

Guide Right Week Program Is Enjoyable

Kappa Men Celebrate At Morgan College

BALTIMORE, Md., April 30—Alph Iota chapter of Morgan college and the Alumni chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi held the annual celebration of Guide Right Week, beginning with a tea at Cosmopolitan Community church on Sunday. Speakers included Professor Leslie Pinkney Hill, president of Cheyney, who was introduced by Dr. William Madison, of Howard university and junior vice polemarch. The history of Guide Right Week was given by Prof. Leonidas S. James, principal of the Maryland Normal school at Bowie. Remarks were made by James E. Scott, of Washington and member of the Grand Board of Directors and Dr. H. Greene, provincial polemarch of the Eastern Province. Dr. William Taylor of Washington sang, while Miss Marion Jackson, soprano of Balto, was soloist during the tea and social hour that followed.

On Tuesday and Wednesday at chapel hours speakers from Kappa appeared at Morgan college and at Douglas high school. Tuesday evening the Alph Iota chapter, assisted by the Alumni chapter, presented Ellis Lane Larkins, piano prodigy in recital at Cosmopolitan Community church. A smoker for the fathers of graduates of the June class at Douglass high school was given. The events closed with a formal dance at the Strand ballroom on Friday.

Dr. Isaac Young is polemarch of the Alumni chapter and James Dougherty, of Alpha Iota chapter.
