VICTORY EDITION

ALL TRUE Americans—of all colors, faiths and creeds — will want to read and keep for the future this Victory Edition of the Chicago Defender. It will be a living testimonial of the loyalty and patriotism of Negro America, a thrilling record of history in the making.

In its pages which will include two magazines and a complete picture section, will be contributions from every leading American on the most discussed subject in the land today — the Negro in the war effort. This issue pulls no punches. Its articles will be a topic of conversation for months to come.

The contents of this edition are planned and edited as permanent source material for speeches, radio talks and articles relative to unity and victory.

Whenever Americans gather to discuss winning of the war, in every key production conference, in staff headquarters at the front lines, in civilian defense meetings on the home front, around the supper table with the family — the contents of this Victory Edition will be discussed in the decisive days ahead.

Your organization and you personally will want to get this Victory Edition to as many white people as possible. That can be your contribution towards winning the war both at home and abroad. To guarantee your participation in this outstanding publishing event, use the coupon below and get your order for the special Victory Edition in the mails tonight.
