

INDIANA NEWS

INDIANAPOLIS NEWS

By LILLIAN M. LEMON
1036 N. West St. Lincoln 1271

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—The Scholar Sororists club of the Teachers college gave a very pretty Halloween party in Jackson hall. Many of the alumni were present.

Sylvia Belle, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bryant of Highland Pl., passed away on Wednesday. Burial was in Crown Hill on Thursday.

The Indianapolis Music Promoters met with Miss Elizabeth Holden Sunday afternoon at her home in W. Walnut St. Mrs.

Lillian M. Lemon

Mary Cobbs read a paper on the life of Paul Robeson. Mrs. Claudine Smith led in the singing of spirituals. Plans were furthered for the members to attend the state convention of Race musicians in Ft. Wayne. Those who will attend are Mrs. Mary Cobbs, Mrs. Ellen T. Meriwether, Miss Theresa Genus, Charles Amos, Mrs. Vestarine Slaughter, Wallace Wolfolk, Miss Sara Mae Clements, Mrs. Lillian M. Lemon, Mrs. Carlotta B. McNary, Miss Ethel Kirk, Mrs. Clara Hill, Mrs. Ruth Hill, Miss LeVora Blanks, Miss Bessie Patterson, Miss Evelyn Squires, Miss Ella King, Miss Sylvia McCann, Virgil Jones Jr., Roberta Jane Pope, John and Albert Lee, Herbert Bedenbaugh, Quetta Pryor, Mrs. Haulsh Hayes, Miss Emily Garrett, Mrs. Inoma Berry, Mrs. Maude Johnson, Miss Flora Daniels, Mrs. Virginia Lane, Mrs. Hazel Farmer, Mrs. Lucy Beachem, Mrs. Eunice Roney, Mildred McCullough, Lois DuValle, Mildred Roberts, Mary Etta Taylor, Rose Mary Page, George Wilson, Charles Hurt and Lucille Collins. The next meeting of the Music Promoters will be with Mrs. Mary Cobbs, 1439 E. 15th St.

Rev. Father M. B. Mitchell held high mass Sunday morning in observance of All-Saints day at St. Phillip's P. E. church. Special music was furnished by the choir, directed by Bliss Phyllis Waters. Paul Hill, tenor, accompanied by Mrs. Lillian M. Lemon, sang a solo.

St. Monica's guild met with Mrs. Amanda Mitchell in Silver Ave. Tuesday evening. Miss Odessa Singleton was received as a new member.

Mrs. Elsie M. Anderson, 317 16th Pl., has returned from Lebanon, Tenn.

Elizabeth Carter council, Mrs. H. L. Herod president, observed women's day Sunday at the Waterspoon United Presbyterian church. Mrs. W. E. Brown, president of the Central Association of Women, spoke on "The Work of Clubwomen." Mrs. Charlie Rhea and Mrs. Julia Jefferson sang.

Bishop C. C. Alleyne of New York was the principal speaker at the morning services of Jones tabernacle, and at Caldwell A. M. E. Zion church in the evening. Rev. Spottsworth is pastor of Jones tabernacle and Rev. D. L. Lynch is pastor at Caldwell church.

The 50th anniversary of the Girl Reserves was celebrated Sunday at the Y. W. C. A. at 3 p. m. in Jordan Music hall. Rev. Charles Watkins made the address. Mrs. Mary Hooper of school No. 23 had charge of the music. Mrs. Letha Lathcomb had charge of the ushers from schools Nos. 63, 17, 84, 23, 42, 26, 24 and 87. Mrs. Lucy Brooks was chairman. Mrs. K. K. Smith is Girl Reserve secretary of the Y.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold the first of its meetings Sunday at 3 p. m. Among the speakers for this year are Dr. Mordecai Johnson of Howard, Dean A. A. Taylor of Fisk, William Pickens, Walter White of New York, Alain Locke and Elmer Imes of Tuskegee, Charles Johns, Rev. J. C. Austin, James Weldon Johnson and Edwin Embrey, executive secretary of the Rosenwald foundation.

The Art club, of which Mrs. Della Greer is president, met at the Y. M. C. A. Miss Anna Hasselman of the John Herron Art Institute gave a talk on "The History of Painting," with lantern slide illustrations. Mrs. Lucye Beachem was soloist and Miss Kate Lindsay pianist.

