

Baha'i Leader Enroute To Chicago For Confab

DETROIT, Jan. 19—Atty. Louis Gregory of Boston, en route to Chicago to attend a conference at the Baha't temple in that city, stopped in Windsor Friday to deliver an address at Hotel Norton Palmer, under the auspices of the High Twelve of the Masonic fraternity.

Monday night Mr. Gregory spoke in Detroit, addressing a group of Baha'i adherents at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis on "Unity of Mankind." His subject in Windsor was "Racial Amity."