SEEK FORECLOSURE ON OLD FLEMING HOME

Want Taxes On Attorney's Property

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 26.—Foreclosure suit was filed by liquidators of the Union Trust Company against property at 2171 East 30th street, the old homestead, owned by Attorney Thomas W. Fleming, former city councilman, whose sentence to the penitentiary several years ago for alleged frauds was unjustified, it was claimed by friends.

His wife, Mrs. Letha C. Fleming, a county welfare worker and nationally known club woman, is also interested in the ownership of the property. The suit seeks to recover $1,950 due on a $2,000 promissory note secured by mortgage on the property, together with $88.82 taxes. The petition cites two other judgments, totaling $7,258 against the Flemings. Mr. Fleming was re-admitted to the bar last December 24. Appealing before the Common Pleas judges of the county he stated that he was entirely dependent on his law practice for income. His plea, being represented by Alexander H. Martin, as counsel, was taken into serious consideration and his license to practice restored. He is now doing business at the Fleming home, 2342 East 40th street, and is said to be recovering many of his old clients and many new ones.
