

EULALIA BOBO, sister of former heavyweight boxing champion, Joe Louis, speaks at 8 o'clock Saturday night at the Chicago Baha'l Center, 116 S. Michigan Ave. Room 1106 . . . When you read this, LESSIE SCOTT, wife of musician Leon Scott, will be in Mobile, Ala., visiting with her mother . . . If you have missed seeing MAUDINE SYKES, you'll find her at the Third Ward Democratic Headquarters where she is one of the assistants of Alderman RALPH METCALFE . . . Word comes from New Orleans that Mrs. LAMOTHE, who operated a cleaning and pressing shop near the Ida Mae Scott hospital, is dead . . . EUGENE HARRIS, Grand Hotel barber and his wife, will be on a Mexican Airliner enroute to Mexico City, before this ink dries . . . MABLE GRUBBS is sporting a sun tan after that vacation in Dixie. Sometime during the night, a cat gave birth to four kittens on a ladies back porch, on top of her laundry bag of clothing. Her husband, who was always chastised for drinking, hid a bottle behind the laundry bag with intentions of getting it in the morning on his way to work. However, the mother cat in protection of her kittens, "dared" him to come near her, and he was forced to go to work without it. He called his wife after he had gone to work to tell her what happened and asked her to please protect his bottle. The Mrs. got in touch with the Humane Society to remove the kittens. She said she hopes this will "break up her husband's drinking habits."

BETTY LIGHTSEY'S Crest Modeling School's "Miss Sepia of 1966" was feted with a cocktail party and reception at Maxim's de Paris, in Paris, France during her stay in the French capital. Special honored guest at the affair was Jean Louis Mandereau, Consul General of France . . . Benjo Johnson, is away from his tailoring business while recuperating from a mild attack . . . Drop the popular Benjo a get well card at 4641 Woodlawn . . . Harriet (Royalites) Jackson is back from out of town trek to enter her two youngsters in school . . . Speaking of Jacksons, Edward and son, Michael, are both interested in news photography with the senior Jackson coming on as a real "snapper." . . . That grand opening party at Club DeLisa was a real gone and cool spectacular . . . And speaking of spectaculars what about the special party staged at Flukie's hot spot, 83rd and Cottage Saturday night . . . Blanche Towlsome and Ernestine Davis are enjoying the beaches in Hawaii where they will be vacationing for another week.

FRED WALL SAYING "No, No" to second helping in Walgreens 'tother day with weight warning to himself as well as friends nearby . . . Members of committee are talking about one of their workers who decided shoes found in a gift bag for rummage sale were to her liking and put them on her feet instead . . . Katie Washington, Lillie Hester, Nell Aldrich, Cora Harris and Florence Hensley are beauticians ever willing to aid charity causes . . . Speaking of beauticians did you notice how fine Lois Simpson, and Lydia Adams looked Sunday past? . . . Dr. Robert Joyner says his luck at Oaklawn past winter couldn't be held through Arlington trips that followed . . . Most destructive minded youths in town are those who toss rocks at windows of schools, breaking many and smiling at their rude luck . . . If you doubt this has been done, you must not have noticed school buildings during the summer months.

PUBLIC GOSSIP has it that "Tall" Paul Hankins who rose to the top under direction of Bill Tyson of Biscayne Recording Company, has elected to take his talents (what he has) to another company . . . Bill, the report says further, has willingly consented to the switch even though he's responsible for the guy's arrival on the scene . . . Tom Williams of Kansas City is in town guesting his in-laws while wife sees the World's Fair in New York . . . Friends have reasoned how "T.S." manages to have wigs for all different colors of her shoes. She works in a wig factory on far north side of city . . . That girl friend who was left dateless by a certain soloist in one of city's larger churches, was furious when she learned that the boy friend's director had him on a "sight seeing trip" into North Michigan . . . Now that things are about settled within the ranks of certain church quarters, the officials are discussing rebuilding. If plans jell Chicago will have another fine and brand new church by 1961.

DADDIO DAYLIE'S Fun League softball league season is about ended but plans are already afoot to launch the biggest bowling league ever offered local lovers of the roll and pin game . . . The stem is buzzing over report that raid on a certain "crap game" the other night resulted in the temporary arrest of one of city's better known young professionals. His initials? "T.J." . . . Employees at the popular H and H cafe on 51st Street, are wondering plenty about the source that brought a fine automobile to one of spot's waitresses. Old Nosey knows. Tee, hee . . . Many visitors to Chicago are surprised (and saying so) to see some of the better Southside Hotels of the past in such rundown conditions today. On the other hand they offer praise for the conditions, and general cleanliness found in some of the motels . . . That hair pulling, roll-over waitress brawl on Michigan at 66th was actually the climax of a swearing session the two ladies had engaged in earlier, while cabaretting at the New Club Delisa . . . And as you must have guessed the cause-de-fight involved a playboy who dates both girls at times.

"DEAR NOSEY," suggests the mail bags, Won't you please tell a certain trustee in that very large church on Street (south of 40th Street and north of 44th) to get wise to himself: The trustee, unemployed and 60 years of age, talks of nothing but young girls, making passes at many of those he comes in contact with, and regularly. What does the old man have to offer? Nothing, absolutely. Here's hoping his pastor, the Rev. "See, See" reads this . . . Friends of some of the "girl victims" are talking about the operator of a record mart between 33 and 34 East of South Parkway, who has set a requirement for jobs that includes a girl must have been married (and separated) to get employment in his place. Also that they must agree on him as a substitute husband to get a job . . . This information comes from a former employee . . . Pressure is being brought on the guy responsible, for the following: A young girl who elected to return to school after a year's dropout will not be able to do so for at least six months. In that time she figures to have become free of the extra (premature) weight she has been carrying around recently. The guy involved is an east 43rd Street tavern operator.

HEAR TELL a syndicate that will include Sugar Ray Robinson, George Treadwell, former husband of Sarah Vaughn and now a handler of talent; and an ex-numbers baron, plan opening Broadway night club early this winter . . . From the loop district comes word that downtown hotels will increase rental of their large halls to southside clubs and other organizations. Alleged destruction of property (by some parties) is said to have motivated the decision . . . If you have wonder about identity of those two fine ones driving a green Cadillac bearing Ohio license, Nosey can tell you they are Freda Mae Bell and Ernestine Crompton of Cleveland. Freda Mae is a former Chicagoan here visiting relatives . . . If you've noticed increase in number of squad cars parading along Drexel Nosey can tell you it is due to report of numerous "pickups" operating along the path of late.
