

her little friends present were Irene Hughes, Marie Morton, Sarah and Winifred Craig, Fannie Mae, Irwin and Winston Hall, Jr., J. T. and John Patterson, Mary Elizabeth, Bernice and Bennie Stroud. Little Miss Patterson was the recipient of myriad gifts. A two-course luncheon was served. Fred and Melvin King were Thanksgiving day guests of their aunt, Mrs. Jessie Jackson, Mrs. Anna Thornton and son, Bennie James, spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. G. Thornton and Myrtle Witcher, of Brownsville. Miss Rhoda Pryor, of Third avenue, is confined to her bed on account of illness. Joseph Cox, of Pittsburgh, was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell, of Third avenue, last Sunday evening. John Williams, who has been in the Citizen's General Hospital, is now recovering at his home on Third avenue.

CLAIRTON, PA.

The Pastor's Aid society of the Mt. Olive Baptist church sponsored a musical program at the church Friday night, November 30. Mrs. James Catherine Pierce was mistress of ceremony. Among those appearing on the program were Deacon Hamp Wade, Scripture; Mrs. James Catherine Pierce, prayer; Deacon Mose Porter, welcome address; Church of God in Christ chorus; Mrs. Eula Jones, paper; Four Trumpet quartet; Miss May Lee Wade, soloist; Mr. Hunter, short talk on "Faith"; Four Trumpet quartet. Calvin Coon was soloist. The Blue Banner Home Club held its regular weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. B. Jackson, of Maple avenue, on Tuesday evening. After a short business session the Blue Banner quartet gave three selections. The make-up of the quartet are Mrs. B. Johnson, leader; Mrs. James Catherine Pierce, tenor; Mrs. May Frances Magsby, baritone; Mrs. Hattie Rowser, bass. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. B. Hines, December 4. Mrs.

James Catherine, president; Mrs. Susan Wade, secretary; Misses Leola Hurper, reporter, 637 St. Clair avenue

ERIE, PA.

Mr. and Mrs. Henri Elman are the proud parents of girl twins, born at the Hamot hospital. The flying squad of the Samaritan Mission held a chicken supper at the mission. After the supper, brief talks were given by Miss Martha Langley of the Visiting Nurse Association, Miss Shearer of the Y. W. C. A.; Rev. Molinda of the Multilateral Association, and a reel of film was presented showing the necessary precautions to be used to prevent the various diseases. The Red Cross was represented by Miss Charlotte Johnson. Mrs. Edna Drew was mistress of ceremony. The president of the Flying Squad Community organization, Mrs. Minnie Clinton, sponsored a program at the mission on Sunday afternoon. Miss Yvett Crooms rendered a program Wednesday evening at the mission with the little tots. Thanksgiving day breakfast was given at the St. James A. M. E. church. Union services were held this year at Shiloh Baptist church with the Rev. C. N. Thompson of St. James A. M. E. church delivering the address. An inspiring sermon was preached and the choir of St. James sang. Rev. P. C. Childs will spend the week end in Pittsburgh. Miss Jean H. Baxter, a student at West Virginia Institute, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Baxter. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Lawson and daughter, Geraldine, spent Thanksgiving visiting friends and relatives in Franklin, Pa. Miss Susan Wilson and Sylvester Mount motored to Detroit, Mich., to visit his sister, Mrs. Benny Bennette, and attended the West Virginia and Wilberforce game. Mrs. Margaret Watson accompanied them as far as Toledo, Ohio, where she spent the day with her husband, Henry Watson.

PITTSBURGH NEWS

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 14—Leslie Pinkney Hill, president of Cheyney Teachers Training School, was guest speaker at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday forum.

Miss Frances Glasco, senior at the Cheyney Teachers Training school is slowly recuperating from an attack of illness.

Rev. J. C. Austin, former pastor of Ebenezer Baptist church lectured at Rodman St. Baptist church, East End, Monday, Dec. 3, about the points of interest in his trip to the Holy Land.

Miss Gladys Burrell, junior at Howard university spent Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell of Lafayette Ave. South Hills.

