

evening and Friday evening the Shields brothers rendered a musicale, with the other quartets assisting. Mary I. Shuford, reporter.

Variety Program

The Holy Grove Baptist choir will entertain May 7 with a variety program. Rev. Mr. Haynes will preach. Robert Anderson, president; Miss Ocelline Daniels, secretary. The Home Mission is rendering a program Sunday. A short sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Dixon. Saturday night the Willing Workers club entertained at the home of the president, Robert Anderson, 2205 E. 39th St. Remarks were made by the pastor. The deacons voted to launch a great financial drive to raise funds. The Pastor's Aid club met at the home of Mrs. Queenie Burrell, 2362 E. 38th St., Thursday night. Mrs. Queenie Burrell, president; Mrs. Sherman Sams, chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Sams motored to Springfield, Ohio, Friday for a visit with friends.

Woodland Center

John Mathews, noted playwright and head of the department of romance languages at West Virginia State college, at Institute, W. Va., will be a guest of the Art Ramblers, well-known adult dramatic group of the center, Friday, May 11. Three of his plays will be presented, "Cruiter," "Black Damp" and "Ty Ette." Following each performance he will be entertained at tea.

Mother's Meet

The Parents club, composed of mothers whose children come to the nursery school, is developing into an enthusiastic group. Under the leadership of Miss Willis Caldwell they are conducting a discussion course on "Christianity in This Changing World." They are also making a scrapbook of children's material.

Surprise Birthday Party

The birthday of M. Milton Lewis was celebrated recently by a surprise party given by his wife, Mrs. M. Milton Lewis, at their beautiful home, 2314 E. 36th St. Among the guests present were Joe Watkins, J. F. Morning, C. Henry Miller, A. H. Harralson, Rev. B. F. Calvin, A. M. Smith and A. Wright. C. Leroy Nellums was toastmaster and a delicious repast was served by the hostess. Mr. Lewis is assistant manager of the Supreme-Liberty Insurance company.

Husbands Entertained

The Autumn Leaf Culture club met at the home of Mrs. Jessie Ross, 2210 E. 79th St. and royally entertained their husbands and sweethearts. A visitor was Miss Roberts of Akron, Ohio. Mrs. Miles was absent on account of death in her family. Prizes were awarded to Thomas W. Fleming, first, and Andrew Harris second. Luncheon, Hungarian style, was served by the hostess. Next meeting with Mrs. Ruth Roberts, 2195 E. 70th St. The club gave Miss Ouida Jackson a present as a graduation gift. Miss Jackson recently graduated from Central high school and last Friday won second prize in an oratorical contest sponsored by the Daughter Elks, I. B. P. O. E. W., at St. Paul A. M. E. Zion church. Mrs. Marie T. Gates, Mrs. O. H. Harris and Mrs. Ross are the delegates who attended the Federation of Colored Women's Clubs convention in Youngstown, Ohio, last week.

The Sophisticated Ladies club was entertained last Friday evening by the president, Mrs. Daisy Smith, 6507 Scovill Ave. Bridge and whist were featured and a delicious luncheon was served by Miss Ethel Harris, the assisting hostess. Guests included Miss Dorothy Darby, Miss Harris, Steve Stevenson, Robert Allen, John Allen, Robert Smith, Otto Smith and this writer.

How to Send News

Please report your news early, not later than Sunday evening, to insure publication in current issue. Church and clubs not represented in the World's Greatest Weekly please have same reported to your church and club reporter. This is important. Make this column your column for current news items. Mail your news in early.

Church and Club News

By EMMETT H. ARMSTEAD
 7110 Cedar Ave. Endicott 8627

Sunday evening the New Zion Pentecostal Young Peoples Union rendered their regular fourth Sunday program. It was acclaimed the most successful yet presented. On the musical side of the program an appreciative piano solo was given by Clarence Reynolds entitled "Butterfly." Frank Johnson of Chicago sang and played three sacred songs. A very beautiful solo was given by Walter Rutledge. W. S. Williams of the boys' division at Central Bureau gave an interesting talk on the subject, "Wild Boys of the Road." The program was closed with a selection from the famous New Zion quartet. A. R. Schoaler, pastor; Miss Ada Curry, president; E. N. Harding, superintendent; Walter Rutledge, reporter.

Friendship Baptist Church

Sunday school opened promptly at 9:30 a. m. Superintendent D. J. Bridges presided. Lesson reviewed by Mrs. Westbrook. Banner classes, Nos. 5 and 7 in the junior department; teachers, M. M. Lewis and Miss L. Fantron. The radio campaign is gaining momentum. Class No. 11, Mrs. C. Hawkins teacher, is leading. The morning service was well attended. Rev. A. M. Smith preached a timely sermon to the enjoyment of all. At 2:30 a musicale-tea was held at the home of Mrs. Crowder, 2228 E. 59th. Mrs. A. Cook, chairman; M. Lewis, captain; A. Harralson, toastmaster. Those appearing on the program: Solos, Mrs. Viola Tate, Miss Leola Minefee, Mrs. E. Davis; paper by Mrs. Bessie Houser, subject, "A Beautiful Woman;" reading, Mrs. A. Coleman, Mrs. Sarah Work and Mrs. Mary Smith; duet, Mrs. Viola Tate and Mrs. Emma Johnson; selections by Shields brothers quintet. Friendship quartet. The B. Y. P. U. was well attended. The Young People's club meets here every Monday night. M. M. Lewis, reporter.

Junior Club Tea

Rev. J. L. Bailey, superintendent of Bethel Baptist Sunday school, is doing a fine work with the assistance of his teachers. Rev. F. I. Jones, pastor of Bethel, has been ill for several days, but is improving. Sunday afternoon the Junior club of Bethel church gave a tea at the Charitable Rescue home, 2536 E. 51st St. The guests included Miss Margaret Shuford, president; Miss Maisie Tolby, secretary; Miss Marion Cason, treasurer; James Weakley, chairman; Miss Irene Galesmore, Miss Jennie Steele and Mrs. Cason. The Bethel B. Y. P. U., Mrs. A. B. Copeland, president, is doing its best to make a success. At 5:30 p. m. the United Four quartet rendered a very pleasant program, the choir and other quartets assisting. The president, Mrs. Jones, reports much success. The choir had their regular rehearsal Tuesday