Mrs. L. R. Young of N. Western Ave. was hostess to the Woman's Improvement club. Mrs. Ralph Huddleston, state president of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, was guest speaker.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stewart and her sister, Mrs. Charlotte Heywood, gave a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Fannie Stewart in Fayette St. in honor of Mrs. Marmus Stewart, who recently announced her marriage, which took place in August.

J. Harold Brown, head of the music department at Crispus Attucks high school, cordially invited the public to the second of this year's monthly musicales at Attucks school Sunday at 4 p. m. The Ethical Culture society, of which Miss Vivian Terry is president, will sponsor the program. The guest artists will be the Walker quartet; Mrs. John Shelburne, soprano; Paul Hill, tenor, and Harry Radcliffe, violinist, with Miss Emille Garette at the piano.

The faculty of the Cosmopolitan School of Music and Fine Arts, Inc., celebrated its fifth anniversary with a banquet at the school at 1036 N. West St. Mrs. Lillian M. Lemon is president and founder; Sara Mae Clements, vice president; Mrs. Marjorie Tucker Brown, secretary; W. Earl Keen, treasurer. Those on the faculty are: Voice, Mattie Loretta Stovall, W. Earl Keen and Blossom Roberts; piano, Mrs. Lemon, Mr. Brown, Miss Clements, Mr. Keen, Lucille Collins, Emille Garette, Eva Durham and Sallie Kaiser; violin, Carlotta B. McNary; pipe organ, J. Harold Brown; brass instruments, R. Roy Pope; woodwinds, Hebert Bryant; speech, Mrs. W. E. Brown; dancing, Sue V. Artis and Anna Wolfolk Richey; language, Miss Garette; theoretical subjects, J. Harold Brown, Lillian M. Lemon and Sara Mae Clements. Auxiliaries of the school are the Students Study club, Miss LeVora Blanks president; the trio, consisting of Mesdames Rosella Harden, Mae Daniels and Remah Harde; the quartet, Mesdames Virginia C. Lane, Lucye Beachem, Eunice Richardson and Hazel Farmer; the string trio, directed by Miss McNary; the glee club, directed by Miss Stovall, and the orchestra, directed by Mr. Pope. Miss Lucille Collins is director of the Anderson branch and Miss Durham is director of the Haughville branch.

LA PORTE, IND.

Mrs. Ula Keller

Marcella North Harris passed away away Monday at her home, 610 Bach St. She was a native of Senola, Ga., but had lived here for a number of years. She leaves to mourn her passing two sisters, Mrs. Hannah George of Senola, and Mrs. Carrie Conley of Coal City, Ala.; a brother Berry North of Senola and Mrs. Livette Porter, a cousin in Chicago. Rev. T. H. Calhoun of the A. M. E. church was in charge of the funeral services at Cutler Bros. chapel. Rev. W. H. Starrs is aiding in the revival at A. M. E. church. Mrs. Mildred Welch and Mrs. Lela Thompson shopped in Michigan City. Guy Aldrich suffered a painfully bruised hand in an automobile accident. His car was slightly damaged. Champ Jackson, who was with Mr. Aldrich, was uninjured. William Maddox attended an I. O. O. F. meeting in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alexander and son Ferddie and P. W. Gighus were in South Bend Wednesday. Rev. H. G. Pope and some of his members assisted Rev. Calhoun Friday night in revival meeting. Leo Bailey is home after spending several weeks in Garrett, a guest of his uncle, Frank Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Jackson have moved to 513 Third St. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jackson visited here. The A. M. E. church is having a revival. Rev. Calhoun is pastor. Mrs. Charles Harris was found dead Monday. The A. M. E. church had a supper at Tip-ton hall.

WEST BADEN-FRENCH LICK, IND.

Sam Evans of Greenburg, Ind., Mrs. Bessie L. Allen and Miss Irine Brown of Louisville, John B. Johnson and P. J. Walker of Cleveland, Ohio, are guests at Waddy hotel. The Old Settlers club met at the residence of Mrs. Wright Potters. The Royal Mutual and Embroidery club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Franz on Walnut St. L. C. Jackson and Mr. Sherman left Friday by motor for New Orleans, La. The Ladies Aid and the Brotherhood society met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Belton on Church

St. at a Halloween party. Officers elected are Harold J. McDiney, re-elected president; John Frazer, vice president; Iko Lloyd, treasurer, and Jerry Lewis, secretary. Mrs. Alice McKinney, president; Mrs. Richard Smith, secretary; Mrs. David Gee, treasurer, and Mrs. Jerry Lewis, vice president of the Ladies Aid. The Rev. Dr. Heywood, new pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church, presided. The W. W. Cosmopolitan club gave a masked Halloween party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Conn. Best masqueraders were Harold Williams and Mrs. Edward H. Rogers/ Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hill, Mrs. Brantly Bailey and William Bailey of Columbus, Ohio, visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Rogers.

