

Mme. Orlova Speaks For Local Bahai's

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Sep 7, 1935;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender
pg. 12

Mme. Orlova Speaks For Local Bahai's

Madam Gita Barry Brown of the Baha'i cause spoke to an appreciative group of 75 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Roach, 6505 Langley avenue on Saturday evening, Aug. 24.

That the speaker satisfied the inquiry in many minds on the Baha'i cause was unmistakable. At the close of the lecture refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed by those present.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.