

CINCINNATI NEWS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Willis Thompson of St. Louis, Mo., were the weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Collins, who reside in Avondale.

Saturday the Delta Sigma Theta sorority held its meeting at the Douglass community house.

The last meeting of the Semper Fidelia Art Club was held at the Women's Federated Club House.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week the executive committee of the local organization of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters met in conferences with Beeny Smith. The members of the local committee are: Messrs. Will Shannon, Benj. Allen and A. W. Simmons. Friday an open meeting was held for all members of the Cincinnati branch. Mr. Smith is second vice president of the organization.

Mrs. Lillie Bell Gunn has moved into an apartment on Yale avenue.

Mrs. Pinkie Williams died last weekend. Mrs. Williams made her home with Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Ross on Preston street in Walnut Hills. Funeral services were held at Browns' Chapel A. M. E. church.

The Brown's Chapel Missionary Society met Monday at the church.

Tuesday the Ohio Valley Dental Association was guest of Dr. A. J. Edwards.

Mrs. Julia Williams was hostess to a lovely bridge party when she entertained in compliment to Mrs. Toledo Joseph. Guests of the evening were: Mrs. Joseph, Miss Martha Williams, Marion M. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Rodriguass, Messrs. Bishop and Freeman Beck, and Dr. Watson Fowler. Winners, first, Mrs. Bertha Rodriguass; second, Mrs. Toledo Joseph, and consolation prize went to Carlos Rodriguass.

Wednesday the Rose Marie Bridge Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Martha Howard who was hostess. The escorts of the members were also guests. Prizes were awarded to Misses Ann Boyd and Ida Mae Rhodes while guests awards went to Messrs. Anderson and Paul Redden.

The Lucky Seven Card Club was guest of Mrs. Sarrilda Clayburn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cummins have moved into their home on Rockdale avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shaeffer of Lockland, Ohio, entertained the White Rose Social Club.

The NAACP met on Thursday at the Optimist Center.

Mrs. Mary Sneed was hostess to the Webb Art Club.

Three members of the Hall Appliance Staff were guests at banquet on Friday at the Hotel Metropole. Messrs. Alfred Hall, C. C. Jackson and Richard Calandar.

Miss Agnes Elliott's mother is ill. The Alpha Kappa sorority had a joint chapter meeting on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Laura K. Turner. Mrs. Turner entertained her guests by showing a five reel film which she had taken enroute on her tour through Europe, Egypt, Asia and Africa last summer.

Saturday the Girls Reserves had a "round-up" at the Y. W. C. A. The following persons were presented to the girls: Miss Ida Mae Rhodes who is the chairman of the committee of management; Miss Blanche Belsinger who is chairman of the Girl Reserve committee; Mrs. Henrietta Bonaparte, new Girl Reserve secretary, and Miss Georgia Beasley, chairman of the Advisory Club.

The L. M. I. Federated Club sponsored a bake sale. The ladies in charge of the committee are Mrs. Wm. Denny, Mrs. James Hines, and Mrs. Leila Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Louise Kalfus of Kerper avenue entertained the Suburbanites Saturday. Guests other than club members were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer, Stanford Shows, Atty. Elsie Austin. Mrs. Louise Austin, Mrs. Grace Moss, and Eugene Simms who won the guest prize. The winners of the club prizes were: first, Mrs. Martha Howard and Charles Howard; second, Mrs. Bertha Jordon, and the consolation, Joseph Paige.

Mrs. Katie Gray, wife of Rev. L. W. Gray, of Bethel Baptist Church, is confined in the Christ Hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. William Green have moved into the Crawford's Men's Home as caretakers.

The Midnight Ramblers were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wrenn's guest on Saturday. Bridge was played and prizes were given Mrs. Bertha Rodriguass and Mervin Jackson, first, and the consolation to Everett Parker, guest of the evening.

Mrs. Fannie Helvey has fully recovered.

Mrs. Lou Walton and Mary Finlay were hostesses Sunday to a party at the former's home. The evening was spent in playing cards. Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Golden Synder, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Rodriguass, Miss Ann Boyd, and Messrs. Anderson and Lawrence Finlay.

Mrs. Madeline Robinson Pigua Street Church held its first anniversary celebration on Sunday. A special program was presented. Atty. George B. Conrad was one of the speakers.

Little Grandison Embry is recuperating from a tonsillotomy operation at the children's hospital.

Tuesday the executive committee for the R. P. McClain campaign held a supper at the Edgemont Inn for the workers. Miss Ethel Irwin was in charge.

Little Geraldine Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Johnson, entered the children's hospital on Monday preparatory for an appendicitis operation.

Wednesday Miss Margaret Riley was hostess to the So Re Lits.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. King drove to Chicago, Ill., for the weekend.

Mrs. Ruth Baltimore was called here from Cleveland, Ohio, with her daughter, Miss Dorothy Baltimore, to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Pearl Marie French, who died at the General Hospital on Wednesday. Funeral services were held on October 12.

Mrs. Otis Robinson accompanied by her granddaughters, Constance E. and Otis Mae Caley, has gone to Americus, Ga., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Lydia M. Caley.