

OHIO STATE NEWS

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
2526 Central Ave.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 11.—Mail your news to the above address. Please do not phone, thereby avoiding errors.

A. O. Taylor

Sunday was promotion day at Mt. Zion Congregational temple under the supervision of Mrs. Susie Tylor, superintendent.

Miss Evelyn Robinson, one of Cleveland's most efficient school teachers, is head of the kindergarten department. Miss Vivian Howland is the new pianist of the Sunday school. Rev. Russell Brown, pastor, announcing "Thanksgiving Offering Day" for the parish for Nov. 27.

Business night for the Secret Keys was held Saturday at the residence of Mrs. Eva Jackson, 2299 E. 103d St., Cortez Smith entertaining. A most delicious luncheon was served. The guest was Mrs. Estelle Banks of Montgomery, Ala., who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery, E. 71st St. Mr. Smith, who was responsible for the most enjoyable evening, is a member of the Dabney quartet and has appeared over WHK and at the Club Madrid. The next meeting will be held at the residence of John Smith, E. 74th St.

The Missionary Union ladies met at Mt. Zion temple and planned their election day dinner. Councilmen Leroy N. Bundy and Lawrence O. Payne always co-operate with the ladies in this annual effort. E. L. Sykes, tenor, gave an impressive solo number at the church Sunday week. Mrs. Ada K. Williams was the soprano soloist.

The 19-Y Neighborhood club met at the home of the president, Harry Burrell, 2261 E. 103d St. Plans were completed for their charity dinner to be given at the Kingsley Arter center, E. W. A., Nov. 17.

The Optimistic club met at the home of Mrs. Glenn, 2159 E. 79th St., with Mrs. Love as hostess. Mrs. Della Offer, the president, acted as chairman. Next meeting with Mrs. Mitchell, 7624 Quincey Ave., suite 6. Mrs. Offer, president; Mrs. Fannie Wallace, secretary.

The Calveordians gave a Jolly Riddles party at the home of the president, Miss Bernice Ellington, Saturday night. The sponsors were Mrs. Evelyn Hartwell and Mrs. Clarence Scott. Forty guests were present. Other officers are Gladys Alexander, secretary; Margaret Pickens, treasurer; Beatrice Austin, assistant secretary, and Grace Spearman, chaplain and pianist.

Organize First Bowling Club
Our group for the first time in the history of the city just recently became interested in the bowling sport. The Cleveland hotel boys have two clubs and then there are the K. C. Independents and the Robinsons. The Central-East 85d Bowling league is the name of the organization formed to create an interest in bowling among our group. The K. C.'s met the Frogs Tuesday night and won two out of three games. Hotel Cleveland A's beat the Robinsons three out of three Wednesday night. The Hotel Cleveland B's were to play another team Friday night. Wynston T. Brown is president of the league; O. Robinson, E. 86th St., secretary, and Earl Glasco, treasurer. Oscar W. McDonald is one of the five wires who is greatly interested in promoting the sport.

Dr. Blaine Hubbard, well-known Democratic leader in the 19th ward, has succeeded Joseph R. King as superintendent of the Central Ave. bathhouse. Dr. Hubbard has been one of the leading chiropodists in this community for several years, his clientele being composed of leading citizens of the other group.

Mrs. William Morris, 2296 E. 134th St., and daughters, Effie and Mary, spent the week-end in Detroit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brown. On their return they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

Mrs. Sarah Coles of Kempton Ave. entertained the Ladies Missionary society of St. Mark's Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon.

J. E. Hubbard, the well-known insurance man, was in Philadelphia, Pa., for the week-end on business.

Mrs. James Beckwith, 12008 Woodland Ave., is spending the winter in Baltimore, Md.

Miss Stella Pickens, bookkeeper for the Empire Savings and Loan company the past five years, had the honor of being elected a member of the board of directors at a special meeting of the stockholders last week. She was afterward elected assistant secretary of the company. She is president of the tota Phi Lambda sorority, an organization composed of stenographers and bookkeepers. Miss Pickens is a Chicago girl.

The Spiritual chorus of Lane Metropolitan church sang at Fostoria, Ohio, Sunday. Among the members are Luther King, the great tenor; William Strickland and S. E. Simpson.

The political tea sponsored by Mrs. Lilla Mason, associate ward leader to Councilman Clayborne George, was one of the most brilliant affairs in political history in the East end. The affair was staged at East Mt. Zion Baptist church Thursday afternoon. Among the speakers were Hazel Mountain Walker, Jane E. Hunter, Councilman George, President John D. Marshall of the city council, Mrs. Chester C. Bolton, Mrs. David S. Ingalls, Mary Forrest, Hon. Maurice Maschke, county Republican leader, and Mrs. Geraldine Welsh, the militant associate leader of Ward 19.

St. John's Gospel quartet, Robert Crowler director, was heard over station WHK Monday evening. It sang on the "guests parade" hour conducted weekly by Mrs. Lila Jones of Woodland center.

The Musical Magpies appeared in Erie, Pa., last week and made a fine impression. They are to appear at the popular fashion show (white) in Connelville, Pa., within a few days. Mike Charles Rose, their clever little drummer, is in the hospital following an operation. We trust he will soon recover.

