

OHIO STATE

Cleveland

By ALEANDER O. TAYLOR
232 Central Avenue

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 1.—Congratulations: To Miss Effie Lee Morris, the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Morris of 2296 East 134th street. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Morris received the joyful news that their daughter had been awarded an honor scholarship by Chicago university for meritorious academic achievements and outstanding activities records in high school work. Miss Morris had planned to enter the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Now, it's Chicago university for her.

O. A. Taylor

The East End Pinocle club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lavigne at their cosy home on East 100th street. Prizes went to Mrs. Margie Kirklund first; Eugene Turner, second. The members were sorry to learn of Mrs. Lessie Kyle's illness. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Chapman of Elyria, who visited her mother, Mrs. Anna Howe, and the Ira Valentines. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kyle of Overlook road. Mrs. Ira Valentine, president; Mrs. A. Lavigne, secretary.

Dr. Garvin Honored
President Winifred G. Leutner of Western Reserve university announced the appointment of Dr. Charles H. Garvin, one of Cleveland's outstanding physicians and surgeons, as clinical instructor in genito-urinary surgery in which he (Dr. Garvin) has specialized for some time. He is the only Race instructor on Western Reserve's faculty and Xall Cleveland is proud of him. For the past eight years or more Dr. Garvin has served as a demonstrator. His work has been of such standard that it has won the admiration and special attention of Western Reserve's medical faculty.

President G. H. Ambrose announces the 19th Ward Civic and Political club's first annual mid-summer festival at the Cosmopolitan club, Thursday, July 28, Charles H. Partee is general chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth C. Lockett, vice chairman.

Dr. Ernest Hall preached the annual baccalaureate sermon of the Wilkins school of Cosmetology Sunday at East Mt Zion Baptist church and the Elks annual sermon in the afternoon.

We are pleased to note that Miss Monica Lockett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Lockett, 2254 East 103rd street was appointed playground leader at the Kingsley Arter center of the Phyllis Wheatley association on East 100th street. Credit for the selection goes to Council President and Ward Leader Alexander L. (Sonny) De Maioribus and William (Bill) Stewart, director of personnel of the Burton administration.

The Lincoln Embroidery club will picnic in Metropolitan Park July 10. Mrs. Leak Moon is president; Mrs. Natalie Connors, secretary. The L. B. club enjoyed its picnic Friday in the Rose Garden of Wade park. Mrs. Irene Hudson is president; Mrs. Irene Cyrus, secretary.

Most colorful was the wedding of Miss Lue Ethel Jones and Robert Murphy at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bush, 2288 East Eighty-ninth street, suite 3, on Saturday. A reception followed the impressive ceremony.

Mrs. William Terrell of East Eighty-second street, proved a charming hostess when she entertained at a surprise afternoon bridge luncheon a number of ladies who were requested to appear in their formals and were among the surprised when told that it was the celebration of her birthday.

Among the guests were Mrs. Flint, Mrs. J. D. Billingslean, Mrs. Odessa Billingslea, Mrs. Mary Miles, Mrs. Clara Nutter, Mrs. Pearl Turner, Mrs. Mattie Taylor, Mrs. Demmitt, Mrs. Daisy Valentine, Mrs. Bertha Johnson, and Mrs. Alexander. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Harney of Alabama and Mrs. McVeigh of Chicago.

Rev. Dr. Austin, pastor of Pilgrim Baptist church, Chicago, will be next Sunday's speaker on the "Wings Over Jordan" program Sunday at 9:30 o'clock. Tune in on Detroit or Akron Columbia Broadcasting station. Dr. Rideout of New Jersey was Sunday's speaker. Both are known as outstanding speakers. Dr. Rideout spoke most interesting on Paul Lawrence Dunbar. The Gethsemane Choral Society, as usual were splendid.

Colorful and swanky was the dance given by the Gay Caballeros Saturday in the Standard Bank roof garden. Charming Dana Marie Tuck, recent Oberlin high graduate attended the party, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Geneva Tuck, who spent the evening with friends, while Dana Marie and "Bus" Talbot attended the dance. Joseph (Joe) Hanlin brought the Tucks up from Oberlin in his car.

Mrs. Stewart entertained the "Pennies From Heaven" Social club at her home, 2258 East Seventy-ninth street. Mrs. India Shipley was the hostess at the previous meeting. Bridge honors went to Mrs. Katie Jones and Mrs. Louise Thomas. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lydell Freeman of Detroit and Mrs. Silas Dixon and William Thomas of Cleveland.

The Civic League of St. John A. M. E. church held its closing meeting of the season with M. C. Clark, president of the Dunbar Mutual Insurance company, introducing as the principal speaker, A. T. Spaulding of the North Carolina Mutual who spoke very interestingly in "Economic Values and Services of Life Insurance." Rev. Dr. J. O. Haithcox, pastor, spoke and music was furnished by the Civic League chorus, Thomas Hill, pianist.

