

Photo Standalone 9 -- No Title

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Jul 20, 1957;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 4

MEMBERS OF THE Cosmopolitan Chamber of Commerce with businesses located in the 61st-63rd-Cottage Grove-South Parkway area of Chicago held a luncheon at Ted's Diner, 6450 Cottage Grove and made plans for an intensive program for the improvement of the shopping streets. Standing left to right Frank L. Moran and Charles R. Gill, both of Southeast National Bank, A. L. Foster, Jesse V. James, barber and Anthony T. Quarles, real estate. Seated are Ellsworth Blackwell, Golden State Mutual Ins. Co., Earl J. Taylor, Allanta Life Ins., Co., Le-

Roy Fowler, field representative CCC, Bryant A. Hammond, Parkway Garden Homes, James B. Anderson, Peoples Burial Association, Samuel M. Dixon, Parkway Garden Homes, Joseph DeJohnette, real estate, Gertrude J. Tolbert, field representative CCC, Robert B. Burns, real estate.