Baha'is To Hear Kellum

Members of the Baha'i Faith of Oaklawn, Park Forest, Lansing and Joliet will gather at 10 a.m. Sunday at Blake-Lamb 4727 West 103rd St. to hear David W. Kellum give a comprehensive report on the recent 61st annual National Baha'i Convention held in Wilmette April 30 through May 3.

Kellum will be KELLUM introduced by Mrs. Margaret chairman. A pot luck lunch will follow the speaking. As Stevens, who is to serve as one of the nine delegates of methods of control, contain-Northern Illinois, Kellum has made reports to the Chicago and Palatine communities. At the latter meeting, Mrs. Dan Allison was chairman.

Kellum, a member of the Chicago Baha'i Local Spiritual Assembly, is a former newspaperman and creator of the nationally famous Bud Billiken parade and picnic.

The Baha'i' Faith is an independent world religion that was founded in Persia (now Iran) in 1844. Baha'is believe that their Founder, Baha'u'llah, is the Bearer of God's Word for this Age. Baha'u'llah taught the oneness of God, the oneness of religion and the oneness of mankind. The Baha'i' Faith is now established in over 300 countries and territories.
