

ZANESVILLE NEWS

By HARRY R. STOTTS

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming of Cleveland, president of the Ohio State Federation of Women's Clubs, was principal speaker at the Community center last Sunday evening to a large attendance in the interest of Ohio's state election. Other speakers were on the program. This affair was given under the auspices of the Federation Club of Women of this city.

Melvin C. Oliver, age 53, died at his home on Cliffwood Ave. last Thursday after a long illness. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Alice Oliver; two sons, Melvin J. and Vincent Oliver, and four daughters, Pauline, Glen and Jennie of this city and Mrs. Carole Jeffers of Little Rock, Ark. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the home, Rev. Hammond O. St. Paul, A. M. E. church in charge.

Ezra Holbert of Glira, W. Va., is in the city visiting his sons and friends.

Revival meetings will commence at the West End Ave. Wesleyan Methodist church Sunday, Nov. 9, in charge of the pastor, Rev. A. C. Mayle.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Martin of Maysville pike, announce the birth of a son at Good Samaritan hospital Tuesday morning. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Dr. S. Alexander wishes to announce that he is opening a children's clinic to all children not exceeding 12 years of age. The object of this clinic is to treat the children the care of their teeth and their habit of going to a dentist regularly.

OXFORD, OHIO

Mrs. Stella Smith and Mrs. Erie Jackson gave a play entitled "The Wandering Boy," in Hamilton for the benefit of the Second Baptist church. Rev. Francis, pastor. Mr. and Mrs. James Williams entertained Rev. S. L. Snell at dinner last Sunday. Mrs. Mary West entertained Rev. Snell and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson at supper last Sunday. Little Juanita Wolf received a prize of $1.00. She was the only race child who took part in the community Halloween tete. The Bona Fide club had a progressive party Thursday night. All members were masked and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Mrs. S. E. Byrd, Mrs. Snapp, Mrs. Miles and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gibson attended the Current Events club party. Mrs. Miles received second prize for being the most comical dressed and Mr. Gibson a prize for being the most original. Mrs. Lucian Ward was hostess to the Ladies' Fortnightly club last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. S. E. Byrd has been on the sick list, but is able to be out again. Elmer Moore, Langford Hargrave and E. Fuller of Wilberforce university attended the Girl Reserves dance at the high school. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Redenbaugh visited in Hamilton last Sunday afternoon. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ayers a son.

NEWARK, OHIO

Frank Maxwell was buried from Shiloh Baptist church. Mrs. Gertrude Simpson and Herman Garrison motored to Knoxville, Tenn., to attend the funeral of their cousin. Mrs. Louise Moore entertained a number of her friends at her home on Henderson Ave. Mrs. W. S. Hutton entertained the Buckeye Eight at her home on East St. Miss Florence Nance has returned from visiting her parents in Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. Willie K. Hopkins attended the Lancaster Fair. Circle Six met at the home of Mrs. Fournia Johnson on Eavan St. Allen Brown and W. S. Hutton motored to Bergers Hills. B. F. Johnson of Granville celebrated his 50th birthday on Halloween night. Mrs. Clah Ross of Galatin, Tenn., has returned home after spending the summer with her daughters, Miss Pearl Ross and Mrs. Guyulah Horton of Race St. George Manning was called to Detroit on account of the death of his mother. The mother of Charles Ross will spend the winter with her son on 10th St. Frank Trumbo is in Pittsburgh on business. James Stoen celebrated his birthday in Columbus. Miss Carrie May Johnson is recovering from injuries. Mrs. W. A. Jackson's uncle is dead in Georgetown, Ky. Eugene Whetstone played at the Auditorium theater. Miss Pearl Bennet will make Pittsburgh her home with her aunt, Mrs. Cox. Miss Marie Bennet is stopping at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Harris on Buckingham St.

NEWCOMERTOWN, OHIO

Rev. H. M. Dixon preached his trial sermon here a week ago and was licensed for the ministry by the First Baptist church on Clow Ave. Mrs. Marietta Vaughn was called to Zanesville on account of the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. Perry Martin. Mrs. Martina is a former resident of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Covington motored to Zanesville to visit their aunt, Mrs. Jennie Branstford. Jake Collins, Charles Morton, Miss Francis Clayton, Mrs. Margaret Schooner and daughter, Mary Jean, Mrs. Theima Collins and daughter, Aletha Jean and Miss Lulu Galloway motored to Massillon to visit Mrs. Anna May Dixon. Mr. and Mrs. Zack Brown announced the marriage of their niece, Louise Franks, to Charlie Chandler. Edward Arnell and Mrs. Mary Horn were married a few weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. John Driver are the proud parents of a fine baby girl. She has been named

Betty Jane. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen announces the marriage of their daughter Verna to Leroy Murry. At present Mr. and Mrs. Murry reside at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen, of 601 S. College St. After Nov. 1 they will be at home to receive their friends at 595 Clow Ave.

