., and Mrs. Fannie Mae Hill, Chicago, Ill. Others in the party were Dr. and Mrs. W. T. White and son, Richard Henry, and Mrs. E. L. Bell. Mrs. Eldridge left for Chicago en route home.

Ernest Jackson, druggist, of Columbus, Ohio, was in the city last week. An indoor picnic was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Scott of Schenley Heights, Pittsburgh, Pa., last Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hill, 2200 E. 36th St. Covers were laid for 40 guests.

Mrs. Earle Roberts and Helen Smith gave a party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Williams of Chicago at their residence, 9027 Blaine Ave., last Saturday night. Whist and dancing preceded the delightful luncheon served by the hostess.

Mrs. Edgar Dixon of E. 90th St., who was injured in a taxicab smashup, is able to be about.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes Cooper of E. 93d St., entertained friends Thursday evening. Cards and luncheon were the evening's program.

Mrs. Walter Davis and daughters, Mrs. Anna Gentry and Mrs. L. M. Saunders of Pittsburgh, Pa., were the house guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs. D. Daniels, 7312 Lucia Ave. They have just returned from vacationing in Mich-