

Mrs. Ethel Smith Carter; "Greetings to Mothers," Miss Isell Mitchell; "A Little Girl's Tribute to Mother," by little Pauline Johnson; "A Tribute to Daughters," Mrs. Lula Alexander, Columbus, Ohio; a reading, "Mother," by Mrs. Jeannette Patterson; an address by Mrs. Jesse S. Heslip, who was introduced by Mrs. Everett W. Johnson, and last, but by no means least, two reels of "Our Gang" comedy.

Dr. Doerman, president of Toledo university, will deliver the address to graduates for the annual graduates day celebration at the Douglass center Sunday, June 17.

Dr. and Mrs. Alex Turner motored in from Detroit Friday morning for breakfast.

John W. Turner of Avondale Ave. returned Friday after spending several days in Detroit the guest of his brother, Dr. Alex Turner. The Alex Turners and Mrs. Turner's mother, Mrs. Henson, motored home with their guest in time for breakfast Friday morning. The Detroiters returning the same day.

E. B. Wanzo, John H. Fields and William E. Jones went to Philadelphia last week, each one to receive the 33d degree in Masonry.

Mrs. Albert M. Woods was the popular lady who was crowned queen of May at All Saints Men's club meeting in the parish house Thursday evening.

WELLSVILLE, OHIO

Union Missionary auxiliaries will convene at Midland, Pa., on Sunday afternoon, June 3, in the regular monthly meeting. Word has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. James Manley of Cleveland, formerly of this city, lost their home by fire the past week. John, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pulley injured his foot while at work in the local rolling mill. A. M. E. church district convention of the Sunday school institute will convene in Youngstown during the week of July 7 and 8. Local fans are giving their support to the organizing of the baseball team which will represent them throughout the valley during the season. No definite date of their opening games has been announced. Leland, oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. George Giles, is confined to his bed with pneumonia.

Members of the A. M. E. church received invitation to the wedding of the presiding elder, Rev. M. Trust, on June 1. Joint session of two Willing Worker circles held their business meeting Wednesday evening in the A. M. E. church. Steven Robinson was the weekend visitor in Irondale, Ohio. Garland Johnson and Julius Robinson were business visitors in Pittsburg, Pa., during the week-end. Bazaar and May festival will be conducted in the city auditorium May 29 and 30 for the benefit of the A. M. E. church.

ELYRIA, OHIO

George Robertson and friends were visitors in Beren, Ohio, at the airport last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Kaywood and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Baker motored to Columbus Sunday, May 13. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy House of 831 Champion Ave. The Jolly Workers club met at the home of Russel Beane Monday, May 14. A delicious luncheon was served. The Cosmopolitan club gave a card party and dance at Thompson's hall Thursday, May 17. Sydney Bonds and Miss Zerna Zoo of Oberlin, Ohio, and several friends of Elyria spent Sunday afternoon in Lorain, Ohio. Miss Bessie Lee, a prominent young lady of this city, left Saturday night for Memphis, Tenn., where she will spend the summer with her sister and brother, Major Northcutt, who has been very ill, is improving. Mrs. Nannie Weldon is improving also. Thomas Brown, a citizen of this city, died Wednesday. Funeral services will be held at Shiloh Baptist church.

COLUMBIA PARK, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Adams, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tucker, Miss Mamie Falkner, Oscar Mather and Miss Jewel Bradley and Miss Evelena Starks went to Lawrenceburg, Ind., to attend the anniversary of the pastor and basket dinner Sunday. Mrs. Bessie Starks, Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Roy Lewis visited a sick lady in Lawrenceburg, Ind. Little Helen Tom Cristal Williams is ill. Tom Cristal is ill. Mrs. Charlie Jordan of Washington Court House is here in the city. Mrs. Young, Raymond Hoard, Mrs. Matty Tallie, Mrs. Essie Kelly and Brady Hoard motored to Hamilton, Ohio, Sunday. Raymond Hoard, Charlie Jordan, Mrs. Alma Young, Mrs. Louise Jordan and Brady Hoard were in Cincinnati. Mrs. Frankie Alexander, Mrs. Mattie Gulley and Paul Davis are planning a trip to Indianapolis.