FORT WAYNE, IND.

The Church of God, Eliza St., is conducting a revival service and evangelist, Rev. P. W. Work of Knoxville, Tenn., is preaching. The ladies' auxiliary of post No. 148 gave a Halloween party at the auditorium of Wheatley Social center. Ghost walks, pop corn and apple contests intermingled with the goblin hop, enlivened the large number of kiddies present. President, Mrs. Lucy Wilson. The Clarence Cameron White Music club met and made plans for entertainment and representation in the State Musicians' association, convening here in November. Mrs. Velma Gaines and daughter, Jean, of Toledo, Ohio, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Warfield Sr. The ushers and usherettes of Turner Chapel A. M. E. church enjoyed a social at the country home of Mrs. Agnes Chavis, Miss Helen Clinthorne, Mrs. Elsie Clinthorne and Justus Clinthorne of Clayland, Ohio, were guests of the former's brother, Dr. Roy D. Clinthorne, Jr. Samuel Cullen, pastor of First Presbyterian church, and Rev. Louis N. Rocca featured in a farewell program sponsored by the membership of Mt. Olive Baptist church for their pastor, Rev. Caesar A. Pugh. Musical renditions by Miss Frances Penn, Dr. Gertrude McKinney and choirs. The Industrial Girls club of Wheatley Social center invites the public to a forum meeting at Turner Chapel A. M. E. church. Attorney and Manager F. B. Hanson of the Madam C. J. Walker Manufacturing company will be the principal speaker. Daughter, ruler of Elks, Abbie E. Johnson, en route to Gary, Ind., visited daughter Loretta Curry. Mrs. Benjamin Talbert delightfully surprised Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Talbert. Prizes were awarded in bridge and whist. Mr. and Mrs. William Smith were hosts at a dinner bridge party honoring Lowell Baker, United States postoffice inspector. Guests included Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Conner, Messrs. and Mesdames E. J. Unthank, Ellis Micheaux, N. H. Hudson, Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Cluthorne, Mesdames Carrie L. Wilson, Marjorie Wickliffe, Blanche Lewis, Dr. Gertrude McKinney, Miss Elma E. Alsop and William Butts. Miss Mary Walls, daughter of Rev. P. W. Walls, was given a birthday surprise party at the parsonage, under the direction of Mrs. Golda Hornaday Jones. Stunts and parlor games were enjoyed. Guests were Mesdames Augustus Starks, Ruth Peters, Jessica Bassett, Jane McCall, Una Mae Turner, Mable Strum, Marjorie Wickliffe, Fanny Wallace, Nina Chambers, Hattie Winfield, Marrie Crutchfield, Mildred Lacklin, Lena Patterson, Heywood Babb, Louis Carter, Bernice Unthank, Myra Ridley, Kate Blanks, Loretta Greene, Anna Walker, Joyce Warfield, Misses Elizabeth Rhodes and Elma Alsop, Attorney and Mrs. Cornelius Richardson, en route from the Wilberforce-Tuskegee game, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Monty M. Curry. Members of the Beaux Art Music club invites the public to an organ recital in the auditorium of Turner Chapel A. M. E. church Tuesday evening, Nov. 10. Any one having news for the weeklies, call A-7196 no later than Tuesday.

LOGANSPORT, IND.

Miss Pauline Weaver entertained in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Weaver, 36th anniversary. A three-course dinner was served. Louis Simmons of Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Milton, Mrs. Margaret Dabney, Miss Catherine Barbour, Mrs. Josephine Rowe, Mrs. Sallie Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Malone, Theopolla Allen, Clarence Bellamy and George Parker were guests. Louis Simmons, Miss Jackie Hood of Culver, Miss Pauline Weaver, Theopolla Allen, Charles Moore and Miss Catherine Barbour motored to Lafayette to visit friends. Charles Edwards spent his vacation in New Albany, Dayton and Louisville. Mrs. Georgia Allen, Mrs. Alice Pettigraw, Mr. Beard and Walker Holloway of Chicago were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Allen. Miss Barbour and Mrs. Harriet Weaver and grandson motored to Ft. Wayne to visit Mrs. W. M. Story and family. Mrs. Mary Gray of Bloomington visited Mr. and Mrs. George Allen. Mrs. Margaret Dabney won a prize at the Halloween parade.