Mrs. Ada G. Cutts, wife of Dr. W. C. Cutts is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Over 1000 spectators and many friends witnessed the beautiful marriage ceremony of the former Avis Hatcher and John Berry which was held directly after the morning services of Bethel A. M. E. church and performed by the bride's father, the pastor of the church. The couple had been married months ago by the Justice of the Peace, but were remarried so that their many friends might join in the festivities. Over twelve hundred invitations were sent out.

Among the Clubs

Mrs. Wm. Randolph acted as hostess of the Aurora Reading club on Wednesday, Dec. 5 at Dearings Tea room. Business of importance was discussed. A delightful repast followed.

The regular monthly meeting of the Lacer Stone Civic League will meet at the residence of Mrs. John Hayden, 2522 Ballett St. on Friday, Dec. 14 at 2:30 p. m. Daisy Lampkin is president.

The Pitt Lyceum met Sunday at the Y. W. C. A. A program of interesting activities was planned.

The Ideal club met at the Y. W. C. A. Monday, Dec. 2 to discuss the coming "Evening of Games" which they will sponsor during the holiday season. This group is a division of the Girl Reserve.

The Alpha Epsilon chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority entertained a number of students at a holiday party at the residence of Mrs. W. Roderick Brown. The hostesses of the Pittsburgh chapter included Sorors Lula Howell, president; Bernice Leftridge, secretary; Marion Nicholas, treasurer; Lillian Brown, Rhelma Houston, Martha Beale, Margaret Findley, Ovella Dairs and Helen Matthews. Guests were the Misses Ruth Golden, Florence Brauch, Marion Wolfe, Alberta Hall, Thelma Barrett, Helen Spencer, Junella Saunders, Dorothy Garrison and Mrs. W. G. Cutts.

Rev. W. W. Canton of 2014 Wylla Avenue was in charge of services at the Metropolitan Baptist church, on the North Side last Sunday. At the morning services he preached from the subject "The Making of Man." At the night services he spoke on the subject "You Can't Go to Heaven in a Rocking Chair." It was said that both subjects were ably discussed and highly commended by the congregation. Rev. Canton is best remembered for the efficient part he played in the interest of destitute persons during the past four years of the depression. He was also commended by the district last May having been appointed by the mayor for the post of chairman of the Street Car Traction Conference board, at a salary of $12,000 a year. He received four votes, the entire bloc of the Democratic councilmen voted for him while the five Republicans voted for the present incumbent, Mr. Finley. He has also been a volunteer relief worker for the past four years.

KENSINGTON, PA.

By John Edward Pryor

The City Civic League observed Thanksgiving day by treating 85 local girls and boys to a turkey dinner. The president, Early Fields, furnished milk for all the kiddies. The committee in charge spared no pains in making it pleasant for all present. Those in charge were Albert Windsor, Joseph Fisher, Mrs. Marie Miller, Mrs. Wilba Jarnigan, Mrs. Mary Galer, Mrs. Mildred Harrison, Mrs. Lella Bowe, Mrs. Geneva Gross, and Mrs. Lulu Mai Long. Waitresses were Lixie Mae and Louise Edmonds, Marion and Dorothy Mason. The league recently observed its third anniversary with more than 200 in attendance. The group's slogan is "Marching on to a Certain Victory." Officers include E. Fields, president; P. O. Mason, vice-president; Mrs. E. B. Croft, financial secretary; Mrs. Genevieve Gross, recording secretary; Mrs. Marie Miller, corresponding secretary; Israel Edmonds, treasurer; and Rufus Dawson, chaplain. The City Civic League will hold its monthly business meeting on Monday evening in the home of the Elks at which time the election of officers for 1935 will be in order. The Home Missionary society of the Arnold Baptist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rowe, on Thursday evening. A spiritual meeting was had. A repast was served. Mrs. Margaret Jackson is visiting in Baltimore. Marion Jacob, of West Tarentum, Pa., who has been indisposed for some months, is recovering. Miss Lela Edile Brooks and Miss Eva Bella Porter spent Thanksgiving day in the Smoky City visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. T. Mosby. Miss Wilmer Carr, of East Liberty, spent the week-end as guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll, of Lincoln Beach. A birthday party was given recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Patterson in honor of their little daughter, Willie C. Among