OXFORD, OHIO

Rev. Boldert and his wife and daughter motored to Lockland Sunday. Mrs. Isaac Gilieple and daughters, Margaret and Constance, of Chicago, visited relatives here Friday. Several from Hamilton attended the musical recital given Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bruner were entertained at dinner by Mrs. John Haaty on Mothers' Day. Will Poston and family of Morning Sun visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Poston, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin and family and Mr. and Mrs. Kirkly spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Gerlie Couzins. Mrs. Ethel Miles and Mrs. Laura Cheeks were hostesses to the Fortnightly club Thursday. After the business session delicious refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kelley of Richmond, Ind., visited relatives here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKay and son of Connersville visited Mrs. S. S. Cheeks Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Williams motored to Richmond, Ind., Wednesday. A number of persons motored to Lockland and attended the revival which is being held by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Wheeler, evangelists. Earl Kelley was in Fairmont Friday. Mrs. Oliver of Cleveland is stopping with Mrs. William Freyer during her stay here.

NEWARK, OHIO

Charles Hamilton was a visitor to Hantlers club, K. of P. club room, Sunday evening. Circle No. 12 met at the home of Mrs. Son Darsey in Pickrella Ave., Monday evening. Get the Defender, W. S. Hatton, agent. Phone 3069. Bill Jones is better with his foot. Eugene Whetstone is better. Mrs. Henry Wallace is ill at her home in Pickrella Ave. Messrs Allen Fred and Robert Brown motored to Wheeling, W. Va., Sunday morning.

MANSFIELD, OHIO

Charlie Gruce and Miss Tibertha Williams were quietly married May 7. Mrs. DeWitt Johnson is in the Mansfield sanitarium to undergo an operation. Dr. O. S. Smithkin and Mrs. Virginia Gardner attended the grand lodge at Monroe, La. Miss Florence Wilson left for Shreveport Thursday. Miss G. B. Silkett has returned to Baton Rouge. Mrs. Nancy Garkin and George Gasaway are still sick. Miss Thornton has returned to Marshall, Texas.

WOODVILLE, OHIO

Mr. Ames, L. E. Bailey of Fremont and Mr. and Mrs. George Stone of Port Clinton motored here Sunday and were guests of Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Eddie Hollen, Mrs. I. D. Cooper and Mrs. John Coleman shopped in Toledo last week. Mrs. A. L. Jones was in Toledo on business. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver of Chicago was house guest of Mrs. Jessie Donaldson last week. Mrs. Jessie Donaldson was in Toledo on business last week. Misses Verne May Oliver, Ida May Kemp, Metildia Graham, Joe Eland and Adolph Graham all attended the track races in Fremont last week. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Conely, who have been ill, are able to be up again. Mrs. Eller Jek is out again after a few days illness. Mr. Tattlemore of Sandusky was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Grisham. W. M. Lee was in Sandusky, Ohio, Sunday.

GREENVILLE, OHIO

J. W. Johnson, a well-known respected citizen, died at his home here Friday, May 11, age 76 years. Funeral was held from Shiloh Baptist church Monday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Hester. Services were in charge of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, of which he was a member. Mrs. Washington of Dayton, Ohio, spent Sunday here the guest of her son Harry. The fifth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. E. W. Hester was celebrated last week, ending Sunday, May 13, with a Mother's day program. Mrs. Inez Dyer of Columbus, Ohio, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brown. Mrs. Wilbur Harris and Elsworth and Marion Harris of Columbus, Ohio, spent Saturday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stewart.