TERRE HAUTE, IND.

By Abbie Lou Watson

Rev. Murrell, pastor of Second Baptist church spoke at St. Paul church in Greencastle, of which Rev. C. M. Hammond is pastor. There was baptizing at Second Baptist Sunday. Rev. Murrell spoke Thursday night at Antioch church in Decatur. Rev. Murrell will speak Nov. 10 in Milwaukee. Mrs. Essie Kennedy of Gilbert Ave. is still ill. Miss Elva Martin, Mrs. Grace Betty and Timothy, Spikervard, who are in the hospital, are improving. M. C. Hayes of Indianapolis was here. Wheeler Moran, trombonist, who has been directing the Wee Hour Serenaders orchestra, has joined Bernie Young's band at Milwaukee. George White, saxophonist, and Clarence Thompson, trumpeter, formerly of the Wee Hour Serenaders, are in Toledo and Detroit. A Halloween party was given at Duquesne Gardens. Music was furnished by the Wee Hour Serenaders. Richard Montgomery of Des Moines is with the Johnny Perkins company at Indiana theater. He is stopping at the Duffy Inn. Miss Charlotte Clark of Detroit, who is here with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Jenkins, and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brown, were dinner guests of Mrs. Duffy in Harding Ave. Prof. Charles Rochelle of Evansville and his Lincoln high school football team were at the Duffy Inn en route to Indianapolis. The Ministers Union club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. R. Duncan. A luncheon was served Tuesday by the club in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Mitcham's return. Ray Russell of Louisville, Ky., was here. Mrs. Lula Morton is ill. Mrs. Anna Paxton of Chicago is a guest of relatives here. Gordon Porter of Jeffersonville, Ind., was the Sunday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Porter. Miss Bernice Bishop of South 13 1/2 St. is ill. Grant Crone and L. Slaughter entertained 14 guests in honor of Myrtle Slaughter at the home of Mr. Crone. The guests were Winston Britton, William Taylor, Perry Cartridge, Jess Williams, William Flowers, Carl Jones, Iko Holmes, Carl Lyle, Joseph Taylor, Undertaker Bell and Bud Taylor. Mr. Slaughter was presented with a lounging robe. Beta chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho will give a benefit musical concert at Duquesne Gardens Nov. 20. This money will be used in the scholarship fund. The members of Beta chapter and pledges who were in Indianapolis attending the teachers convention were guests of Alpha Sigma and Alpha chapters at the Parkview hotel. Mrs. Mary Flowers entertained a number of her friends with a party in honor of her brother, John Martin of Niagara Falls. The guests were Mesdames Mattie Irby, Lena Allen, Thelma Hill, Sarah Jones, Chester Etta Minor, Eleanor Webb, Ernestine Wilson, Mrs. Vivian Martin, Mrs. Luella Tyler and Miss Grace Tyson; Messrs. James Alexander, Clarence Bryant, Hezekiah, Elsom, Hershal Flowers, Leo Gribby, Allen Guy, Cassius Hammond, William Hayes, Albert Johnson, Robert Jones, William Lewis, Lewis Martin, Glen Tyler and Roy Worrell. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Roberts of E. Spruce St. had a guests last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Henry Payne and Mr. Shoppee of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Lewis of Kansas City, Mo., were guests at the Duffy Inn. Mrs. Lewis is secretary of the Urban league of Kansas City. She has been transferred to Baltimore. Rev. G. R. Jackson spoke at Allen Chapel church Sunday. New members are Mrs. Maggie Sterrett, Mrs. Florence Brown, Mrs. Stella Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lee, Miss Isabelle Jackson Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mitcham. Miss Helen Harvel of E. Spruce St. left Sunday for Indianapolis, where she will attend Attucks high school. Mrs. Clyde Workman, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mamie Russell of E. Spruce St., returned to her home in Indianapolis Sunday.