

- AROUND THE HUB II Boston, Mas

86 Harold Street—Phone Hig 484

BOSTON, Mass., May 13 — Misses Janice Banks and June Smith of Cambridge spent the spring school vacation visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eloridge Jackson of Portland.

Mrs. Amy Sheppard of Shawmut avenue who has been convalescing in Lawrence with relatives, returned to her home much improved.

Among the members of the Psi Omega chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority, who are attending the regional are Mrs. Lucy Mitchell, Dr. Jessye Garnett, Miss Thelma Thornton, Mrs. Helen Coates, Dr. Mary Wright and Miss Florence Wiggington.

Miss Dorothy Weeks, nurse at the Lincoln hospital, returned to her home on Curve street, West Newton, where she will recuperate from an illness. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Gladys Weeks.

A program of unusual interest was presented Sunday at the League of Women for Community service by the members of the Club Laissez Faire in honor of Mothers' day. The guests artists included Lucille Norman, reader; Drina Stewart, pianist; Barbara Childs, soprano soloist; Helen Worthy, violinist; Geraldine Irving, pianist; and Romeyn Lippman, tenor soloist.

The members of the club include William Worthy, Warren McClane, Matthew Bullock, Drue King, Andrew Robinson, James Lane, Corinus Stokes, Leopold Hall, John Batson, Joseph Chandler, Elliot Gray, Francis Wilson, Aubrey Clarman, Maceo Harris, Winston Campbell and Willard Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Remy of Wellington street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Arlene E. Remy to Joseph W. Holmes.

Mrs. McDuffie Here

Mrs. Lizzie McDuffie of Washington, member of President Roosevelt's staff, was the guest speaker at the Harriet Tubman house Sunday. The occasion was a tea sponsored by Mrs. Mable Dean in honor of the Harriet Tubman Crusaders and their mothers.

The final meeting of the Unity Circle Republican club was one of interest. The meeting was held in the Practical Arts high school with Mrs. Helen S. Whiteman, chairman, presiding.

Joseph Lee, Jr., member of the school committee; Miss Susan Ginn, supervisor of vocational guidance; Miss Katherine McCue, vocational director. Mrs. Elizabeth Pidgeon, former member of the school committee; Miss Freda White, Mrs. G. Willie, committee-woman of South Boston; Mrs. T. Purcell, state committee-woman of Ward 10 and Mrs. Vera Beale, treasurer of the city committee of Ward 11 were the speakers.

Mrs. Hazel Custis of New York motored here to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas of Clarendon avenue, North Cambridge. She was accompanied by Mrs. Marguerite Allen who visited relatives in Cambridge.

Baby Anne Yarbrough of Chilton street, Cambridge is ill at the Cambridge hospital.

Aristo Notes

Following an annual custom, Aristo daughters entertained their mothers at dinner Sunday in the spacious dining room of the Western Lunch box. Each mothers' place was marked by a vase of Talisman roses and the center of the long banquet table was decorated with Bermuda Easter lilies which were brought back by the Aristo members spending an Easter vacation there.

Greetings were extended to the mothers by Miss Gertrude Smith, president; entertaining narrations of Bermuda travels were given by Geraldine Barker, Harriet Taylor, Wilhelmina Crosson, Frances Bennett and Alberta Carrington and group singing of songs. Among the guests and members were Mesdames Mary B. Smith, Harry Taylor, Rosalie Smith, Julius Bell, William Gray, L. Barker, G. Kitt, Edward Morris, Elizabeth Bennett, Nancy Easterling, S. Dance, S. M. Carrington; members, Misses Tersa Lew, Helen Danc, Eleanor and Frances Bennett, Alma Kitt, Gladys Gray, Myrtle Sampbell, now of the N. A. A. C. P. office in New York City and Mesdames Vera Reddick and Rowena Taylor.

Applications for Aristo's scholarship of $100 may be filed with the following members of the Educational committee: Teresa Lew, chairman, 89 Mt. Hope street, Lowell; Helen Danc, 15 Crawford street, Roxbury; Marian Holmes, 34 Granville street, Haverhill and Alma Kitt, 9 Seattle street, Alliston. This scholarship is to all high school students planning to enter a Massachusetts institution of higher learning.

Music lovers enjoyed an opera lecture by Alice W. Whitehouse Sunday at the League of Women for Community service, sponsored by the William Rhodes Opera society. Opera arias were sung by Bessie Mayle, soprano; Harvey Huggins, baritone and William McDaniel's, tenor.