TORONTO, OHIO

The $500 drive has started and will end the second Sunday in June. It is to make the second payment on the new church. Rev. W. B. Woodson, pastor. The Junior Missionary concert was quite a success at the community room, Fourth and Clark Sts. The out-of-town folks gave their services to help put the program over. The Midland quartet sang and the Jiles sisters of Wellsville sang a beautiful duet. Kent Price and Mark Carter from Wellsville played an instrumental duet. Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Case of Wellsville sang a duet during the revival at the First Baptist church. There were 11 additions last Sunday. A lovely program was rendered on Mother's day. Mrs. Mattie Thornton, chairman of the program committee. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Robinson of Wellsville spent last Sunday with friends in Toronto and attended services at First Baptist church. Mrs. Joe Maxwell and little granddaughters and Miss Nora Cole spent Tuesday in Irondale with Mr. and Mrs. James Saunders and family. Mrs. Joe Maxwell and granddaughter and Miss Nora Cole spent the week-end in Buffalo, N. Y., with Mrs. Hazel Griffin. Mrs. Mattie Ware Brooks was in Cleveland last week. Mrs. Thomas McDuffey visited her sister, Mrs. Crews of Wheeling, W. Va. Mr. Charles Grays of Gallatin, Pa., is visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Gilliam of Jeddo. Mrs. Mattie Ware Brooks and Mrs. Colman of 207 Railroad St. were Steubenville shoppers last week. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson of N. Fifth St. has returned to Virginia, their old home, after being in Toronto for several years. Rev. Mr. Englam of New Castle, Pa., did a god work during the ten-day meeting. Rev. W. B. Woodson attended the ministers' meeting at the Presbyterian church last Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Robinson of Steubenville filled the pulpit during the absence of Rev. W. B. Woodson on the Second Sunday. Rev. Mr. Porter of Wellsville preached the missionary sermon.

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO

Mrs. Mary Henderson of Point Pleasant, W. Va., passed through the city Saturday en route to Columbus, Ohio, and New York City for an extended visit. Misses Lillian Steenbergen, Edith Bryant, Martha Cousins and Prof. Myers gave a picnic Friday at the fair grounds for the Lincoln school pupils. More than 100 attended. The Pastor's Aid club was very nicely entertained by Mrs. Kinsey Hill Saturday evening. The Busy Bee club held a meeting at the home of Miss Alta Holmes Tuesday evening and planned to give a reception honoring the recent graduates of Gallia academy, Misses Virginia Harris, Isabel Scott and Cecil Mitchell. Rev. Tyree, pastor of the A. M. E. church, preached Sunday at Portsmouth, Ohio. Rev. Tyree will graduate from the theological department of Wilberforce university in June. Claude Arnold left Saturday evening for Akron, Ohio. Prof. Joseph L. Myers left Saturday for his home in Cleveland. Friday in the music room of the Lincoln school building, the Lincoln Parent-Teacher association held its closing meeting of the term. After the election of officers, at which time Mrs. Harry Alexander was made president of the organization, a social was given. Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts of Chicago was a guest of the club.

WILBERFORCE, OHIO

Miss Louise Walton, director of home economics, entertained with an elaborate dinner party May 10 in honor of Superintendent and Mrs. Richard C. Bundy. The color scheme was green and gold, the school colors. Dr. Aubrey Laner acted as the toastmaster. Toasts were given by Dr. Lackey, Mrs. Smithers, Mr. Callman, Messrs. Clarke and Jenkins, the Misses Cooke and Edwards, and Supt. Bundy. Among the guests present were Supt. and Mrs. Bundy, Mr. and Mrs. Callman, Prof. and Mrs. McGinnis, Dr. and Mrs. A. Lane, Prof. and Mrs. Smitthers, Capt. and Mrs. Kinckald, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Borden, Prof. and Mrs. I. S. Lane, Mrs. Brown, the Misses Cooke and Williamson, Prof. and Mrs. Bruce Green, Prof. and Mrs. Chavous, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, Miss Woodson and Mrs. Lowe. The Quinton Harrington Collegian orchestra rendered splendid music. Messrs. Lee Williams, Buster Williams and Lester Brown were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ross and family. Rev. Summers preached an able sermon to the K. of P. lodge Sunday, May 6, at the Third Baptist church in Xenia. His subject was "Friendship." Rev. D. W. Bowen, who has been holding revival services at the Third Baptist church, Xenia, has returned to his home in Chicago. The Odd Fellows lodge held their annual thanksgiving services at the Zion Baptist church Sunday, May 13. Rev. Dooley, the pastor, delivered the message. Mr. Kinkie, a student in the college department, is able to be out again after a prolonged illness. Miss Ryda Knight spent the past week with her brother in Xenia, Ohio.

