BIRKENHEAD, MANCHESTER, and CHESHIRE JUNCTION RAILWAY.—The DIRECT LINE OF RAILWAY, which is proposed to connect the Great Western Railway, from the Birkenhead, Manchester, and Cheshire Docks, and the centre of Liverpool, Manchester, and the Midland Counties, with the Docks and Warehouses, and the Great Western Railway, at Birkenhead, is now open for the reception of Goods and Cattle for transmission.

The Directors of the Birkenhead, Manchester, and Cheshire Junction Railway, have the honour to announce that the Line will be opened for a Passenger Traffic on the 1st of May next.

It will also accommodate the Public with important Goods and Passenger Communications, including the intermediate towns of Hinckley, Nuneaton, and Atherstone, a distance of 18 miles from Leicester, containing a population of 40,000, chiefly engaged in manufactures, and open a direct communication with the Midland Counties, and the Great Northern Railway, for the Passenger and Goods Traffic between Liverpool and Ireland.

It will also accommodate the important Coal and Iron districts in the Hinckley and Ansley Fields, hitherto rendered almost inaccessible for want of the means of transit.

In addition to this local traffic, this line will have the great advantage through the Midland Counties and Northern Railways, of a direct traffic arising on the Nuneaton and Leicester Railway, opening a direct communication along the Midland Counties with the Northern Markets.

The main line will have a distance of ten miles between Leicester and Birmingham.

The Act of the main line which this Company proposes to construct, is now in progress through the Houses of Parliament, and the main line is intended to commence by a junction with the Midland Railway at Burbage Common, in the parish of Hinckley and Barwell, in the town of Hinckley and Nuneaton to unite with the Trent Valley Railway at a point not later than the Nuneaton station, on the west of the town of Atherstone, and from thence to the Birmingham and Derby Railway, forming a communication with Rugby and the South.

The branch line will commence at the Broughton Astley station, and terminate by a junction with the Birmingham and Derby Railway, near to Desford.

Applications for Shares may be addressed in the usual form to the Secretary.

LICENSED VICTUALLERS' ASYLUM.—INCORPORATED BY ROYAL CHARTER, 6th VICTORIA, 1843.

THE Chairman and Board of Management have much pleasure in announcing that the ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL of the Institution for the present year will take place on TUESDAY, the 29th instant, at the WHITE CONDUIT HOUSE, Islington, on which occasion the Chair will be taken by Mr. Alderman JAMES GODING, Esq., for the first of Messrs. James Scelby and Co., Jacksdene-road, Lambeth, has, in the kindest possible manner, consented to preside. The Chairman's Board of Management and Stewards will be present at a numerous attendance of their friends, and that the result of the day may prove highly beneficial to the Institution, by handing it annually to increase the Fund which was some time since set on foot as an Asylum for the Aged Widows and Orphans of Licensed Victuallers. The Institution may be rendered still more comfortable than the Board have already made it, and many more Widows and Orphans of Licensed Victuallers be placed in the Asylum, but, in addition to the comfortable Apartments which the Institution now affords, the supply afforded them of coals, and of clothing, it is greatly to be desired that a permanent fund of which the Board regret to say, at present very inadequate to effect the latter object, the Board are compelled to draw very much on the ordinary income of the Institution. Funds, the interest of which the Board regret to say, at present very inadequate to effect the latter object, the Board are compelled to draw very much on the ordinary income of the Institution. Funds, the interest of which, in