PIQUA, OHIO

Ms. Carrie Medley, Mrs. Herd, Mr. and Mrs. A. Garna spent Sunday in Portsmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Harriston and Miss Pauline Gibbons, who have been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Parsely Williams, returned to West Virginia. Mrs. Parsely Williams gave a delightful reception in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. DeSoto Harris and family, have moved from Yellow Springs. Mrs. Effie Wilson of Chicago, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Letia Johnson, has returned to Chicago. A reception was given at Cryene A. M. E. church, honoring the new pastor, Rev. Rev. Newsome. The Harmony Public Speaking club met with Homer Collins. Next meeting with Fowler Drury. Mrs. Beatie Johnson and husband are making their home in Canada. Mrs. Abbie Collins is improving. Miss Ora Route is home from Memorial hospital. Mrs. Lettie Flemings spoke at Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Myrtle Barrymore is in Pasadena. The Sunshine club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fowler Drury. Next meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Manely. The Sunshine club gave a tea at Mrs. Mal Frelick's home. Sunday which was very successful and largely attended. Miss Dorothy Frelick, who is teaching school in Cincinnati, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frelick. The Clutline club meets at the home of Mrs. Truss Thursday night.

AKRON, OHIO

Westley Temple A. M. E. church choir went to Cleveland Tuesday evening for a contest against St. Paul A. M. E. church choir. The Cleveland choir will challenge the Akron choir Nov. 11. Mrs. Lavada Walker, 1041 Jefferson St., entertained the Akron Ladies Desert Bridge Club Thursday evening. Prizes were awarded Miss Fannie Patterson, St. Watts and Lavada Walker. The One Hour Night club met at the home of Mrs. Allen Brown, 157 Cawleton St. Wednesday evening. Five hundred was the feature of the evening. The hard-time party was held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Lewis on Sanitarium Rd. Misses Sule Smith and M. Anes of Detroit and Messrs. Dowings and Willis of Cleveland were entertained at the grill room of the Montreal hotel, en route to Cleveland. Mrs. L. Williams, housekeeper at Montreal hotel, 111 Main St., was removed to People's hospital after becoming suddenly ill. Mrs. Carthron, 21 N. Adams St., entertained the Sirene club Thursday afternoon. Two tables of whist were in play and prizes were won by Misses Fannie Crawford and Carmen Jackson. The four couples who enjoyed the courtesy of Mrs. Ethel Ashby, 817½ E. O. E. W. gave a Halloween dance at the Elk club, which was largely attended. Prizes were given the best masked and most comically costumed person. Misses Fletcher, Jackson, Ashby, Wright, Holloway and Robinson played bridge Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Estella Fair, 723 Euclid Ave. A very pleasing salad was served and prizes were won by Misses Gertrude Robinson and Holloway. Maurice Robinson, 219 Schultz St., was hurt Sunday afternoon in Cuyahoga Falls. Sherman "Buddy" Ryan was driving the car when it crashed into a building, injuring Maurice about the face and neck. He was taken immediately to St. Thomas hospital, where 11 stitches were taken under his chin. Buddy escaped with minor injuries. The car was badly damaged.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. Law and son Lester attended Mrs. Law's brother-in-law's funeral at Rochester, Pa. The chicken supper given by a club of Second Baptist church was a success. Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Whitfield returned home from Chicago, where they visited Mrs. Whitfield's mother. The Elks gave a supper Saturday night. The St. George's troop 3 held their regular meeting Tuesday at Second Baptist church. Gordon Ormes motored to Columbus Sunday. Samuel Whitfield motored to Canton Sunday. All news should be sent to Samuel Whitfield, phone 1713-W. Mr. and Mrs. Dan King of 1162 Erie St. spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Josephine Sanders, at Martin Ferry, Ohio. Rev. J. D. White of Middletown, Ohio, succeeded Rev. J. D. Sinclair of Sheridan Ave. A. M. E. church.