Received Certificates

The graduation exercises of the h Cross Home Hygiene and first aid classes sponsored by the Boston Tuberculosis association were held Friday at the Everett school with Miss Bernice Billings, white, executive secretary of the association, presiding. Invocation was by the Rev. W. S. Ravenell, pastor of the Ebenezer Baptist church; music was furnished by the WPA county orchestra.

A play, "Miss Tuberculosis on Trial," written by member Mrs. Louise Gaskins, proved interesting and instructive. Demonstrations in both classes proved the aptness of pupils instructed by Mrs. Dorothy Hayward, white, in home nursing and Miss Gladys Dorrie, white, in first aid.

Home Nursing certificates were awarded by Mrs. Jessie Higgs, R. N. to: Sarah Anderson, Lillian Black, Rita Campbell, Meryl Chandler, C. Cohen, Ida Foss, Pearl Davis, Louise Gaskins, Lela Graham, C. Griffin, Callie Green, Anna Johnson, Dorothy Holt, G. Law, Edith Lewis, Olga Marsman, G. Madison, Ethel Scott, C. McCree, H. Oxford, J. Richardson, M. J. Robinson, Ethel Stewart, Ruby Thompson, C. Tappin and Martha Scott.

George Johnson awarded first aid certificates to Louise Armstrong, Flora Brown, Winifred Batum, C. Brown, Pearl Hines, Mary Chisholm, C. Burgess, Gertha Cunningham, Alice Garnett, Rhoda Hunter, K. Jefferson, Estelle Jones, N. Khan, Eva Maybin, C. Knowles, Marion Marsh, Blanche McHenry, C. Joseph, M. Milby, Edith Smith and Sara Salzman.

Dr. Louise Diez, director of Division of Child Hygiene of Massachusetts State Department of Health, was the guest speaker. Other speakers were Dr. T. E. A. McCurdy, member of the Boston Tuberculosis Association council; Mrs. Jessie Harris, chairman of the Health guild.

Republican Club Meets

Over 150 members of the Young Republican club of Cambridge attended the regular monthly meeting Monday at the Cambridge Community centre, with H. Leslie Smith, president, presiding.

Among the many speakers were Attorney Joseph S. Mitchell, head of the Massachusetts State Republican club, Joseph Cacciatore, white, president of the Aragon Italian American Republican club; Dr. Alexander Cox, A. McKinnon, secretary to Congressman Luce and F. Edgerly, secretary of the organization.

St. Mark's team was represented by Miss Jefferson, Mrs. Ruby Irish, Miss Lillian Roberts, Mrs. Dorothy Brice, Miss Jessie Coffey, Mrs. Marian Townes; Aubrey Evans, E. Bayne, Conrad Barrows, Otis Carey, Alden Corbett, Harry White, Alonzo Thompson, Wilbur Bright, Hilton Hill, Roland Bernard, Harry Jefferson, Alonzo Thompson, Wilbur Bright, Hilton Hill, Roland Bernard, Harry Jefferson, Henry Booker, James Glass, Howard Thomas, Franck Townes and Calvin Thomas.

Columbus Avenue AME Zion Church

Mothers day was fittingly observed by an appropriate sermon by the pastor, of the Columbus Avenue A. M. E. Zion church, the Rev. W. D. Battle, Sunday. Exercises were held in all departments. At an afternoon service the pastor was the guest speaker at the annual sermon of the G. U. O. O. F. The Trustees' aid society held annual pew rally during the evening services with the Rev. E. E. Thompson, D. D. of Medford as the guest speaker. Much interest is manifested in the coming mock wedding sponsored by the Calendar club of which Mrs. Ada Battle is president.

Deaths And Funerals

Nathan Rhone, 36 Kendall street, died Wednesday. Funeral services were held at the J. B. Johnson Funeral home with interment at Fairview cemetery.

Thomas Hall of 65 Shawmut avenue died last week. Services were held Thursday with interment at Fairview cemetery.

Funeral services for Hampton Harris of 230 Harvard street, Dorchester were held Tuesday at the J. B. Johnson funeral home with interment at Fairview cemetery.

Lester Paine of 973A Tremont street who died last week was buried at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Thomas Hanson of 21 Mayo street, died last week and was buried at Mt. Hope cemetery. Funeral services were held at the J. B. Johnson funeral parlors.

Ernest A. Gray, husband of Mrs. Madeline Gray of 40 Harold street died after a long illness at the Peter Bent Brigham hospital. Mr. Gray was employed for many years at the Parker house. Funeral services were held at the Ebenezer Baptist church, the Rev. William S. Ravenell, pastor officiating. Interment at Cambridge cemetery.