

Baha'i World Religion Day

World religion day will be observed at the Baha'i House of Worship in Wilmette Sunday Jan. 18, at 3:45. Elizabeth Haynes, of Glencoe, will speak on "World Religion: Basis for World Education."

Mrs. Haynes, formerly affiliated with the Los Angeles city school system in California is a traveling library service representative, is presently an administrative assistant to the secretariat of the National Baha'i Office and a member of the Urban League working in the field of race relations.

World Religion Day has been sponsored annually for the past twenty years by the United States Baha'i community. Its purpose is to spread the knowledge of the oneness of all revealed religions and to gain recognition of religion as the motivating force for world unity. Baha'is see true education which breaks down barriers between men, eradicates prejudice, builds the whole man and extols service to humanity.

The public is cordially invited to both the worship service at 3 p.m. and the public meeting at 3:45.
