

SOCIETY

BY THE MATRON

MOTHER NATURE in all her glory is flaunting her wares in the faces of all lovers of God's great outdoors and the calendar of city social activities shows few events of any consequence for the remaining weeks of July. The Kappy boat ride by moonlight on the night of July 19, will offer a diversion to the elite and it will be of the most enjoyable nature.

The National Association of Federated Women which will meet in Cleveland, beginning July 20, will wind up the activities of this body until fall and the calendar shows that many of those attending will hie themselves to the country and resorts for a much needed rest.

James Mortimore, son of Mrs. Lygora Maynor, 58th and Calumet Ave., will visit his grandmother in Cloux City, Ia., for the remainder of the summer.

Rosey Handy of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting relatives at 3263 Rhodes Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Burgess of Oakland, Calif., have been guests at the Southway Hotel, 6012 South Parkway. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess visited The Chicago Defender plant during their stay in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Tully McDavid of Oakland, Calif., have been guests of Mrs. Mead, 6351 Eberhart Ave.

Mrs. Robert Ballard, the former Otellia Howell of Kansas City, Mo., is attending summer school at the Art Institute and is stopping at 5936 Indiana.

Mrs. B. T. Green of Brentwood, Mo., is visiting her daughter, Dr. T. D. Green of Chicago and her sister, Mrs. M. E. Hardman of Maywood, Illinois.

Mrs. Laura P. Allen of Nashville, Tenn., is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Battle, 4513 Vincennes Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Vimont Bragsdale, Sr., Master Vimont, Jr., and Miss Leal Jackson of Montgomery, Ala., motored to Chicago and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bragsdale, 5953 Wabash Ave.

Mrs. Mayme Bragsdale and Mrs. Jewel Schaefer accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Vimont Bragsdale and Miss Jackson on a motor trip to Detroit and Adrian, Mich.

Allison Bragsdale, Jr., and sister, Mary Ella, motored to Montgomery, Ala.

Mrs. Ruby Chenault, young member of Detroit's social smart set, is visiting her two sisters, Mrs. Silas Caldwell and Mrs. Sercy McKellor of Chicago accompanied by her little son, Irving Chenault, Jr.

Mrs. B. T. Green of Brentwood, Mo., was the guest of honor at a private picnic given at Rockford, Ill., Sunday.

Mrs. E. G. Fulton-Springer, 4808 Prairie Avenue, and husband, Steven Springer, returned home Monday from New York where they attended the great pugilistic battle. Among the places of interest visited was the S. S. Isle de France.

Dr. T. D. Green entertained last Sunday from 7 to 11 p.m., in honor of her mother's anniversary. Many friends and relatives came to wish Mrs. Green many happy returns on her 70th birthday.

Mrs. Clarence Baxter of Indianapolis, Ind., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cunningham, 6840 Langley. Others visiting the Cunninghams are Viola May Porter of Washington, D. C., advertising department of the Amsterdam News, and Charles E. Rurton of Washington, Mrs. Porter's son.

Miss Helen Walton, Memphis, Tenn., is the house guest of Mrs. L. J. Weeden, 5043 South Parkway. She will remain about three weeks.

Mrs. Tressa Taylor of Clarksdale, Miss., is the guest of her foster-daughter at 4548 Indiana Ave.

Mrs. J. E. Wood and daughter, Miss Marybelle of McMinnville,

Tenn., have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Younge, 4025 Calumet Ave., for several days. Many courtesies were accorded them while in the city. They returned home Monday evening.

Mrs. James E. White, 3630 Vernon Ave., was hostess at a three course luncheon last Wednesday, honoring Mrs. Rosetta Lawson of Washington, D. C., mother of Dr. James Lawson of this city. Other guests were Mesdames Lula B. Lawson, Melissa McClure, Elizabeth Lindsay Davis and Lucy Wright.

Mrs. S. E. Dyer of Cincinnati, O., was the guest of friends last week. She attended the mass meeting of the American Woodmen Sunday. Her husband was formerly a deputy.

Mesdames J. A. Lowe and T. H. Allen left Tuesday for Milford and other interesting parts of Ohio.

Mrs. Burrell B. Pope and son, Edward T., are visiting Mrs. S. C. Dove of E. 37th street and are being entertained extensively by friends of Mrs. Powe. They are leaving Thursday for Memphis, where they will spend the week end with friends before returning to Jackson for a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alonzo S. Williams.

Miss Helen E. Mason of Springfield and Miss Bella Claybrook of Elkhville, teachers in the public schools of Centralia, have returned to their respective homes after two weeks in our city. While in the city they were the house guests of Mrs. Sallie B. Steele, 3827 Giles avenue.

Mother Mary Clonlin and sister, Mary Lucid, sisters of the Holy Family, who are visiting their sister, who has been very sick, visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Sheridan Johnson, at their home, 5045 Prairie avenue.

Mrs. Juanita Killingsworth and her infant son, Wylie, Jr., left on Sunday to visit their aunt, Mrs. John L. Roden, of Marietta, Ohio. In the meantime Miss R. Muriel Roden is visiting the Windy City in company with her aunt, Mrs. Charles L. Mills and her cousin, Miss Elsie Mills, who is the sister of Mrs. Killingsworth.

Mrs. Anna L. Peebles of 5003 Vincennes Ave., delightfully entertained Mrs. Mattie Williams of Detroit, Mich., Monday evening. Bridge was featured and cocktails and other delicious drinks were served.

Wednesday, July 3, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rodgers motored to Detroit, Mich., visiting Mr. Rodgers' brother, Albert Rodgers. They were accompanied by Mrs. H. Duerson, her mother, Mrs. N. Holmes, Mrs. S. Darracott, and Miss Elvora Duerson. They also visited Canada, and all had a pleasant trip.

Major E. Lewis of New York City has been the guest of Miss M. Walker, 4805 South Parkway.

Miss Alice M. Jones of Memphis, Tenn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, 3510 Michigan avenue.

Amella W. Pupelly of New York City is visiting 4412 South Parkway, during the time she came to see the Bahai Temple.

Mesdames Alpha Adams and Lottie Roxborough with Miss Virginia Roxborough, a freshman at the University of Michigan, ran over to Chicago from Idlewild to get the returns from the Joe Louis fight since Uncle John Roxborough was manager to the successful participant. Miss Virginia with her sister, Miss Elsie Roxborough, plans to spend part of their vacation in Chicago in August.