UHRICHSVILLE, OHIO

Rev. Carl Brenton Brown, newly appointed pastor of St. John A. M. E. church is preaching into acquaintance with the community at large. Oliver Baptist church, Rev. R. W. Pitts pastor, tendered a religious program and dinner to the women's auxiliary. Rev. John Pulley and people of United Holiness church, New Philadelphia, conducted a successful rally service at Olivet Baptist church for the benefit of their new church building fund. Mrs. Sadie Brooks is to prolong her stay with Mrs. and Mrs. Grayson, 524 Uhrich St. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson and daughters, Bernice, Dorothy, and husband of Massillon, visited with friends here. Mrs. Katie Wilson and Mrs. Stokes of Grafton, W. Va., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Henderson. Mrs. Laura Olmstead and son Allen have gone to Cadiz to make her home with a daughter, Mrs. George Miller. The local W. C. T. U. society gave a pie social for the benefit of St. John A. M. E. church.

WELLSVILLE, OHIO

P. E. Spires was a week-end visitor in Cleveland. Union Missionary auxiliaries will hold their monthly session in the Second Baptist church, East Liverpool. A fish and oyster supper will be given Friday afternoon, Nov. 14, for the benefit of the A. M. E. church. The Boy Scout troop rendered a pleasing program Thursday evening at the A. M. E. church. Announcement was made that another program will be given Nov. 20. Special services will be conducted in the First Baptist and A. M. E. churches on Thanksgiving day. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keaves have returned home from a visit in the Southland. Misses Flora and Louise Rody spent the week-end in Pittsburgh. Bake sale for the benefit of the choir of the A. M. E. church Friday afternoon. Nov. 18. Members of the Needlecraft circle met Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Banks. Send news to Harry Stringer.

ELYRIA, OHIO

Robert Baracus of Columbus, Ohio, gave a talk at Thompson's hall. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Jackson announce the birth of a daughter. A sacred concert was given by the senior choir of the Second M. E. church Sunday. The manless mock wedding given in Lorain by the Jolly Workers was a success. Mrs. J. E. Burton visited on the West side.

LORAIN, OHIO

Eugene Ross, a prominent gentleman of this city, and George I. Cooper (white), superintendent of the Lorain Rescue mission, both addressed the Varick Christian Endeavor society of New Hope A. M. E. Zion church Oct. 26. The following program was rendered under the auspices of Miss Jessie Franklin: Vocal solo, Miss Lillie M. Ridgeway; readings, Minnie Jones, Beulah Franklin, Eugene Jones, James Williams, Cecil Franklin; piano solo, Miss Howard Franklin. Mrs. Looker T. Yancey, E. 20th St., was recently discharged from St. Joseph hospital. Miss Girthalee Brown, 16th St., has been a patient in St. Joseph hospital, but is very much improved now. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bates, 15th St., entertained a number of their friends at a bridge party. The members of the Laffair club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Porter Wood, 1759 Broadway. Mrs. Freda Watson, E. 21st St., entertained the club at her home Oct. 23. The Sisters Home Charity were recently entertained at the home of Mrs. Irene Hughes, 2157 Denver Ave., and also at the home of Mrs. Mattie Patton, E. 22d St. They will soon be entertained at the home of Mrs. Susan Clark, 2153 Denver Ave. A masquerade party was sponsored by the members of the Sisters Home Charity at the home of Mrs. E. Dinwiddie, E. 22d St. Prizes were awarded to the following persons for the most comical costumes: Mose Crisp, first prize; Mrs. Mattie Patton, second prize; Miss Dorothy Manns, 156½ Evergreen Ave., Jacksonville, Fla., is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Davidson, 234 Elyria Ave. Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Hill of Dayton has been carrying on a series of sermon at the Second Baptist church, of which Rev. C. M. Smith is pastor. Rev. Hill is first vice president of the Ohio Baptist General association. Mrs. Hill is superintendent of the Children's band of the Ohio Baptist Women's association. Rev. Alonzo Guico of this city recently delivered a sermon at the New Hope A. M. E. Zion church, of which Rev. G. H. Williams is pastor. Porter Wood, 1759 Broadway, is very much improved at his home after a recent illness. The following persons recently motored to Oberlin to attend a political mass meeting: Mesdames Sallie McCutcheon, B. H. Tapsico and Eliza Hay. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, 220 E. 21st St., recently entertained a number of their friends at a delightful social gathering in their home. Friends don't forget to buy a Chicago Defender from Boyz Long, Apple Ave., near 22d St. Lorain readers of The Chicago Defender, if you are interested in seeing your news each week in this paper you may do so by sending or phoning news worth to Miss Howard Franklin, 209 E. 22d St. Phone 2735 not later than Tuesday morning of each week.