PAINESVILLE, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Martin and daughter, W. Jackson St., spent the week-end with Mrs. Olla Snowden Jenkins, Cleveland, last week. Ransom Gordon and George Bethel, W. Jackson St., spent the week-end in Washington, D. C., visiting his daughter, Mary Bethel. The Ladies' Social club of the Union Congregational church had a changeless luncheon this week. Tom Martin, W. Jackson St., has been ill. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bethel and children of Cleveland spent the week-end with George Bethel, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bratton, W. Jackson St., entertained Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bethel and family Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Weir gave a birthday party Saturday, May 19, honoring her sister, Miss Lillian Gordon, on her 16th birthday. Mrs. Anna Dent, Jefferson St., has been sick the past two weeks. Albert Baker of Jefferson, Ohio, died at his home on May 7. He was a member of Starlight lodge No. 433, I. B. P. O. E. of W. Painesville, Ohio. Funeral services were held at his residence Wednesday and on Thursday the remains were taken to Columbus, Ohio, his former home, for burial. Mrs. Janis Steel entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Weir and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ganst, honoring her husband on his birthday, May 13. The members of St. John's Baptist gave a surprise for their pastor Tuesday, May 15.

DAYTON, OHIO

By GEORGINE JOHNSON
Douglass Center, 16 N. 10th St.

Toledo, Ohio, May 25.—The last regular meeting of the Enterprise Charity club was held in the girls' home auditorium Thursday afternoon. Delegates to the state conference, which meets in Akron the last of June, were elected and include the president, Mrs. Ella Phillips Stewart; secretary, Mrs. Velma McCogland; Mrs. Etta Jackson, and an alternate, Mrs. Blanche Fiskner. At the close of business Mrs. Lula Alexander of Columbus, field worker and representative for the Mme. C. J. Walker company, addressed the group on "Beauty of Mind, Body and Estate."

Mrs. Ella P. Stewart, Mrs. Minnie Scott, Miss Jeanette Taylor and Miss Eunice Johnson formed one of the several groups that motored to Detroit last Saturday to see "Foxy." Motoring with Mrs. Marie Harter, Davis were Mrs. C. A. Hackley, Mrs. Albertus Brown, Mrs. Jesse S. Heslip and Mrs. Florida Ridley.

Mrs. T. E. Peterson has returned after a week's stay in Detroit, where she was called by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Ollie McCary.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott and daughter Dorothy motored in from Sandusky Sunday for the day with the Albert M. Hingas of Oakwood Ave.

Mrs. Lula Alexander, field representative of the Mme. C. J. Walker company, is in Toledo for a brief period in the interest of the company and is the house guest of the W. S. Randolphs on Woodland Ave.

Mrs. Dora Manley has returned after a two weeks' visit in Cleveland, where she was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Mabel Blair. Mrs. Ella Clark of Columbus, mother of Mrs. Blair, was a visitor in the Cleveland home at the same time, and returning with Mrs. Manley, stopped en route for a few days in Toledo before going on to Columbus.

The Jolly Four quartet, Thomas Cherry, William Dent, Theodore and James Crocker, Steve Harris, Charles Miller and little Mary Lee Rhodes, in dance specialties; Ethel Smith Carter and Thomas Cherry, soloists, are forming a group of local talent for the circus which is being promoted by combined fraternal organization this week at the Greystone.

Mrs. Mary Jackson has returned to Toledo and her home at 1103 City Park Ave., after more than a year's sojourn in Pasadena and other points in California.

