Baha'is Explain Tenets of Faith

LIMA, Ohio, Sept. 28.—The Lima Baha'i Assembly, formed for the purpose of explaining the principles of the world-wide Baha'i movement has begun a series of open meetings held each Friday evening at 615 W. Elm street. The Baha'i movement is founded on the oneness of mankind and the complete harmony of all religions. Baha'is believe that the economic solution of the problem of today depends on the full realization of the unity of man.

At the first meeting Mrs. Frank Baker spoke on "The World Yesterday and Tomorrow." Mrs. Shannaz Waite of Los Angeles, a poet and composer, was the speaker September 21.