Mrs. Carol Johnson Dies
Most shocking was the news of the death of popular Mrs. Carol Carter Johnson, 29, wife of Fred Johnson, well known postal clerk. Mrs. Johnson died at Mt. Sinai hospital from pneumonia contracted following the birth of a son. Another shocking angle to the announcement of Mrs. Johnson's death was the news of the sudden death of her aunt, Mrs. Harper of Marietta, following reading of the telegram of her niece's death in Cleveland. Mrs. Johnson's remains were sent to Marietta, where a double funeral was held. Mr. Johnson's and mother-in-law, Mrs. Jackson, 2151 East Eighty-third street, accompanied the remains to Marietta.

Mr. and Mrs. James Turner of East 100th street entertained Saturday at a bridge party. Some of the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armistead, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Valentine and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Storr.

You'll writer met Saturday evening at Cedar avenue and East 105th street one of Cleveland's most popular shopping centers Miss Audrey Beasley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Beasley, Sr., of 2208 East 101st street, who returned recently from Fisk university. Nancy Phillips, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. C. H. Phillips, and Mary Atkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey T. Atkins, are also seen on the boulevard. They expect as their guest their fellow co-ed, Miss Evelyn Dorsey of Chattanooga.

Vivian, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Dickson of East Ninetieth street, was seen Friday about the city hall and public auditorium, seeking a position on her vacation. She is a student at Howard university, Washington.

Congratulations: To Miss Gertrude Lena Brown, former general secretary of Antioch Baptist church here, who graduated recently with honors from Spelman university, Atlanta. Miss Brown was president of her class and had the honor of being the composer of the class poem. Mrs. Ella Gertrude Brown, 10505 Arthur avenue had the pleasure of making the trip to Atlanta to witness the graduation. Miss Brown has been appointed to a secretarial position at Morehouse college, Atlanta.

Mrs. Helen Brown of East Ninety-fifth street was taken to a hospital Saturday critically ill. She was to undergo an operation Sunday.

B. I. Hutchinson, 10513 Arthur avenue who underwent successfully a local operation on his kidneys two weeks ago was to undergo a major operation the first of the week. Mr. Hutchinson, a member of the official board of St. James A. M. E. church is well known as the Republican leader in Ward 19, precinct AA.

Congratulations: To Mrs. Mary Taylor-Gates who was elected financial secretary at the annual convention of the Ohio State federation of Women's clubs held in Toledo. Mrs. Gates is a national figure in club and fraternal circles. Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, popular juvenile worker, attended the sessions on the last day of the convention.

Mrs. Maude (J. A.) Smith-Goode, East Liverpool, Ohio, active club and Missionary worker stopped off in Cleveland to spend the week-end with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. William E. McIntire, 2100 East Eighty-fifth street, en route from Toledo, Ohio, where the annual convention of the Women's State Federation was held. Mrs. Goode was elected president of the Ohio Valley district. Mrs. Goode is also noted as a song writer, one of her songs being used at the convention.

Mrs. Dora Howard, 9502 Quebec avenue suffered a relapse and is confined to her bed.

John Nichols, seriously injured in an automobile accident six weeks ago is now home, 2265 East Ninety-seventh street, after being confined in St. Alexis hospital. His wife, Mrs. Alice Nichols, also injured, continues to improve. Prior to her accident, Mrs. Nichols was a clerk in the employment of the city-federal service. Mrs. Nichols has also been very active in 19th ward Republican circles.

Mr. and Mrs. George Craddock entertained at a Joe Louis party Wednesday, christening their new recreation room in the basement of their home, 2228 East 103rd street. Thirty guests were there to enjoy the exceptional hospitality of Mr. Craddock and his wife, Mrs. Mildred Tedford Craddock. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armistead, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lavigne, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Valentine, Claude Williams and company, Mrs. Bernice Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wells and Mr. and Mrs. James Turner.

Mrs. Julia Scott, 724 Quincy avenue writes that she is having a lovely visit in the South land. After spending two weeks with her mother in Jackson, Miss., she was to meet Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hughes of 7624 Quincy avenue in Chattanooga, where they were to spend a week. Accompanying the Hughes couple were their nephew and niece, Jimmie Jackson and Lydia Hughes.

Congratulations: To Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gibson, 2329 East 100th street, whose son, Ralph, was voted the best all-round pupil graduating from Fairmount Junior high school. Ralph will enter East High in the fall.

Wilton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols of 2265 East 97th street, completed his studies at Fairmount Junior high school with outstanding honors. He goes from 9-B to 9-A. Disregarding illness he has done a fine job finishing "tops" with his class. He was presented with a Latin letter made in Italy for outstanding achievement. Wilton is "tops" in the Cleveland News contest and is in line for first prize.

