

Saturday night. A merry meeting is reported.

Delta Sigma Theta sorority, Zeta chapter, met Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elsie Hackney has been ill for several days.

Mrs. Emma Horner, popular society matron, has recuperated sufficiently after eight weeks confinement to go to Hot Springs, where she will continue to convalesce. Mrs. Ethel Love accompanied Mrs. Horner. After three weeks at the popular health resort her friends plan a welcome on her return to the city.

Home-coming for the grads of the Freedman's hospital nurse training school in Washington, D. C., is a thing now anticipated by the Cincinnati alumni. How welcome will be the month of June bringing this initial event.

Mrs. Kate Marshal of Beecher St. passed away Sunday morning at her home on Beecher St. after a complication of pneumonia which set in when she was recuperating from a recent illness. A number of relatives and Mrs. William Marshal, the widower, mourn her death.

The Bollyan Art club will be hostess to a St. Patrick silver tea next Sunday. This benefit affair will be housed at the home of Mrs. Douglass McKinley of 921 Churchill.

West End Branch Y. W. C. A. The annual membership meeting of the Y. W. C. A. brought together a large group of enthusiastic men and women at Union Baptist church who have braved a snow blizzard to get a clearer picture of the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Grace Blade summarized the year's work of the branch, emphasizing its growth and accomplishments. Mrs. Louise Sandipher spoke on interrelationships of the West End and Central Y. W. C. A.

The portrayal of the work was first depicted by Mrs. Barnett, showing the origin and the present value of Y. W. residence in the community. Miss Sellers showed the older girls and women as they were bound into the fabric of community life, stressing opportunities for self-expression and growth which come when they, with common interest, work and plan together. Miss Fife showed that education was a process of learning and growing to appreciate the world in which we live and that the process was not limited to older girls and women but to the whole association.

The younger girls program was interpreted by Miss Jones, who gave the idea behind the Girl Reserve program. Miss Eva D. Bowles, general secretary, in her interpretation of the Y. W. C. A., clarified the understanding of its purpose. Mrs. Sara Anderson also spoke.

CINCINNATI NEWS

By MARION M. HUBBARD

4 Lincoln Terrace

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 16.—The daughters of St. John of St. John's A. M. E. Zion church had a most enjoyable meeting last Wednesday when Mrs. Eliza Harriel of Kerper Ave. was the genial hostess of the evening. A large attendance is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gill of Gait Ave. honored the birthday of their son Albert last Sunday evening when they tended him a lovely party at their home. Covers were laid for 15 guests.

Mrs. Martha Seymour entertained the Non Pareille Bridge club Monday afternoon. Non Pareille is one of the smartest of the afternoon social clubs of Greater Cincinnati.

Henry Miller of W. Court St. is convalescing after a serious operation.

Mrs. Pearle Butler was hostess to the Pathfinders, whom she entertained on Monday afternoon at the Women's Federated clubhouse on Chapel St.

DeHart Hubbard and 19 of his recreation workers attended the recreation conference at Lexington, Ky., last March 4, 5 and 6, he reports.

Monday morning Mrs. Mayme Henderson of Madisonville was hostess to the Curngolds Breakfast Bridge club. Miss Maude Woods and Mrs. Douglass McKinley were guests. Prizes were won by Mrs. Mary Harding, Mrs. Genevieve Chenault and Mrs. Gussie Bowen.

A cooking school was sponsored and conducted on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at Emery auditorium by Mrs. Handey and Mr. Tyus of the Rumford Baking Powder company. Lovely useful prizes were given away and splendid demonstrations were witnessed by a large audience.

The Olive Leaf society met last Monday evening.

Miss Catherine Jones, it is reported, is getting along very well after her operation. Miss Jones is confined at the General hospital.

"Just for Fun" were guests of Miss Margaret Riley on Monday night at her home.

Her guests other than club members were Misses Ruth Routt, Alene Glenn, Christine Alfred, Hattie Robinson, Maggie Price and Odessa Rogers. A delicious repast climaxed a gay evening. The prizes for winners at bridge were Mrs. Emma Smith, first club prize; Bessie Robinson, club consolation. Guest awards were given Miss Christine Alfred and Miss Odessa Riley.

Clarence Hubbard entertained the Big Four club, a smart whist club, on Tuesday night.

Wednesday the Mystic club enjoyed its usual phenomenal success when the organization sponsored a benefit dance at Palm Grove. Two hundred persons attended, it is reported.

Artists Guild

Artists guild met at the Hotel Manso Wednesday night. A very interesting musical program, including the following numbers, were enjoyed: Vocal solo by Jernigan Saunders, accompanied by Mrs. Myra Turner; accordion solo by J. C. Green, Clarke B. Firestone, dramatic editor of the Times Star and author of "Coasts of Illusion" gave a most enlightening address on "How to Write." A discussion of some of the problems in writing stories, books and poems followed. A banquet followed this meeting and covers were laid for 35 persons, guests and visitors.

Mrs. Nannie Elliott of Oliver St. was hostess to Le Bon Temps Wednesday afternoon. Miss Nancy Burrell and Mrs. Brown played for absent members. The afternoon began with gaiety around the well-appointed dinner table as the guests partook of the sumptuous chicken dinner at 5 o'clock. The laughter echoed throughout the evening as the congenial young women matched wits for possession of the extraordinary prizes. In the final count it was found that Lady Luck had smiled on Mrs. Ora Hill, first prize winner; Miss Nancy Burrell, second, and Mrs. Marion M. Hubbard, third.

The White Rose Social club was a guest of James Hines of Braxter Campbell court Wednesday night.

Attorney Elsie Austin, well-known lawyer here, spoke Thursday afternoon to the girls at Douglass Colony school in connection with the Girls Hobby week activities.

Thursday evening Mrs. Eliza Evans of Clifton gave her annual affair. The beautiful home was the setting in which this unusual party was staged. Cards and dancing offset the elaborate supper at midnight. Covers were laid for 45 guests. So coveted are the invitations to this affair that each invited guest was present at the appointed time. Nothing that could further the pleasure of her guests was overlooked by the thoughtful hostess, so that consequently it is reported that a perfect evening was had by all.

The L. M. I. Mutual Federated club was entertained Thursday by Mrs. Douty of Lincoln Ave. A large number of members and several guests reported a splendid evening.

Old Resident Dies

Hiram Mann of Madisonville, old and respected citizen, died on Thursday night after an illness with which he was afflicted at the General hospital. It is reported that Mr. Mann had recuperated from an operation but unfortunately pneumonia set in. The funeral services were held Monday, March 12, from the home. A wife, Mrs. Julia Mann; seven children, Mrs. Naoma Kerr, Janie Mann, Consuella Townsend of Chicago, Miss Estelle Mann, Hiram, Julius and Kenneth, and six grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends grieve their loss.

Norman Hunter, aged 53, 2748 Hoff Ave., died of heart disease at his home Friday. He was dead when the life saving squad arrived.

Mrs. Lillian Hall of Madisonville was hostess to the Bollyan Art club Friday. Lovely service followed an interesting meeting.

John Clowers returned from a short stay in Columbus, Ohio.

The 9:30 club was a guest Saturday night of Mrs. Minnie Howard at her home on Mound St.

Irving Lee, husband of Mrs. Priscilla Lee, is recuperating at the General hospital from the effects of an operation.

The Saturday Night Bridge club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. James Hines of Braxter Campbell court on