House meetings in the interest of the Republican ticket were held in the Genville (E. 105th St.) district—one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Nickens on Greenlawn Ave., the other at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ison on Earle Ave.

The Glipin Players open their popular dramatic season this week with the presentation of "Scarlet Sister Mary" at their Karmanu theater. In the cast are Brownie Woodford, Ella Atwater Apple, John Marriott, Sherman Brown, Jesse Firse, Loris Pickell, Florence Henderson, Festus Fitzhugh, George Guinn, Florence Austin and William Hunt.

William R. Jackson, the Van Swertingens' popular private car steward, 10713 Everton Ave., is able to be on the job after 10 days illness. Miss Marjorie Brown, 10513 Arthur Ave., entertained a few of her Fairmount-Junior high classmates with a Halloween party. Those present were Adelaide and Edith Garel and Winifred Allen. Stunts, stories and a real Halloween luncheon made the affair worth while.

Mrs. Madeline Early of Bryant Ave. entertained the Minerva Reading club at her home last week. Mrs. Mary Forreast was guest speaker.

Luther King, tenor of Fisk university, is giving a recital Thursday evening at the Baptist Church of the Master (white) on Euclid Ave. under the auspices of the Young People's society.

The Josephine club opened its year's work with the re-election of Mrs. Ida Mosley as president. This club, one of Cleveland's most outstanding, is again arranging for its charity program during the winter months. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Carrie Lowery of E. 103d St.

The Mysterious Matrons Afternoon Bridge club met with Mrs. Bertie Cosssey, 8313 Cedar Ave., Tuesday. Bridge was enjoyed. Mrs. Carrie Lowery won first prize, Miss Ida Mosley, second; Mrs. Smith, third. Next meeting with the president, Mrs. M. T. Gates of E. 50th St.

Miss Mabel Jenkins, formerly of the Carlton Y. W. C. A., Brooklyn, N. Y., now at the Y. W. C. A. in Los Angeles, Calif., will spend a few weeks in the city.

Dr. D. Ormande Walker, pastor of St. James A. M. E. church, suffered a fainting spell Sunday week.

Perry Howard Here

Perry Howard, Republican national committeeman from Mississippi, spoke to an overflow audience at the 18th ward Republican headquarters Tuesday night last week. He left for Toledo the following day.

The Zephyr Entertainers appeared at the Lafayette center in new Lafayette school, North Olmstead, Ohio, last week. They will be heard over station WHK at the guest parade hour Nov. 11 at 7:30 p. m. Harry T. Ford, the popular cornet imitator and entertainer, is manager.

Miss Florence Greene, Oil City, Pa., who staged a successful playlet at Brown A. M. E. church of that city entitled "The Lord's Prayer" and was presented with a scholarship by the I. P. Dramatic club for her fine work in elocution, will visit here soon. Her brother, Boyd Greene, shared honors with her, according to the announcement of Harry T. Ford, the promoter.

The Autumn Leaf Culture club met at the home of Mrs. L. Calhoun Wednesday night. Gordon W. Simpson, executive secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., spoke. The following speakers have been scheduled: Hazel Mountain Walker, Mrs. L. J. Gibson, Dr. Myrtle Sando, Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, Mrs. Lena G. Brown, Mrs. Marie T. Gates, Miss Jane E. Hunter, George W. Brown, civil examiner, and Mrs. Mary B. Martin, member of the board of education. Funeral services for Rev. T. S. Moseley, pastor of the Church of God on Woodland Ave., were held at the church Friday afternoon. Rev. Moseley had been pastor of this church 15 years. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Fannie Moseley; seven children and eight grandchildren. Rev. Nalley of St. Louis, Mo., officiated.

Federation Women Meet
The City Federation of Colored Women met in the Mather room of the P. W. A. The officers are: Mrs. Madeline Early, president; Mrs. C. P. Nickens, Mrs. Margaret Carroll, Mrs. W. Cole, Mrs. Pugh and Mrs. Mae Baisey, vice president; Mrs. Ida Brown Todd, secretary; Mrs. F. D. Cochran, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. B. Young, financial secretary; Mrs. Ina Blackburn, treasurer; Mrs. L. G. Brown, parliamentarian; Mrs. Sophia Bailey, historian. Standing committees: Education, Mrs. L. J. Gibson; finance, Mrs. C. F. Nickens; membership, Mrs. Mannie Morton; welfare, Mrs. S. E. Cole; legislation (national), Mrs. L. C. Fleming; (state) Mrs. Mary K. White, (city) Mrs. Cora Boyd; hospitality, Mrs. Alice Pearson; publicity, Mrs. Mary K. Gates; sick, Mrs. Bessie Crawford; pianists, Mrs. Ethel Simone and Mrs. Irene Cyrus; song leader, Mrs. A. B. Young. The president was elected delegate to the northeast district meeting of the federation in Oberlin.

Mrs. Manfred Swann, 2217 E. 76th St., has returned after spending some time in Covington, Ky., visiting her sister, Mrs. Johnson. En route she visited her daughter Sarah at Wilmberforce university.