Mrs. Alice Nichols of East Ninety-seventh street, received word of the critical illness of her mother. Her two sisters, Miss Mamie Sims of 2250 East Eighty-sixth street and Mrs. Syble Harris, 257 Harrison street, Beloit, Wis., are at their mother's bedside. Mrs. Nichols was unable to join them due to her recent injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Treking The Bridal Paths
Marriage licenses were issued the past week to the following named Cleveland couples: Leroy Davis, 43, 2555 22nd street and Juanita Turner, 40, 2555 East 22nd street; George Saunders, 50, 2448 East 79th street and Sadie Russell, 42, 8212 Quincy avenue. Lornie Sims, 47, 2182 East 87th street and Carrie Fields, 31, 2311 East 83rd street; Spencer Oliver, Jr., 27, 2621 Scovill avenue and Gertrude Donnell, 27, 254 5East 33rd street; Joseph Wilkins, 21, 3724 Woodland avenue and Merline Howard, 18, 215 Hawthorne avenue; Wynston Brown, 48, 2290 East 86th street and Hazelle Blake, 42, 2227 East 90th street; Roy Rector, 41, 2170 East 100th street and Ruth Bentley, 42, 2348 East 88th street; Overton McGlothlan, 30, 7704 Cedar avenue and Jane Baul, 24, 7714 Sherman avenue; James Sims, 31, 2285 East 46th street and Mattie Parson, 26, 2158 East 43rd street; John Wilson, 29, 3268 East 126th street and Florence Banks, 24, 3317 East 123th street; Eugene Brown, 22, 2186 East 105th street and Eutris Kent, 20, 2205 East 85th street; William Davis, 40, 4207 Cedar avenue and Lina Lamb, 37, 9914 Westchester avenue. Russell Osborne, 23, Clearfield, Pa., and Lois Thompson, 21, 4206 Cedar avenue; Oscar Collins, 29, 2183 East 76th street and Marie Honesty, 21, 2171 East 97th street; Albert Christian, 35, 8409 Quincy avenue and Anne Sorrels, 25, 2562 East 61st street; Douglas Gordon, 22, 2177 East 43rd street and Virginia Peters, 21, 4445 Cedar avenue; John Hall, 24, 1926 Scovill avenue and Janet Calloway, 18, 5901 Scovill avenue; William Mitchell, 21, 2330 East 63rd street and Pauline Lowery, 16, 2350 East 61st street; Jimmie West, 21, 3742 Woodland avenue and Annette Watts, 18, 2692 East 74th street.

Deaths of The Week
Listed among the deaths of the past week were the following named Clevelanders: Wilson Alonzo, 72, 2409 East 49th street; Charles Dorsey, 33, 2903 East 33rd street; Juanita Fombro, 1 year, 2417 East 57th street; Eva Gilchrist, 36, 5719 Thackery avenue. George Howard, 49, 2240 East 95th street; Edward Hall 41, 2209 East 31st street; Alex Luncy, 65, 2324 East 33rd street; Minnie Munford, 30, 2475 East 82nd street; Alma Reese, 16, 5603 Cobleigh court; Laura Sam, 42, 2361 East 30th street; Louis Dison, 48, 2920 Woodland avenue; Delia Taylor, 48, 3743 Scovill avenue; Charles Setles, 60, 6407 Grand avenue; Harold Wall, 65, 3847 Scovill avenue. Lillian Gray, 53, 2225 East 108th street; Mahlon Johnson, 55, 2615 East 76th street; George Norris, 54, 2917 Scoville avenue; Jessie Terrell, 30, 2622 East 31st street.

Divorce Court News
Divorce suits were filed in the Cleveland Common Pleas court the past week by the following named plaintiffs: Rodella Day, 5619 Central avenue against Charles Day, Columbus, Ohio; Mabel Harrison, 7904 Central avenue, against Tom. Harrison, address unknown; Mary Jones, 2416 East 84th street, against Leroy Jones, 2416 East 34th street; Rachel Alexander, 2495 East 89th street, against Samuel Alexander, address unknown; Thomas Catledge, 5802 Central avenue against Ida Catledge, 3614 Foote court; Mattie Price, 2551 East 61st street against Ellis Price, 2213 East 35th street; Geneva Hightower, 3734 Woodland avenue against Mack Hightower, 6112 Woodland avenue. Nellie Middleton, 3356 East 128th street against Walter Middleton, 2240 East 87th street.

Divorces were granted to the following: Lillie Williams, 3413 Scovill avenue from Charles Williams; Easter Young, 5802 Quincy avenue from Taylor Young, 6415 Woodland avenue.