The local order of Pythians met at Grace Presbyterian church last Sunday afternoon for the annual sermon and service. Rev. C. A. Ward, pastor, addressed the group, sing for his subject, "The Church's Challenge to Me." A large audience enjoyed the splendid address, interesting program and simple but impressive service.

Mrs. Lizzie Moore went to Cleveland to spend Mother's day with her daughter, Mrs. Marcellus Farley, and son, James Moore. She will remain for several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Harris are pleasantly located in their very attractive home at 830 Indiana.

Among the many interesting feature of Douglass center's summer program will be included two baseball teams, camp for girls and one for boys, tennis, swimming and nature and bird studies.

Mrs. Florida Ridley has returned to Boston after a delightful several weeks in the home of her daughter and son, the Jeddé S. Heslips on Belmont Ave.

Mrs. J. Slater Gibson and daughter Marjorie are at home after spending the late winter and spring in the South, dividing the time between Mrs. Gibson's home in New Orleans, La., and Mr. Gibson's family at Tuskegee institute, Ala. Mrs. J. S. Gibson Sr. accompanied the Toledeans and will remain for an indefinite stay in the Gibson home on Woodland Ave.

Aaron Alcayde Bromley of Monroe, Mich., passed to the great beyond on Sunday, May 12, in University hospital, Ann Arbor, Mich. Mr. Bromley was born in Monroe 33 years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bromley, and graduated from Monroe high school. His unusual ability along all lines of music, his winning personality and fine, clean character have made him an outstanding figure in his own community and those adjacent. At the time of his death he was director of St. Paul's orchestra, organist of St. John's Catholic church, for three years director of the Monroe high school orchestra, and for a number of years official pianist of the Exchange club of Monroe. He was director of musical activities of Douglass Community association, a member of Toledo local 286 of the American Federation of Musicians, of the Utopian club and of Monroe Music Teachers association. In 1913 he was married to Miss Florence Odessa Woodson of Findlay, Ohio, from which union two children were born. She died four years later. In 1924 Mr. Bromley married Miss Louise Love of Montclair, N. J., who at the time of her marriage was director of girls' activities of the Frederick Douglass Community center, Toledo. She is a graduate of Cornell university and the first daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Love of Montclair, N. J. The deceased leaves his mother, Mrs. Libbey Bromley; his wife, Mrs. Louise Love Bromley; four children, Aaron Alcayde Jr., 13, Muriel Anita, 12, Leo Love, 8, and John Wickliffe, 6 months; a cousin, Wickliffe C. Fox, Toledo, and an army of friends.

Services were read in St. Paul M. E. church, Monroe, by Rev. Peter Stair, pastor, assisted by Rev. Walter Payne Stanley, rector of All Saints church of Toledo. Music was furnished by Douglass Center Glee club, under direction of Mrs. Emma French, with Miss Louise Taylor at the piano. Members of the Utopian club served as pallbearers; Mrs. O. G. Fields read resolutions from Douglass association; John R. Morris, of the Utopian club, and Everett W. Johnson, executive secretary of Douglass association, the obituary.

A rainbow-hued canopy, simulating a huge Maypole with ribbons outstretched, candles lighted, and flower-decked tables, myriads of happy faces, marked Douglass center's seventh annual mother-daughter banquet Friday evening as the loveliest affair yet sponsored by the institution. The guests numbered more than two hundred. Mrs. Anna Singleton, as general chairman, with Mrs. Charlotte Randall, Mrs. Ella Randolph, Mrs. Nannie Daniels, Mrs. Jessie Brown, Mrs. Anna Ferguson, Mrs. Minnie Scott, Mrs. Sherman Walton, Mrs. Vashti Braboy, Mrs. T. E. Peterson and Mrs. Caroline Kemp, her corps of efficient helpers, Miss Irene Ambers, Mrs. Josephine Lightfoot and Miss Mabel Ford were responsible for the unique and attractive decorations. The program included a welcome by Mrs. Della H. Fields, song numbers by Miss Roger Williams and