

Bahai Nest Mount Carmel

Haifa, Syria

September 13th 1914

Dear friends:

Quiet Glory and Peace reigns on Mount Carmel for the Lord of Love abides on it. Many a spot is hallowed by His Presence and the Mountain air is permeated with his gentle Call to Peace and Conciliation. In the vicinity of Abdul Baha the heart of man becomes a fountain of Peace. He strikes it with his mighty rod of Truth and a flowering spring of peaceful ideals gushes forth to water the dried ground of human capabilities. The war cries have stilled the voices of modern pacifists and have set at naught all their parliamentary, flimsy, diplomatic arrangements.
